Judgement and key sources of estimation uncertainty.

No significant judgements have been made by the trustees in preparing these financial statements.

Fund Accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees to further any of the charity's purposes.

Designated funds are unrestricted funds earmarked by the trustees for particular future project commitment.

Restricted funds are subjected to restrictions on their expenditure declared by the donor of, through the terms of an appeal, and fall into one of two sub-classes: restricted income funds or endowment funds.

All funds declared in the accounts are unrestricted.

Incoming Resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when entitlement has passed to the charity: it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transition will flow to the charity and the amount can be reliably measured the following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income

Income from donations or grants is recognised when there is evidence to entitlement to the gift, receipt is probable, and its amount can be measured reliably

Legacy income is recognised when receipt is probable, and entitlement is established

Income from donated goods is measured at the fair value of the goods unless this is impractical to measure reliably, in which case the value is derived from the cost to the donor or the estimated resale value. Donated facilities and services measured. No amounts are included for the contribution of general volunteers.

Income from the contracts for the supply of services is recognised with the delivery of the contracted service. This is classified as unrestricted funds unless there is a contractual requirement for it to be spent on particular purpose and returned is unspent, in which case it may be regarded as restricted.

Resources Expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes and VAT which cannot be fully recovered and is classified under headings of the statement of financial activities which it relates.

Expenditure on raising funds includes the costs of all fundraising activities, events, non-charitable trading activities, and the sale of donated goods.

Expenditure on charitable activities includes all costs incurred by a charity in undertaking activities that further its charitable aims for the benefits of its beneficiaries, including those support costs and costs relating to the governance of the charity apportioned to charitable activities.

Other expenditure includes all expenditure that is neither related to raising funds for the charity nor part of its expenditure on charitable activities.

All costs are allocated to expenditure categories reflecting the use of the resource. Direct costs attributable to a single activity are allocated directly to that activity. Shared costs are apportioned between the activities they contribute to on a reasonable, justifiable, and consistent basis.

Objectives and activities

The objective of the Association is the relief of persons suffering from renal failure by

A, Inviting and receiving contributions from any person or persons whatsoever by way of subscription, donation and otherwise, provided that the Association does not undertake any permanent trading activities in raising funds for its primary charitable object.

B, To supplement the services provided by the local hospitals for health, welfare and comfort of such persons, including the provision of clubs, health and recreation centres, hostels, rest and convalescent home for the use and benefit of such persons.

C, To relieve distressed and needy persons suffering from renal failure or, where appropriate, their families being in need of financial assistance.

D, To take and accept gifts of property, whether subject to special trusts or not, for the object of association

E, To give and exchange information and advice and to promote education in all matters relating to renal failure

Achievements and performance

The main achievements of the charity during the year were:

The continued financial aid and advice to individual patients and their families. The regular publication of a magazine to update patients on useful telephone numbers and the contacts, also other general information.

The publication of the magazine continues to be a success.

Financial review

The reserve fund shown allows the Charity to undertake new projects and continue with others, such as sponsoring a psychological support counsellor for kidney patients, without the concern of starting something that the Charity cannot continue due to a lack of funding.

Plan for future periods

The Charity will continue to organise events in order to raise money and support its members.
