Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	Our main source of funds this year has been grants, lottery donations and hall hire fees from girl guiding units and community bodies. Covid lockdowns have materially hit hiring income over the past two years and generous grant income has enabled us to carry out crucial repairs and other work on the hall. We use general funds from Girlguiding and Community hire activities under normal conditions to meet the day to day running costs of the hall. Any surplus is retained and applied to larger projects approved by the Trustees. During 2021 we repaired and concreted the damaged driveway and redecorated the interior of the hall. We have a program of work that is regularly reviewed and prioritised against available funds. The majority of income is applied to the upkeep of the hall and related activities with the main costs incurred being, light & heat, insurance, cleaning, repairs & maintenance, and lease costs. Keys held by community hirers are subject to a £50 refundable deposit - currently £300 is retained in a restricted reserve.
