Accounts

Financial review

The trustees policy on reserves is that they should be kept readily available but that surplus funds should be held on interest bearing accounts in order to provide additional income.

The charity's principal sources of funds are from voluntary donations from sponsors, entry fees from participants and admission charges from audiences.

The aim of the charity is to cover the costs of the annual festival and the awards made to the participants.

During the course of the year under review the charity received a substantial donation from an existing supporter which is intended to cover her normal donation of £1000 for a period of up to 20 years. Receipt of this donation substantially inflated the usual level of annual income and the trustees will manage the use of these funds over coming years.

Treasurer

Chairman

Independent Examiner

My examination of the accounts was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commissioners. The examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity, and a comparison of the accounts presented with these records.

I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts. I am fully satisfied, however, that the requirements to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 41 of the Charities Act have been met, as have the requirements to prepare accounts which accord with these records.

I am satisfied with the accuracy of the records, and that there are no other matters to which attention should be drawn.

Signed

John Ellis
Independent Examiner
