1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charitable company, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Companies Act 2006. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

This represents subscriptions and donations receivable together with the gross receipts from ticket sales and various functions/activities.

(a) Income Resources:

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SoFA) when: the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to the particular categories of income.

- Subscriptions

This represents subscriptions receivable from individuals and corporate members during the year. Life subscriptions are recognized in full in the year of receipt.

- Investment income

This is included in the accounts when receivable.

- Incoming resources with related expenditure

Where incoming resources have related expenditure (as with fundraising) the incoming resources and related income are reported gross in the SoFA.

- Grants and donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the Charity has unconditional entitlement to the resources.

Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates. All direct costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the SoFA on the basis designed to reflect the use of the resources.

- Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its members.

- Support cost management comprise those costs which cannot be allocated directly to a particular activity.

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from corporation tax on its charitable activities.

A donation of £130,000 was made to the Hellenic Community Trust during 1992 under the terms of a trust deed, dated 24th June 1992, whereby the London Lyceum of Greek Women will be entitled to occupy rooms in the building, owned by the Hellenic Community Trust, known as 16-18 Paddington Street, London, W1U 5AS.

A further donation of £20,000 was made upon actual occupation of the rooms during 1994, and this payment has therefore ended the Lyceum's liability under the said trust deed. If the building should cease to be occupied by the Hellenic Community Trust for charitable purposes, or the Hellenic Community Trust should cease to be registered as a charity, or the London Lyceum of Greek Women should cease to be registered as a Charity, or if the Hellenic Community Trust passes a special resolution specifying its termination, the trust period will come to an end.

Upon the last day of the trust period, the London Lyceum of Greek Women will be entitled to receive either 10% of the trust fund or 10% of the net asset value of the Hellenic Community Trust, whichever is the lesser, provided that the London Lyceum of Greek Women is registered as a charity as of that date.

A donation of £130,000 was made to the Hellenic Community Trust during 1992 under the terms of a trust deed, dated 24th June 1992, whereby the London Lyceum of Greek Women will be entitled to occupy rooms in the building, owned by the Hellenic Community Trust, known as 16-18 Paddington Street, London, W1U 5AS.

A further donation of £20,000 was made upon actual occupation of the rooms during 1994, and this payment has therefore ended the Lyceum's liability under the said trust deed. If the building should cease to be occupied by the Hellenic Community Trust for charitable purposes, or the Hellenic Community Trust should cease to be registered as a charity, or the London Lyceum of Greek Women should cease to be registered as a Charity, or if the Hellenic Community Trust passes a special resolution specifying its termination, the trust period will come to an end.

Upon the last day of the trust period, the London Lyceum of Greek Women will be entitled to receive either 10% of the trust fund or 10% of the net asset value of the Hellenic Community Trust, whichever is the lesser, provided that the London Lyceum of Greek Women is registered as a charity as of that date.

Therefore strenuous efforts will be made in 2023 for attracting more donations and sponsorships from corporate and private individuals.

10. RELATED PARTY DISCLOSURES

No trustee or other person related to the charity had any personal interest in any contract or transaction entered into by the charity during the year.

11. CONTINGENT ASSET

A donation of £130,000 was made to the Hellenic Community Trust during 1992 under the terms of a trust deed, dated 24th June 1992, whereby the London Lyceum of Greek Women will be entitled to occupy rooms in the building, owned by the Hellenic Community Trust, known as 16-18 Paddington Street, London, W1U 5AS.

A further donation of £20,000 was made upon actual occupation of the rooms during 1994, and this payment has therefore ended the Lyceum's liability under the said trust deed. If the building should cease to be occupied by the Hellenic Community Trust for charitable purposes, or the Hellenic Community Trust should cease to be registered as a charity, or the London Lyceum of Greek Women should cease to be registered as a Charity, or if the Hellenic Community Trust passes a special resolution specifying its termination, the trust period will come to an end.

Upon the last day of the trust period, the London Lyceum of Greek Women will be entitled to receive either 10% of the trust fund or 10% of the net asset value of the Hellenic Community Trust, whichever is the lesser, provided that the London Lyceum of Greek Women is registered as a charity as of that date.
