Structure, Governance and Management

Type of Governing Document –

The Group's governing documents are those of the Scout Association. They consist of a Royal Charter, which in turn gives authority to the Bye Laws of the Association and the Policy, Organisation and Rules of the Scout Association.

How the Charity is constituted –

The Group is a trust established under its rules which are common to all Scouts.

Trustee selection method –

The Trustees are appointed in accordance with the Policy, Organisation and Rules of the Scout Association.

Additional Governance issues –

The Group is managed by the Trustee Committee, the members of which are the Charity Trustees of the Scout Group. As charity Trustees they are responsible for complying with legislation applicable to charities. This includes the registration, keeping proper accounts and making returns to the Charity Commission as appropriate.

The committee consists of one independent representative, the Treasurer, together with the Chairperson, Group Lead Volunteer and Scout Leader/Hall Coordinator, meeting periodically throughout the year. The Trustee Committee exists to support the Group Lead Volunteer in meeting responsibilities of the appointments and is responsible for:

- the maintenance of Group property
- the raising of funds and the administration of Group Finance
- the insurance of persons, property and equipment
- Group public occasions
- Assisting in the recruitment of leaders and other adult support

Risk and internal control -

The Group has in place systems of internal controls that are designed to provide reasonable assurance against material mismanagement or loss. These include two signatories for all payments and a comprehensive insurance policy to ensure that insurable risks are covered.

Trustees Annual Report

For the period 1st April 2024 – 31st March 2025

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objectives of the charity set out in its governing document –

The objectives of the group are as a unit of the Scout Association.

The aims of The Scout Association is to promote the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual, social and spiritual potential, as individuals, as responsible citizens and as members of their local, national and international community. The method of achieving the aim of the Association is by providing an enjoyable and attractive scheme of progressive training based on the Scout Promise and Law and guided by adult leadership.

Public benefit statement –

The Group meets the Charity Commission's public benefit criteria under both the advancement of education and the advancement of citizenship or community development headings.

Financial Review

Reserve's policy –

The Group's policy on reserves is to hold sufficient resources to continue the charitable activities of the Group should income and fundraising activities fall short.

Investment policy -

The Group does not have sufficient funds to invest in longer term investments. The Group has therefore adopted a risk adverse strategy to the investment of its funds. All funds are held in cash using only mainstream banks or building societies.

Declaration

The Trustees declare that they have approved the trustees report above.
