Annual Report
2025

1. Group Lead Volunteers Review of Scouting in the Group

Special thanks go out to Jason, Sharon, Ian & Colin who have all retired from the group in the past year, their service to the group & has been invaluable over the years.

And we welcome, in no particular order, Claire, Janine, Rachel, Jamie, Silvia & Georgia who have all joined the group, in the beaver section.

As ever we are looking for volunteers for some specific roles.

We need 2 or more volunteers to act as quartermasters to our camping and activity equipment. We would like a building and maintenance manager, not to necessarily to do any work but to manage & coordinate maintenance tasks.

If anyone has any specific knowledge or contacts for vehicle maintenance, we have had the benefit of a vehicle technician to maintain and generally service our minibus and we now need to plan alternative arrangements and would rather not boost Fords profits, we would be pleased to hear from you.

The observant among you will have seen we have a new web site, which has been developed by Symon Dovey, one of our parents. This has been a big project and we are extremely grateful for everyone that has contributed to our refreshed online look.

Our Trustee Board has been busy through out the year and I am pleased to report that we have finally got a solution from our insurers consultants to resolve the subsidence at the hut , at present the work is programmed for the Christmas holidays although the contractor has yet to visit site. So watch this space, there will hopefully be little disruption to our normal activities.

And finally thank you to all the young people that take an active part in the group.

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Act and that an independent examination is needed. [The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [named body]].
Delete [] if not applicable.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair" view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent
examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect,:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
