Objectives and activities

The aim of the institute is to deliver religious education to students so they can train to become qualified scholars, religious social workers, family conflict resolution counsellors and fulfil the need of various requirements to the Muslim communities. Provide a platform for students to learn different languages, acquiring knowledge in programmes of literacy, numeracy and ability to write and read. The institution aims to prepare students to become model Muslims and responsible citizens whilst embedding in them a sense of discipline, which enables them to develop into upright, respectable and worthy citizens in their respective country.

Achievements and performance

During the accounting year 24/25, the trust had major refurbishment and renovation work being carried out at the trust property in Fentiman Road. Two years ago the trust informed the India institute about this impending work. Once the project work is completed, the India institution will continue to benefit financially from our charity.

Financial review

The Charity continued to receive rent from the properties that it owns. The net surplus is large, and the Charity's balance sheet is strong.

It is the policy of the Charity that unrestricted funds, which have not been specifically designated for a specific use, should be maintained at a level above three to six months expenditure. The trustees consider reserves at this level will ensure that in the unlikely event of an unexpected drop in rental income, there will be able to continue the Charity's current activities. There are no restricted funds.

Trustees' Responsibilities Statement

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The Charities Act 2011 requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. The trustees have to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP.
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the group will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Signed on behalf of the trustees:

Independent examiner's report to the trustees on the unaudited financial statements of The Taraj Education Trust

I report on the accounts of The Taraj Education Trust for the year ended 31 March 2025, which are set out on pages 3 to 10.

This report is made solely to the trustees, as a body, in accordance with section 154 of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act). My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees, as a body, for my work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the 2011 Act and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission ^[1]_{SEP} under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and ^[1]_{SEP}
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention. ^[1]_{SEP}

Basis of independent examiner's report (

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

^[1]_{SEP}Independent examiner's statement^[1]_{SEP}

- I. In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention: ^[1]_{SEP}
- II. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- III. to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the 2011 Act; and ^[1]_{SEP} to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 2011 Act; have not been met; or ^[1]_{SEP}to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached. [L] [L]
