All our permanent members give at least 6 hours per week of their time. They are there to support in various activities of the charity and to gain new skills and experience to enhance their employment prospects.

Public benefit Statement

The Trustees and Directors consider that they have complied with Section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 with regards to the guidance on public benefit published by the Charity Commission.

Objectives and Activities

BANGLADESH CENTRE is a grass roots community organisation with the aims and objectives of

“To Provide an advisory and information service including casework dealing with welfare benefits, immigration and nationality, homelessness and housing, translation and interpretation, employment and training, legal and police matters, health care and general information etc”.

What the Charity offers to the community

The charity does its best to what it can offer to the local community. Despite some financial constraints the charity offers the following activities:

- To provide supplementary school program including holding classes for Bangla language as a mother tongue, Bangla language for non-Bengali people, English as second language. GCSE and 'A' level Bangla, English, Maths, Physics, Chemistry and Biology etc.
- To provide advice, guidance on health care by professional doctor(s).
- To provide ICT facilities to beneficiaries, especially from the Bangladeshi community.
- To organize cultural functions, festivals and to hold Bangladesh national events throughout the year, (e.g. Martyrs Day and International Mother Language Day, Independence and National Day, Bangla New Year, Bangladesh Victory Day, etc.). Exhibition of crafts, paintings, photographs, are a part and parcel of the cultural activities.
- To provide music school program to the interested groups including second generation Bangladeshis through providing facilities of learning Dance, Music and Drama.
- To organize get together parties every week for women and also to arrange sociocultural seminars and hold classes on painting, knitting, sewing, cooking, performing arts etc. under women's awareness program.

- Social welfare
- IT project
- Short term hostel accommodation for the newcomers
- Supplementary classes on language
- Music, drama and dance
- Healthcare advice
- Women project
- Elderly project
- Information and library services
- Youth project

RENOVATION AND SUSPENSION OF ACTIVITIES

Bangladesh Centre is currently undergoing renovation in order to fulfil the requirements of the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea (RBKC) and in compliance with the standards they (RBKC) have set. Jackfruit London Enterprise drafted an agreement for 14 years with Bangladesh Centre to develop the governance and infrastructure. Jackfruit London Enterprise is also working closely with RBKC to undertake the renovation of Bangladesh Centre.

The primary goal was to carry out the renovation and so the Centre's activities were suspended for a brief moment in time. The office of the Centre has moved to an office in East London to carry out day-to-day affairs. Activities have been resumed in July 2020 in the new building.

CELEBRATORY EVENTS

With the financial constraints and support of all members, the Centre managed to celebrate events such as Victory Day (16/12/22), Martyr's Day and International Mother Language Day (21/02/22). On 31st March 2022 the Centre organised three events together: Installation ceremony of the newly elected members of the Management Committee, Celebration of Independence & National Day and the prestigious Freedom Honour.

Small Company Provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small Companies regime.

Signed on behalf of the Board:

Delwar Hussain (General Secretary)

Approved by the Board on 25/01/2023.

THE BANGLADESH CENTRE
Independent Examiner's Report to the Directors for the year ended 31st March 2022

The financial statements laid out in this report on pages 7 have prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with the SORP, Accounting and Reporting by Charities Commission issued in April 2005 and applicable Accounting Standards and the Charities Act 1993.

Respective Responsibilities of the Executive Committee and the Examiner

As the Charity's Trustees, and the directors of the company for the purpose of Company Law you are responsible for the preparation of the Financial Statements. The Trustees consider that an Audit is not required for this year (under section 144 (2) of the Charities Act 2011) and that an Independent Examiner is needed.

It is our responsibility to:

- Examine the Financial Statements under section 145 of the 2011 Act.
- Follow the procedure laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act and
- State whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent Examiners' Report

The examination of the accounts was carried out in accordance with the general direction given by the Charities Commissioner. The examination includes:

- A review of the accounting records kept by the Charity.
- A comparison of the accounts presented with those records made available.
- It includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts.

Finally obtaining explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters relating to the accounts. The examination also includes examination of any such matters of evidence relevant to the account of disclosures in the financial statements. It includes assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charity's circumstances consistently applied and adequately disclosed. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiners' Statement

In connection with our examination no matter has come to our attention:

(1) Which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities.
- have not been met; or

(2) to which in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statement prepared give a true and fair view of the charity's state of affairs as at 31 March 2022 giving that the incoming resources and their application in the year then ended have been properly prepared with general direction given by the Charities Commissioner.
