Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document	Constitution adopted 4 th April 2006
How the charity is constituted	Unincorporated Association
Trustee selection methods	Selected and appointed at convened committee meetings, usually AGM.

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Facilities of the Buckland community centre are available to anyone living or working in the Buckland ward. However, we do entertain others if they benefit the Buckland Estate. The overall running of the centre is overseen by the trustees, booking, opening/closing, and ensuring users have the necessary licences, certificates, and protection policies for their relevant activities. Trustee time is given freely with no remuneration.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To work alone, or with local authorities, and develop a community centre that will foster a sense of community and promote the public benefits and education of the inhabitants of the Buckland Estate without distinction of sex, race, political, religious, or other opinion.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Following Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit we maintain and provide serviceable facilities for hire to achieve our objectives. Our regular client base includes:

1. Pre-school education,
2. A mother and child group,
3. A Sunday religious meeting,
4. Dance classes,
5. Children's sporting classes,
6. Adult and children parties,
7. A bingo club,
8. A youth club (average weekly attendance 50+) (This activity is free of charge),
9. A adult drop-in support group providing light snacks and social activities, plus
10. Kent Police Surgeries for the local area.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Trustees Carol, Michele and John deserve special mention because they alone rebuilt the client base after covid lockdown - Graham has been long term ill, and Grace, sadly, passed away. However, recently they have been joined by two more, John and Charlotte which will help immensely.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

By far the biggest achievement through the year has been the re-building, organising and running of our regular client base after covid lock-down. It is now at a level that gives us a reasonable income to maintain our objectives.

Also, we are engaging with local Councillors to identify ways our small enterprise, and its location, could fit in with some of their plans for increasing community benefits. Primarily we support the Buckland Estate, but we will extend our compass if there is a need, and we are able to help with benefits for all. Discussions look fruitful, and they will bring to us: physical help, better advertising/showcasing skills, and further expertise in benefit guidance. This is, potentially, very good and much needed.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

Cash in the bank is managed so that:

1. Four to six months liability costs are available should we stop operating - as with covid lock-down
2. Structural and facility maintenance can be paid for, ensuring we stay operational.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Our finances this year have come primarily from the re-start and rebuilding of our client base payments. However, we benefitted from an injection of £20,000.00+ from government and local councils due to covid and omicron loss-of-earnings and Restart grants. This has been very welcome and quickly re-established our financial stability. We can stay operational.

Section F

Other optional information

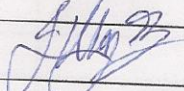

From this point we are looking to broaden and diversify our client base for the benefit of the local community. Also, we would try to increase our committee and help base - the local councillors may be the answer to that problem.
