ASHA PROJECTS*TRUSTEES' REPORT FOR YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH 2023

The trustees present their annual report and accounts for the year ended 31st March 2023.

The financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, governing documents, Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Structure, Governance and Management*Governing document

Asha is a charitable company limited by guarantee incorporated in 1986 and governed by a Memorandum and Articles of Association. The company is established for the objects expressed in the memorandum of Association for the advancement of education, the relief of poverty, sickness, the preservation of health and any other charitable purpose for the benefit of the community (with regard to women of South Asian origin) in the UK.

Recruitment and Appointment of trustees

The directors of the company are also charity trustees for the purposes of charity law, and under the company's articles are known as members of the Management Committee. Under the requirements of the Memorandum and Articles of Association, they hold office until the end of the next Annual General Meeting and are eligible for re-election.

The trustees are chosen and appointed based on their expertise, their knowledge, skills, and dedication aligned with Asha's charitable goals. All new trustees receive training, and all members have access to ongoing training and support. The trustees meet at least once every three months, overseeing strategic direction, setting policies, delegating responsibilities, monitoring performance, and ensuring responsible management of Asha's resources.

To enhance financial governance, procedures have been implemented to establish the delegation of authority over financial matters; control over the organisation's income and expenditure, the protection of its assets and for budgeting and managing the organisations finances. The Trustees bear overall responsibility of Asha and delegates the day to day running of the organisation to the Director.

Risk Management

The Trustees have overall responsibility for managing risk management at Asha. The assessment and monitoring of risks constitute an ongoing process throughout the year, seamlessly integrated into governance and organisational systems. This approach empowers both the trustees and the staff team to make well-informed decisions. Business continuity plans, operational protocols, and health and safety risk assessments are diligently reviewed and regularly updated. This proactive approach ensures that risks are continually minimised and addressed as needed.

Asha's Management Committee is responsible for the overall direction and the strategic focus of the organisation. The day-to-day responsibility is managed by the director, housing and counselling manager and the front-line staff.

Vision, Aims, and Objectives

Asha's vision is to live in a just and sustainable world. Our mission is to challenge inequalities and empower South Asian women to build lives free of violence, oppression, and exploitation.

Our aims include:

1. Supporting and empowering South Asian women experiencing domestic abuse.
2. Ensuring justice for women at policy level.
3. Strengthening Asha to be organisationally and economically sustainable.
4. Working in partnership and in solidarity with other individuals and organisations.

Asha operates from four sites – a resource centre and three refuges consisting of 19 bed spaces. We provide safe temporary accommodation, information, advice, and a volunteering programme for women. One of the refuges (7 bedspaces) is dedicated to young women who are 18 – 25 years old.

We also develop and deliver training based on the needs of South Asian women, the wider community, and other organisations. This includes basic issue-based training on different discriminations especially around the protected characteristics, rights, and the different power dynamics.

Our support is provided both in English and the main South Asian languages, Bengali, Gujarati, Hindi, Punjabi, and Urdu

Volunteer Help

Asha is committed to volunteers who contribute to our mission with commitment and passion. Their diverse knowledge, skills, and experiences, complement, enrich, and expand the resources of the organisation. Volunteers actively engage in various activities including providing support to women and their children, assisting with practical matters related to the running of the organisation, participating in promotional efforts with stakeholders and local organisations, and contributing to general and financial administration.

Asha Projects is committed by and for South Asian women, dedicated to ending organisation violence against women and girls (VAWG). With nearly 40 years of experience, Asha has the experience and understanding of the issues surrounding Violence Against Women and Girls (VAWG). Recognising the significance of specialised organisations, we go beyond language-specific provision and interpretation services, offering crucial support grounded in an understanding of socio-cultural norms, values, and issues specific to South Asian communities. Our participatory support systems that are women-friendly, allow us to address the diverse needs of individual women based on their unique experiences. Through our efforts, vulnerable women take the first step in rebuilding their confidence, relationships, and future for themselves and their children.

During 2022/23, Asha has provided support to 560 women. Of the 128 women seeking refuge space, we were only able to accommodate 40 women with their children. Our focus was on consolidating the provision of our current refuge services enhance and fortify these by integrating support received from the GLAMOPAC safe accommodation domestic abuse funding, facilitated through the OYA consortium, with Latin American Women's Aid (LAWA) as the lead. This has enabled us to provide much-needed holistic support to women and their children living in the refuges. This includes counselling which the women can now access on arrival whereas before they were referred to other agencies and would be on a waiting list ranging from 2 - 4 months.

Securing access to safe and affordable housing is vital for survivors navigating their path to recovery. The ongoing challenge, particularly for single women, stems from the limited availability of long-term and secure accommodation. Asha is fortunate to have Lambeth Council providing women from commissioned services access to social housing. Among the 23 women leaving the refuge, 16 were successful in securing long-term social housing with and reported feeling settled in their new homes.

However, some women who choose to relocate to areas where they have existing support networks, were presented with significant obstacles. Their only option was to look for privately rented accommodation. The process was incredibly difficult, and overwhelming given the typical requirements of a deposit and/or a month's rent in advance, especially challenging for women on low income. This experience was incredibly stressful, instilling a sense of powerlessness and resulting in deterioration of their mental and physical health.

The ongoing cost-of-living crisis is deeply impacting our clients, staff, and organisation. More women are turning to us for support during this crisis. To support these women, we have initiated collaborations with other organisations, liaised with food banks, applied for funding, utilised our internal hardship fund, and reached out for donations. Additionally, we have observed a rise in requests for information and advice on matters such as debt management, council tax reduction, rent arrears, and escalating utility costs.

Asha continues to actively collaborate with agencies and partners who share our vision, fostering solidarity, resource-sharing, and a consistent, holistic approach to meet the needs of South Asian women. We work collaboratively both locally and London-wide, contributing to the OYA Consortium, a group of five "by and for" black and minoritised VAWG organisations in London.

Our future plans include:

- Continue strengthening Asha to become more financially and operationally sustainable.
- Expanding our advice and outreach programs to reach more people.
- Building up general reserves for future needs
- Obtaining a quality mark to demonstrate our commitment to excellence.

The trustees would like to extend our heartfelt thanks to our funders and supporters for their ongoing support. We also want to acknowledge the dedication, commitment, and inspiring efforts of our staff and volunteers, who have done an exceptional job, especially during these trying times.

Financial review

In the year April 2022 to March 2023, the charity saw an increase in its activities.

The additional support required by women and staff members was made possible through MOPAC/GLA Covid extension funding via the OYA Consortium with Latin American Women's Aid (LAWA) as the lead.

GLA/MOPAC safe accommodation domestic abuse funding, facilitated through the OYA consortium, with Latin American Women's Aid (LAWA) as the lead.

The charity provides pension scheme contributions for our employees, which are reflected in the statement of financial activities for the year. The charity has no other liabilities under this scheme beyond these contributions.

The trustees have carefully evaluated the charity's need for reserves and established a policy to build the general fund to provide 6-12 months of running costs.

ASHA PROJECTS

The trustees (who are also directors of Asha Projects for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for the financial year. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant accounting information of which the charitable company's examiners are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant accounting information and to establish that the examiners are aware of that information.

Appointment of Independent Examiner

Bharat Shah Chartered Accountant has expressed his willingness to stand for reappointment and a resolution proposing his reappointment will be put forward at the Trustees Meeting.

Approval

This report was approved by the Trustees on 28.12.23 signed on their behalf.

On behalf of the board

Chairperson P Vadgama

ASHA PROJECTS*INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS' REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF ASHA PROJECTS

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023, which are set on pages 9 to 16.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of ICAEW.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 (5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiners' report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiners' statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 386 of the Companies Act 2006; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities. have not been met, or

2) To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
