Re Combined Halls of Clare – Accounts Year April 2023/March 2024

I was pleased to be asked by Paul Heath to act as Independent Examiner and to check the accounts for the above year. I have now completed the check.

I have checked all non-direct debit/standing order transactions over £500 and a 10% sample of all other transactions to confirm the accuracy of accounting records against the bank statements. I also check that valid invoices/receipts were held for all debit transactions sampled.

I have also checked a sample of 10% of incoming transactions on the statements against the accounting records.

I further have checked the bank balances against the accounting records and the arithmetic accuracy of the accounts in general, including the statement of income and expenditure for the year.

Having completed these checks I am pleased to confirm that, to the best of my knowledge, the accounts give a true reflection of the full period in question.

Many thanks to Paul for his help and cooperation in providing all records and answers to any questions I had.

Yours faithfully

Kevin Price
