OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objects for public benefit

The objects of the charity are the relief of the poor, needy and sick and the advancement of Jewish Religious Education.

The trustees confirm that they have given due regard the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.

Review of activities

Grants were made to institutions and to families as well as needy, sick, unemployed, widows and incapacitated persons. Whilst the majority of cases are in Greater London, help is also given to the provinces and further afield.

There are constant calls for help all of which are treated discreetly and with sympathy. Cases are carefully considered at meetings held at various times and help given according to the circumstances and funds available.

Funds are raised by the Trustees and a team of voluntary helpers. In addition, appeals are made to the Jewish community before the Jewish Holidays.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

The trustees are satisfied with the results of the year. There was a fall of about 25% in income and the trustees reduced grantmaking. There was a deficit for the year.

KUPAS TZEDOKO VOCHESSED TRUST

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales, the Charities Act 2011, Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 28 October 2021 and signed on its behalf by:

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
