The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Trustees' report For the year ended 30 November 2024

The Trustees present their annual report together with the financial statements of the Charity for the year 1 December 2023 to 30 November 2024.

Objectives and activities

a. Policies and objectives

Object of Society

The object of the society is the advancement of research, scholarship, and public education in particular by the promotion of study of the cultural history of the eighteenth century.

Principal activities undertaken

In furtherance of its objectives the Society engaged in the following main activities during the year:

1. Held an annual society conference at St Hughes College, Oxford, in January 2024 ;
2. Held a Conference for early-career and postgraduate scholars at the Uppsala University, Sweden, in August 2024
3. Held full council meetings;
4. Produced further volumes of its journal;

Public benefit

In setting objectives and planning for activities, the Trustees have given due consideration to general guidance published by the Charity Commission relating to public benefit, including the guidance 'Public benefit: running a charity (PB2)'.

b. Review of Activities and Financial Position

The Council was pleased with the activities arranged and managed by the Society during the year. The Council met three times (once in person and twice online) to discuss society matters, and the Officers also met online most months to review progress on actions points agreed in Council meetings. The Annual Conference at St Hugh's College, Oxford in January 2024, and the Postgraduate/ECR Conference at Uppsala University, Sweden in August 2024, were well attended and well received. During the year, the Council reviewed the society's risk register for the year ahead and the financial forecast for the next five years. It also reviewed and updated several policies and procedures documents in line with the guidelines provided by the Charities Commission.

The Society is currently planning the next BSECS Annual Conference, to be staged in-person (with some online sessions) at Pembroke College, Oxford, in January 2025. The change of venue after several years at St Hugh's College was the result of the Council reviewing the evolving requirements of the Conference, including an increased demand for hybridity and additional accessibility needs from the membership. These factors will be reviewed annually to ensure that the chosen venue for the Annual Conference going forward continues to cater for these requirements.

Between 1 December 2023 and 30 November 2024 the Society ultimately gave awards and prizes to the value of £10,951.

The publishers of the journal, Wiley-Blackwell, receive all subscriptions and pay the society a lump sum for each issue of the journal and share of any future profits, an arrangement which is now well-established and successful.

The movement in funds of the year is set out in the statement of financial activities.

The society's unrestricted reserves at 30 November 2024 amounted to £94,256 and restricted reserves were £11,080 making total reserves of £105,336.

Enquiries about the society should be addressed to the Executive Secretary, Dr Helen Williams: secretary@bsecs.org.uk

Achievements and performance

Financial review

a. Going concern

After making appropriate enquiries, the Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the Charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements. Further details regarding the adoption of the going concern basis can be found in the accounting policies.

b. Reserves policy

The executive committee ensures reserves are sufficient to meet the cost of our conferences and funding of the journal for 12 months.

This is currently presumed to be £93,000, of which £70,000 relates to the annual conference, and £23,000 to the journal.

The executive committee is satisfied with the current level of reserves, and ensures that the reserves policy is reviewed annually.

Structure, governance and management

a. Constitution

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies is a registered charity, number 299756, and is constituted under a Trust deed. A revised constitution was drafted by the Society and approved at an Annual General Meeting of the Society on 5 January 2011.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles of the Charities SORP (FRS 102);
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards (FRS 102) have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the Trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Independent examiner's report For the year ended 30 November 2024

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies ('the Charity')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 30 November 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the Charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the Charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2019.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Notes to the financial statements For the year ended 30 November 2024

1. General information

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies is a charity registered in England with number 299756. Its principle office is 4 West Street, Moulton, Northampton, NN3 7SB

2. Accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) - Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Charities Act 2011.

The financial statements have been prepared to give a 'true and fair' view and have departed from the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 only to the extent required to provide a 'true and fair' view. This departure has involved following the Charities SORP (FRS 102) published in October 2019 rather than the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice effective from 1 April 2005 which has since been withdrawn.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy.

The financial statements have been prepared in British Sterling and rounded to the nearest Pound.

2.2 Going concern

The Trustees assess whether the use of going concern is appropriate i.e. whether there are any material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Trust to continue as a going concern. The Trustees make this assessment in respect of a period of at least one year from the date of authorisation of the financial statements and have concluded that the Trust has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future and there are no material uncertainties about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

2.3 Income

All income is recognised once the Charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount of income receivable can be measured reliably.

Subscriptions are credited to the statement of financial activities in the year which they are received.

Income received in respect of conferences is credited to the statement of financial activities in the year in which the conference takes place.

2.4 Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to transfer economic benefit to a third party, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

Expenditure on charitable activities is incurred on directly undertaking the activities which further the Charity's objectives, as well as any associated support costs.

All expenditure is inclusive of irrecoverable VAT.

Notes to the financial statements
For the year ended 30 November 2024

2. Accounting policies (continued)

2.5 Interest receivable

Interest on funds held on deposit is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the Charity; this is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the institution with whom the funds are deposited.

2.6 Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount after any trade discount offered. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any trade discounts due.

2.7 Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash and short-term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

2.8 Liabilities and provisions

Liabilities are recognised when there is an obligation at the Balance sheet date as a result of a past event, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefit will be required in settlement, and the amount of the settlement can be estimated reliably.

Liabilities are recognised at the amount that the Charity anticipates it will pay to settle the debt or the amount it has received as advanced payments for the goods or services it must provide.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, the provision is based on the present value of those amounts, discounted at the pre-tax discount rate that reflects the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognised in the Statement of financial activities as a finance cost.

2.9 Financial instruments

The Charity only has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value with the exception of bank loans which are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.10 Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the Charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds comprise the ICE Legacy Fund, which will be used to fund projects that further the charitable objectives of BSECS.

Restricted funds comprise the Mason Lecture Fund and the Prizes and Awards Fund.

Investment income, gains and losses are allocated to the appropriate fund.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Trustees' report For the year ended 30 November 2023

The Trustees present their annual report together with the financial statements of the Charity for the year 1 December 2022 to 30 November 2023.

Objectives and activities

a. Policies and objectives

Object of Society

The object of the society is the advancement of research, scholarship, and public education in particular by the promotion of study of the cultural history of the eighteenth century.

Principal activities undertaken

In furtherance of its objectives the Society engaged in the following main activities during the year:

1. Held an annual society conference at St Hughes College, Oxford, in January 2023 ;
2. Held a Conference for early-career and postgraduate scholars at the University of Edinburgh in July 2023
3. Held full committee meetings;
4. Produced further volumes of its journal;

Public benefit

In setting objectives and planning for activities, the Trustees have given due consideration to general guidance published by the Charity Commission relating to public benefit, including the guidance 'Public benefit: running a charity (PB2)'.

b. Review of Activities and Financial Position

The Council (formally the executive committee) was pleased with the activities arranged and managed by the Society during the year. The Council met three times in person to discuss society matters, and the Officers also met online most months to review progress on actions points agreed in Council meetings. The Annual Conference at St Hughes College, Oxford in January 2023, and the Postgraduate/ECR Conference at the University of Edinburgh in July 2023 were well attended and well received. Three Officers also attended the ISECS Conference in Rome in July 2023 to maintain relations with comparable societies and institutions. During the year, the Council also reviewed the society's financial forecast for the next five years and reviewed its statement of commitment to equality, diversity and inclusion. We are now planning a return to St Hugh's College, Oxford in January 2024, for an in-person annual conference.

Following the recommendations made by a working group three years ago (see the 2019-20 report), the disbursement of the surplus from the International Congress on the Enlightenment was completed in 2021-22. Our payment to Northumbria University funds five one-semester fellowships, one per academic year over five years. Interviews for the first of these fellowships were held in July 2023 and award made to Amélie Addison.

Between 1 December 2022 and 30 November 2023 the Society ultimately gave awards and prizes to the value of £13,810.

The publishers of the journal, Wiley-Blackwell, receive all subscriptions and pay the society a lump sum for each issue of the journal and share of any future profits, an arrangement which is now well-established and successful.

The movement in funds of the year is set out in the statement of financial activities.

The society's unrestricted reserves at 30 November 2023 amounted to £96,636 and restricted reserves were £10,723 making total reserves of £107,359.

Enquiries about the society should be addressed to the Executive Secretary, Dr Helen Williams: secretary@bsecs.org.uk

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Trustees' report (continued) For the year ended 30 November 2023

Achievements and performance

Financial review

a. Going concern

After making appropriate enquiries, the Trustees have a reasonable expectation that the Charity has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. For this reason, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the financial statements. Further details regarding the adoption of the going concern basis can be found in the accounting policies.

b. Reserves policy

The executive committee ensures reserves are sufficient to meet the cost of our conferences and funding of the journal for 12 months.

The executive committee considers the financial position of the Society at 30 November 2023 to be satisfactory.

Structure, governance and management

a. Constitution

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies is a registered charity, number 299756, and is constituted under a Trust deed. A revised constitution was drafted by the Society and approved at an Annual General Meeting of the Society on 5 January 2011.

Statement of Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England & Wales requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Charity and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles of the Charities SORP (FRS 102);
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards (FRS 102) have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the Charity will continue in business.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the Trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Independent examiner's report For the year ended 30 November 2023

Independent examiner's report to the Trustees of The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies ('the Charity')

I report to the charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 30 November 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the Charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Your attention is drawn to the fact that the Charity has prepared the accounts in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) in preference to the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice issued on 1 April 2005 which is referred to in the extant regulations but has been withdrawn.

I understand that this has been done in order for the accounts to provide a true and fair view in accordance with the Generally Accepted Accounting Practice effective for reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2015.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Charity as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Notes to the financial statements For the year ended 30 November 2023

1. General information

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies is a charity registered in England with number 299756. Its principle office is 4 West Street, Moulton, Northampton, NN3 7SB

2. Accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) - Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Charities Act 2011.

The financial statements have been prepared to give a 'true and fair' view and have departed from the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 only to the extent required to provide a 'true and fair' view. This departure has involved following the Charities SORP (FRS 102) published in October 2019 rather than the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice effective from 1 April 2005 which has since been withdrawn.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy.

The financial statements have been prepared in British Sterling and rounded to the nearest Pound.

2.2 Going concern

The Trustees assess whether the use of going concern is appropriate i.e. whether there are any material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Trust to continue as a going concern. The Trustees make this assessment in respect of a period of at least one year from the date of authorisation of the financial statements and have concluded that the Trust has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future and there are no material uncertainties about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

2.3 Income

All income is recognised once the Charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount of income receivable can be measured reliably.

Subscriptions are credited to the statement of financial activities in the year which they are received.

Income received in respect of conferences is credited to the statement of financial activities in the year in which the conference takes place.

2.4 Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to transfer economic benefit to a third party, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

Expenditure on charitable activities is incurred on directly undertaking the activities which further the Charity's objectives, as well as any associated support costs.

All expenditure is inclusive of irrecoverable VAT.

Notes to the financial statements
For the year ended 30 November 2023

2. Accounting policies (continued)

2.5 Interest receivable

Interest on funds held on deposit is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the Charity; this is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the institution with whom the funds are deposited.

2.6 Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount after any trade discount offered. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any trade discounts due.

2.7 Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash and short-term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

2.8 Liabilities and provisions

Liabilities are recognised when there is an obligation at the Balance sheet date as a result of a past event, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefit will be required in settlement, and the amount of the settlement can be estimated reliably.

Liabilities are recognised at the amount that the Charity anticipates it will pay to settle the debt or the amount it has received as advanced payments for the goods or services it must provide.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, the provision is based on the present value of those amounts, discounted at the pre-tax discount rate that reflects the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognised in the Statement of financial activities as a finance cost.

2.9 Financial instruments

The Charity only has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value with the exception of bank loans which are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.10 Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the Charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Designated funds comprise the ICE Legacy Fund, which will be used to fund projects that further the charitable objectives of BSECS.

Restricted funds comprise the Mason Lecture Fund and the Prizes and Awards Fund.

Investment income, gains and losses are allocated to the appropriate fund.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Annual report of the executive committee for the year ended 30 November 2020

Objectives and activities

Object of charity

The object of the Society is the advancement of research, scholarship, and public education in particular by the promotion of study of the cultural history of the eighteenth century.

Principal activities undertaken

In furtherance of its objectives the Society engaged in the following main activities during the year:

1. Held a conference at St Hugh's College, Oxford in January 2020;
2. Held a series of online seminars for early-career and postgraduate scholars;
3. Held full committee meetings;
4. Produced further volumes of its journal.

Public benefit

The executive committee has had regard to the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit when considering its objectives.

Achievements and performance

Review of activities

The executive committee was pleased with the activities arranged and managed by the Society during a difficult year. The Covid-19 pandemic presented immediate difficulties for the organisation of committee meetings, our partnership with other institutions, and our conference planning. We responded to these difficulties by moving all committee meetings online, updating our funding offers, and transforming our conferences into a series of online seminars (to replace the postgraduate and early-career conference) and a major online event (to replace our annual conference in 2021).

Through this year we have considered how to spend the surplus from the International Congress on the Enlightenment in 2019. A working group consisting of Professor Warman (BSECS President), Dr Harriman-Smith (BSECS Treasurer), Professor Mark Towsey (President, Eighteenth-Century Scottish Studies Society), and Dr Caroline Roberts (former BSECS Treasurer) offered a recommendation to the Society's Executive Committee, and they approved a distribution of the funds to support scholars at Masters, PhD, Post-Doc, and beyond at institutions around the UK.

In this financial year, the Society gave awards and prizes to the value of £1,200. This activity was limited by the impact of Covid-19 on our partner organisations. The publishers of the journal, Wiley-Blackwell, receive all subscriptions and pay the society a lump sum for each issue of the journal and share of any future profits, an arrangement which is now well-established and successful.

Financial review

Financial position

The movement in funds for the year is set out in the statement of financial activities on page 5.

The Society's unrestricted reserves at 30 November 2020 amounted to £194,207 and restricted funds were £10,299 making total reserves of £204,506.

Enquiries about the Society should be addressed to the Administrative Secretary, Emma Salgard Cunha: secretary@bsecs.org.uk

Independent examiner's report to the Executive committee of The British Society for Eighteenth Century Studies

I report to the Charity Trustees on my examination of the accounts of The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies for the year ended 30 November 2020.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the Trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the 2011 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

This report is made solely to the Trustees, as a body, in accordance with Part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the Trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an independent examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the Trust and its Trustees as a body, for my work or for this report.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Notes to the financial statement for the year ended 30 November 2020

1) General information

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies is a charity registered in England with number 299756. Its principal office is 62 Bridges View, Gateshead NE8 1NZ.

2) Accounting policies

Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in October 2019, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Charities Act 2011.

The financial statements have been prepared to give a 'true and fair' view and have departed from the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 only to the extent required to provide a 'true and fair' view. This departure has involved following the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland issued in October 2019 rather than the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice effective from 1 April 2005 which has since been withdrawn.

The British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy.

Going concern

The Trustees assess whether the use of going concern is appropriate i.e. whether there are any material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of the Trust to continue as a going concern. The Trustees make this assessment in respect of a period of at least one year from the date of authorisation of the financial statements and have concluded that the Trust has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future and there are no material uncertainties about the Trust's ability to continue as a going concern, thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

Whilst the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic has been assessed by the Trustees, so far as is reasonably possible, due to its unprecedented impact on the worldwide economy it is difficult to evaluate with any certainty the potential outcomes on the Charity's future activities. However, taking into consideration the Charity's level of reserves, the Trustees believe that the Charity will be able to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.

Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the objectives of the Charity.

Designated funds comprise the ICE Legacy Fund, which will be used to fund projects that further the charitable objectives of BSECS.

Restricted funds comprise the Mason Lecture Fund and the Prizes and Awards Fund.

2) Accounting policies (continued)

Income

Subscriptions are credited to the statement of financial activities in the year in which they are received.

Income received in respect of conferences is credited to the statement of financial activities in the year in which the conference takes place.

Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to transfer economic benefit to a third party, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably.

All expenditure is inclusive of irrecoverable VAT.

Interest receivable

Interest on funds held on deposit is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the charity; this is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the bank.

Debtors

Trade and other debtors are recognised at the settlement amount after any trade discount offered. Prepayments are valued at the amount prepaid net of any trade discounts due.

Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash and short term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

Liabilities and provisions

Liabilities are recognised when there is an obligation at the Balance sheet date as a result of a past event, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefit will be required in settlement, and the amount of the settlement can be estimated reliably. Liabilities are recognised at the amount that the charity anticipates it will pay to settle the debt or the amount it has received as advanced payments for the goods or services it must provide. Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, the provision is based on the present value of those amounts, discounted at the pre-tax discount rate that reflects the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognised within interest payable and similar charges.

Financial instruments

The charity only has financial assets and financial liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently measured at their settlement value.
