Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

THE CARPENTER CHARITABLE TRUST

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5 APRIL 2025

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charities (Accounts and Reports)

Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE and MANAGEMENT

The charity exists to make grants to support exclusively charitable activities, nearly always via other registered charities. The Trustees meet when required to review applications and decide on grants. The trustees claim no expenses and employ no staff. They do, of course, employ professional fund managers and accountants at an appropriate cost to the charity.

The power to appoint new trustees resides with the trustees. They keep the question of additional trustees under review in order to provide longer term continuity.

Risk

The Trustees do not consider that there are any material risks which could adversely impact on a small grant making charity.

The Trustees do not commit themselves to making repeat grants. As a result, the Trustees are satisfied that no circumstances will arise where commitments could exceed assets. Whilst many of the charities receiving grants will have received grants before there is no commitment by the Trustees nor do recipients have any expectation (as opposed to a hope) that grants will be renewed.

Objectives, aims and grant making policies

The charity has wide general grant making powers.

The Trustees continue to make most of their grants to charities on their preferred list. However, since the Russian invasion of Ukraine in 2022, the trustees have given particular consideration to the provision of much needed aid in Ukraine. This will continue to dominate the grant giving programme for the foreseeable future. Subject to this, the trustees intend to maintain their general policy of supporting a wide range of charities which address needs the trustees care about deeply. This will often involve repeat grants, but these will only be made when the trustees are satisfied that there is a continuing need; the charity remains a wise and effective steward of its resources and is committed to high standards of governance.

The Trustees rarely have resources to meet unsolicited applications although in addition to Ukraine, the Trustees will give particular consideration to charities providing humanitarian aid in response to war or natural disaster.

Much though they would like to do so, the trustees do not normally consider applications from: -

- Churches for church repairs
- Individuals
- Outside the United Kingdom unless clearly sponsored by a charity based in England and Wales.

TRUSTEES' REPORT

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5 APRIL 2025

Investment

The investment policy is to seek to preserve the level of annual grants. The Trustees follow a total return approach. In practice the capital value has been reducing over time as the total value of grants is not confined to the annual income.

Reserves

In the light of their grant making policy, the Trustees do NOT consider that they need to maintain reserves. The charity does not enter into any long commitments.

Public Benefit

As the Trustees primarily support other registered charities, the initial responsibility for ensuring that the public benefit test is satisfied rests with recipient charities. However, the Trustees will not consider making a grant if they have any concerns that the public benefit test might not be met.

The Trustees are conversant with guidance produced by the Charity Commission.

Continued application of existing policies

The Trustees will continue to apply existing policies.

General observations

There has been a significant spike in the number of applications from churches seeking grants for repairs or improvements. Apparently, such applications have been encouraged because this charity is included on a list of potential grant providers maintained by a number of diocesan offices. The compilers of the lists do not check out charities first before including them on their lists. So, in spite of our published policy, applicants (and ourselves) waste a lot of time on applications which could never succeed. Fundraising is hard work, and we feel sorry for applicants who send off their requests in hope, but in reality have no chance of a grant.

The trustees have found that many more applications are now being made by email. Since the trustees consider grant applications in batches it is often a number of weeks (and sometimes months) between the receipt of an application and its consideration. Email applications prove much harder to track. Perversely, it is easier for the trustees to respond by email and many paper applications do not include an email address for a response. The trustees recognise that each application deserves a response.

During the year, Cazenove ceased providing cheque facilities for their clients and as a result the charity now banks with The Co-operative Bank. This has advantages as we can now also make BACs payments in appropriate circumstances.

ACHIEVEMENTS and PERFORMANCE

Grants in 2024-2025

Some familiar names crop up again this year. After giving support to ALFs Humanitarian Aid CIO in the past, we switched all our support for Ukraine to another charity, Felsted Aid for Deprived Children, which has a working name of UK-Aid. It has been working in Ukraine for over 25 years initially focussing on the needs of children and families suffering the consequences of the Chernobyl disaster but since 2022 it has been heavily involved in sending emergency aid to Ukraine. Last year it sent over 90 tonnes of aid. Locally we collect as much aid as we can from our community, but in addition our charity also sends cash to Uk-Aid for it to buy much needed items which it can buy in bulk.

THE CARPENTER CHARITABLE TRUSTTRUSTEES' REPORT*FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5 APRIL 2025

In addition, we have worked closely with Macclesfield Ukrainian Aid to purchase ambulances and recovery vehicles, service and repurpose them for use, and then deliver them to Ukraine. In the last year we were able to pay for 5 vehicles and their delivery costs.

In cash terms the charity has spent £50,610 on aid of one kind and another for Ukraine. This reflects the seriousness which the trustees place on supporting Ukraine as much as possible whilst preserving a wide range of grants for other important charitable activities.

Newcomers to the list this year include the David Nott Foundation (set up by the renowned surgeon who has brought his surgeon's skill to some of the most dangerous places on earth as well as training and equipping surgeons with the special skills to work in dire situations; the Olive Harvest Trust supporting the education of children living in the West Bank; Friends of Danesbury who provide funds for our local hospital; and the Moldova Mission supplying bibles translated into Ukrainian.

115 applications for grants were unsuccessful.

THE CARPENTER CHARITABLE TRUST

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5TH APRIL 2025

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of The Carpenter Charitable Trust ('the charity')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 5th April 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the charity, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK & Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT
FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5TH APRIL 2024

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of The Carpenter Charitable Trust ('the charity')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 5th April 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the charity, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK & Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE and MANAGEMENT

The charity exists to make grants to support exclusively charitable activities, nearly always via other registered charities. The Trustees meet when required to review applications and decide on grants. The trustees claim no expenses and employ no staff. They do, of course, employ professional fund managers and accountants at an appropriate cost to the charity.

The power to appoint new trustees resides with the trustees. They keep the question of additional trustees under review in order to provide longer term continuity.

Risk

The Trustees do not consider that there are any material risks which could adversely impact on a small grant making charity.

The Trustees do not commit themselves to making repeat grants. As a result, the Trustees are satisfied that no circumstances will arise where commitments could exceed assets. Whilst many of the charities receiving grants will have received grants before there is no commitment by the Trustees nor do recipients have any expectation (as opposed to a hope) that grants will be renewed.

Objectives, aims and grant making policies

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of The Carpenter Charitable Trust ('the charity')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 5th April 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the charity, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK & Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- Make judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE and MANAGEMENT

The charity exists to make grants to support exclusively charitable activities, nearly always via other registered charities. The Trustees meet when required to review applications and decide on grants. The trustees claim no expenses and employ no staff. They do, of course, employ professional fund managers and accountants at an appropriate cost to the charity.

The power to appoint new trustees resides with the trustees. They keep the question of additional trustees under review in order to provide longer term continuity.

Risk

The Trustees do not consider that there are any material risks which could adversely impact on a small grant making charity.

The Trustees do not commit themselves to making repeat grants. As a result, the Trustees are satisfied that no circumstances will arise where commitments could exceed assets. Whilst many of the charities receiving grants will have received grants before there is no commitment by the Trustees nor do recipients have any expectation (as opposed to a hope) that grants will be renewed.

Objectives, aims and grant making policies

The charity has wide general grant making powers.

The Trustees continue to make most of their grants to charities on their preferred list. These are charities which the Trustees have worked well with over the years and which address needs which the Trustees care about deeply. Before making an initial or repeat grant the Trustees will need to be satisfied that there is a continuing need; the charity remains a wise and effective steward of its resources and is committed to high standards of governance. Being on the preferred list merely means that the Trustees will give a charity special consideration but by itself does not guarantee a grant. The Trustees have limited resources at their disposal and have to make invidious choices.

The Trustees rarely have resources to meet unsolicited applications although the Trustees will give particular consideration to charities providing humanitarian aid in response to war or natural disaster.

The Trustees do not normally consider applications from:

- Churches for church repairs
- Individuals
- Outside the United Kingdom unless clearly sponsored by a charity based in England and Wales.

The Trustees aspire to inform every unsuccessful application that no grant will be forthcoming. The bulk of these responses are now by email.

Investment

The investment policy is to seek to preserve the level of annual grants. The Trustees follow a total return approach. In practice the capital value has been reducing over time as the total value of grants is not confined to the annual income.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5 APRIL 2024

Reserves

In the light of their grant making policy, the Trustees do NOT consider that they need to maintain reserves. The charity does not employ staff or have any administrative expenses (other than fees for investment and accounting services) and it does not enter into any long commitments.

Public Benefit

As the Trustees primarily support other registered charities, the initial responsibility for ensuring that the public benefit test is satisfied rests with recipient charities. However, the Trustees will not consider making a grant if they have any concerns that the public benefit test might not be met.

The Trustees are conversant with guidance produced by the Charity Commission.

Continued application of existing policies

The Trustees will continue to apply existing policies.

ACHIEVEMENTS and PERFORMANCE

Grants in 2023-2024

27 charities received grants during the year. Most of them received grants in the previous year. The most significant recipient during the year was Alfs Humanitarian Aid CIO (Alfs) which received three grants totalling £23,000. Michael Carpenter is one of the Trustees of Alfs. Gay Carpenter has been instrumental in collecting, sorting and packing (with descriptive labels in Ukrainian) very significant quantities of requested aid from an ever growing community of donors. The Trustees have been greatly moved by the plight of Ukraine and Ukrainians; they have been privileged to provide a home for two years to a mother and daughter from Kyiv and consider the provision of aid to be a high priority.

The full list forms a schedule to these accounts.

88 applications for grants were unsuccessful. Whilst each of these applications was in respect of important objectives, they mainly fell outside the parameters within which the Trustees operate – for example church repairs, or obviously very local activities.

The Trustees have found that more applications are now being made by email. Since the Trustees consider grant applications in batches, it is often a number of weeks (and sometimes months) between the receipt of an application and its consideration. Email applications prove much harder to track. Perversely, it is easier for the Trustees to respond by email and many paper applications do not include an email address for response. The Trustees recognise that each application deserves a response.

FOR THE YEAR ENDED 5TH APRIL 2024

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of The Carpenter Charitable Trust ('the charity')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 5th April 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the charity, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK & Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
