INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS' REPORT

To the Trustees of

CHELTENHAM GENERAL HOSPITAL INTENSIVE CARE TRUST

We report on the income and expenditure account of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2022, which is set out on page 3.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustee you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts: you consider that the audit requirement of Section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Act) does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under Section 145 (5) (b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiners' report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiners' statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

- 1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the Charities Act 2011; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the acthave not been met; or
- 2) to which in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
