The group aims to break even on all Camps, Events and running of the group.

The charity's principal sources of funds are:

- termly Subs (used to cover day to day meeting expenses, insurance, badges, equipment)
- Camp/Event fees to cover specific camp or event expenses.

Structure, Governance and Management

The charity was established under a Royal Charter in 1912.

Individual troops (Beavers, Cubs, Scouts) are operated by Volunteer Leaders and Parent Volunteers. The overall group is governed by the Trustees.

1st Old Woking Scout Group along with other local scout groups make up a District (Woking District Scouts). A number of Districts then make up a County (Surrey County Scouts). All of these Scout units (Groups, Districts, Counties/Areas/Regions) are governed by the Policy, Organisation and Rules of The Scout Association, which provides the framework in which all Scout units operate.
