The Chapel and Hall provide The Community Church with its own premises for worship and prayer. At other times the premises are used for activities for children, youth and the elderly and is also made available for hire to other local individuals and organisations.

As well as using the Chapel and Hall, the Trust was able to continue its Christian work in other areas.

Lisa Dollery was appointed as our full-time Kids and Families Community Coordinator

The Trust were pleased to support the local Lighthouse Children's Holiday Clubs both through direct member input and donations.

The Trust was pleased to continue its support for a missionary family involved in bible translation work.

Donations were made to local, national and international charities and organisations. The largest donations, enabled by members of the Church, helped provide healthcare in a valued charitable hospital in the Gambia.

The Trust also raised money to supply many needed IT devices for local school children.

In Quarter 1 it also facilitated an exciting and innovative youth engagement project based at the Chapel.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. [The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [named body]].
Delete [] if not applicable.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
