In addition to this the charity had established a comprehensive funeral services and a funeral assurance committee (FAC).

Achievement and Performance

Charitable activities -

Due to Covid-19 the Mosque went through a very difficult time and most of services were suspended. However the funeral services were continued despite the Covid-19 effected deaths. The brave efforts of Volunteers are commended, who performed these burials with Islamic full Sharia compliant including Ghushl. During this period the Mehrab was extended so that Janazas can be brought inside the mosque to avoid bad weather conditions.

The fund raising activities were continued for the development of the Masjid and its projects. The Trustees remained focused on improving the education system for the children. The children's enrolments steadily increased throughout the year and it is operating at full capacity. The excess demand was managed through the introduction of weekend classes and waiting list management. The membership of FAC is also reported to be growing steadily.

We are pleased to report that Allamdulillah throughout the year the charity maintained the running of the mosque and madrassah (school) to achieve its objectives and the Trustees are satisfied with the overall performance of the charity.

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales, the Charities Act 2011, Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF CRAWLEY MOSQUE

I report on the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2022 set out on pages five to nine.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act)) and that an independent examination is required.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statements below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act

have not been met; or

- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
