Exeter Division Guides

Structure, Governance and Management

The Exeter Division of the Guide Association is a branch of the Guide Association which was incorporated by Royal Charter. It is a registered charity (287550). The Exeter Division of the Guide Association is responsible for the administration of the Association's affairs within Exeter and some outlying areas, and for the general development of the principles, aims, organisation and rules of the Association in accordance with the Royal Charter and the Guiding Manual. It is headed by the Division Commissioner, who is the chair of the committee.

Members of the committee are appointed in accordance with the procedures established in the Devon County Guide Association. The charity trustees are the voting members of the committee. The trustees determine the general policy of the Exeter Division of the Guide Association. The day to day management is done by trustees and other volunteers.

Objectives and Activities for the Public Benefit

The Exeter Division of the Guide Association shares the aims of The Guide Association; to promote the education of girls and young women to help them develop emotionally, mentally, physically and spiritually so that they can make a positive contribution to their community.

To enable girls and young women to fulfil their potential to take an active and responsible role in society through its distinctive stimulating and enjoyable programme of activities delivered by trained volunteers. The trustees' policy is to see that the highest quality of care and instruction is available to the beneficiaries.

All adult members of Exeter Division are volunteers who willingly give their time to deliver and administer opportunities when running their part of Guiding i.e. unit, District or Division.

Achievements and Performance

At the annual subscription census in 2024 the Division had a total of 869 girls in Rainbows, Rainbow, Brownies, Guides, Rangers & Young Leaders sections and 206 adult leaders and unit volunteers.

During 2024 the Division held large scale events with Thinking Day activity day at Cranbrook School for all and an opening event to kick off the summer of sports activities. The Rainbows enjoyed a disco & sport stars evening, The Brownies a barn dance and the Bear Trail and the Guides & Rangers had a go at skiing and a day at Haven Banks. The planned swimming gala at Topsham open air pool was cancelled due to the weather.

The Ten Tors group completed their challenge and are working towards the 2025 challenge. The Young Leaders held a few meetings during the year.

All sections had the opportunity to attend a residential event at Kenton Victory Hall, Grenville House or Tawbottom.
At the end of the year the Division took over the temporary ice rink at Westpoint one evening and held Winter Wonderland craft sessions at Trefoil Lodge one weekend.

The Exeter Scout & Guide shop passed on a profit of £2479.08 during 2024 and we thank the team for all their work continued hard work.

Trefoil Lodge has continued to be well used by Guiding and community groups. A new shed has been purchased and the pads for the defib machine replaced.

Financial Review

The financial statements of Exeter Division Guides have been prepared in accordance with The Charities Act using the Receipts and Payments basis.

The results for the year and the financial position of the Exeter Division of the Guide Association are shown on the next page.

Total income was £48722 (2023: £44135). Expenditure was £42433 (2023: £44924), giving a net incoming of £6289 (2023: outgoing £789).

The charity maintains a general liquid reserve for Trefoil Lodge of £10,000 that is sufficient to cover one year's operating expenditure. The restricted fund for the Trefoil Lodge Building improvements has been closed. The Division also holds a reserve of £20,000 for Exeter Division Guides.

Loan

After a review it was discovered that £10,000 initially identified as a donation from Girlguiding Devon in 2015, was in fact, a loan. The loan is now being repaid at £1,000 per annum, although in the year ended 31 December 2024, it was possible to repay £4,000. At 31 December 2024 the loan had been paid in full.

Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees on the Financial Statements
Exeter Division of the Guide Association operating as Exeter Division Guides,

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act") and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
