	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the charity are to advance the Christian faith and ministry for the benefit of the public by developing theological education, principally by extension, so that it is accessible by a wide range of people including those who cannot afford other types of education. The charity is involved with the publication and distribution of Christian literature and materials throughout the world. The charity's ministry is independent, interdenominational and international and so benefits a wide section of the public.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity has continued to produce, promote, distribute and facilitate the production and distribution of extension education materials. It has also developed and revised many of its publications in response to the need for accessible Christian educational resources for both Christian and non-Christian cultures. The courses are also promoted via the website and social media. The charity has co-operated with other Christian extension learning organisations and Christian broadcasting organisations to further its objects and to ensure that as many people as possible benefit from its activities. The trustees regularly review the charity activities and make plans for the future, to ensure that the SEAN courses maintain their quality and availability, throughout the world, in many languages and in a range of media formats, as communications and digital technology continues to provide more opportunities to serve and benefit the public.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity	Para 1.18	The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, as well as the specific guidance for charities on the advancement of religion.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the year we developed our contact with a wide network of organizations committed to theological education by extension. Many of these organisations, and their students, who are often from very poor areas, benefit from the use of our courses. We also worked, and provided input via training and conference opportunities, with other organisations involved with Theological Education by Extension (TEE). We have gained further information about those printing, distributing and using courses and materials developed by our charity, which will assist us in future revision and development of courses. We have continued our research and deepened our knowledge as we progress the possibility of more providing courses via digital platforms and mobile devices, which will benefit a wider section of society.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 05/04/2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below~~ *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Set out on pages

CCXX R1 & R2 accounts (SS)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 05/04/2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

Independent examiner's statement

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below~~ *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and Activities

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the charity are to advance the Christian faith and ministry for the benefit of the public by developing theological education, principally by extension, so that it is accessible by a wide range of people including those who cannot afford other types of education. The charity is involved with the publication and distribution of Christian literature and materials throughout the world. The charity's ministry is independent, interdenominational and international and so benefits a wide section of the public.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity has continued to produce, promote, distribute and facilitate the production and distribution of extension education materials. It has also developed and revised many of its publications in response to the need for accessible Christian educational resources for both Christian and non-Christian cultures. The courses are also promoted via the website and social media. The charity has co-operated with other Christian extension learning organisations and Christian broadcasting organisations to further its objects and to ensure that as many people as possible benefit from its activities. The trustees regularly review the charity activities and make plans for the future, to ensure that the SEAN courses maintain their quality and availability, throughout the world, in many languages and in a range of media formats, as communications and digital technology continues to provide more opportunities to serve and benefit the public.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity	Para 1.18	The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, as well as the specific guidance for charities on the advancement of religion.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the year we have developed our contact with a wide network of organizations committed to education by extension. Many of these organisations, and their students, who are often from very poor areas, benefit from the use of our courses. We have also worked, and provided input at training opportunities, with other organisations involved with Theological Education by Extension (TEE). We have gained further information about those distributing and using courses and materials developed by our charity, which will assist us in future revision and development of our courses. We have continued our research and deepened our knowledge as we progress the possibility of more providing courses via digital platforms and mobile devices, which will benefit a wider section of society.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 05/04/2021.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (~~other than that disclosed below~~*) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Objectives and Activities

Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the charity are to advance the Christian faith and ministry for the benefit of the public by developing theological education, principally by extension, so that it is accessible by a wide range of people including those who cannot afford other types of education. The charity is involved with the publication and distribution of Christian literature and materials throughout the world. The charity's ministry is independent, interdenominational and international and so benefits a wide section of the public.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity has continued to produce, distribute and facilitate the production and distribution of extension education materials. It has also developed and revised some of its publications in response to the need for accessible Christian educational resources for both Christian and non-Christian cultures. The charity has co-operated with other Christian extension learning organisations and Christian broadcasting organisations to further its objects and to ensure that as many people as possible benefit from its activities. The trustees have undertaken a review of the charity and are planning for the future to ensure that the SEAN courses maintain their quality and availability, throughout the world, in many languages and in a range of media formats, as communications technology continues to provide more opportunities to serve and benefit the public.

Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and, in particular, the specific guidance on charities for the advancement of religion.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	During the year we have continued to develop our contact with a wide network of organizations committed to education by extension. Many of these organisations, and their students, who are often from very poor areas, benefit from the use of our courses. We have also worked, and provided input to training, with other organisations involved with Theological Education by Extension (TEE). We have gained further information about those distributing and using courses and materials developed by our charity, which will assist us in revising and developing our courses. We have continued our research and developed our knowledge as we progress the possibility of providing courses via digital platforms and mobile devices, which will benefit a wider section of society.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 05/04/2021.

Responsibilities and

As the charity trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
