Review of activities

The Trustees meet ten times throughout the year in question. There were five primary issues that occupied their attention. First, they agreed a grant to help with an Amharic training course for church leaders.

Second, they discussed proposals for the use of a church building in Erdington, Birmingham and after considering a range of options they agreed to attempt the sale of the building.

Third, they negotiated the lease of a church building in Bournville, Birmingham with the United Reformed Church. The intention is to use the building to serve the local community.

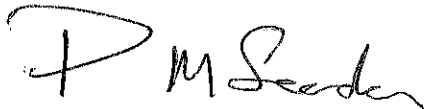

Fourth, they began to explore the issuing of a lease to a church that wishes to rent a building in Wigston, Leicester.

Fifth, they continued discussions on a merger between the Fellowship of Churches of Christ and ForMission College.

The trust received donations from the Fellowship of Churches of Christ to help pay for the work of a consultant in relation to the development a training programme. The trust sold shares to the value of £50,000 to facilitate new loans in relation of a manse. A total of £60,000 of loans were made during the year.

The trust made a grant to the Fellowship of Churches of Christ to assist with administration costs.
