Please note that Fair Value in this context is the amount for which an asset could be exchanged between knowledgeable and willing parties in an arm's length transaction. For traded securities, the fair value is the value of the security quoted on the London Stock Exchange Daily Official List or equivalent. For other assets where there is no market price on a traded market, it is the trustees' or valuers' best estimate of fair value.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 05 /04 / 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of the ICAEW.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Financial Review

|--|-----------|--|
| Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period              | Para 1.21 | The charity is in a healthy financial position with a significant positive balance which will be applied to further grant making in the future.   |
| Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held   | Para 1.22 | The charity does not necessarily need reserves or have a specific reserves policy as it has no ongoing running costs, and does not generally commit to ongoing funding over a period of time. The balance in the accounts is a surplus where the income (which can be sporadic) exceeded the grants requested and made during the year. The trustees have also this year agreed to hold back some money provisionally to support new community facilities if Faversham town is significantly extended in the future by the Duchy of Cornwall. A planning decision on this may take a year or more during which time further income for the charity is uncertain |
| Details of fund materially in deficit  | Para 1.24 | None  |
| Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern | Para 1.23 | None  |

| The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising) | Para 1.47 | The previous trustees having decided to sell all shareholdings, and distribute the proceeds as grants to simplify administration, the principal source of funds is as a beneficiary of the Vinson Will Trust. As that trust has its primary income from the development of housing in Faversham, the trustees have adopted a policy of favouring organisations local to Faversham when awarding grants. |
| A description of the principal risks facing the charity              | Para 1.46 | The charity has no running costs and only makes grants within its resources so does not have significant risks.   |
| Other  |           | The previous trustees had considered winding up the charity, until it was apparent that the charity would benefit from significant income from the Vinson Will Trust as land owned by that trust was sold for development. The trustees have therefore decided to continue the charity for as long as this income continues in the interests of public benefit for the local area.                      |

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of Edward Vinson 1957 Charity Settlement ('the Charity')

I report to the Charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 5 April 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the Charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the Charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

This report is made solely to the Charity's Trustees, as a body, in accordance with Part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the Charity's Trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Charity and the Charity's Trustees as a body, for my work or for this report.
