OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES:

As per our Articles of Association (2016) the charity's objects ('Objects') are specifically restricted to the following: the advancement of education by acquiring (within the Museum's Collection Management Policy), housing and exhibiting and conserving, restoring and repairing objects and collections of an educational nature and by establishing, acquiring, managing and maintaining Museums, galleries, libraries and other places where such purposes may be achieved, preserving local heritage and presenting this to the community and wider public, educational activities based upon local history and the Museum's artefacts.

For the Museum of Cambridge, the year 2024-2025 delivered numerous challenges and improvements in our work in the face of sector wide challenges.

This year the Museum was supported with funding from the National Lottery Heritage Fund, enabling vital work to support commercial development, fundraising strategy and recovering from the significant building works which ended in 2023-2024. We spent time re-engaging with the Museum's visitors through new monthly talks, raising funds to support our care and collection of Cambridge's history.

Our work with collections included two temporary exhibitions, a cataloguing project, and the re-opening of the Museum's acquisitions.

We worked more closely with our community this year. In August 2024 we welcomed a community display in the Dining Room from the Cambridge Szeged Twinned City Society, and hosted a community made film and soundscape. We also embarked on our largest community co-curation project ever, funded by the Arts Council England; working with the Caribbean community to co-curate the Legacies of Windrush in Cambridge exhibition which opened in April 2025.

Our outreach activities continued in full swing, bringing record numbers of families to the Museum for crafts and activity days. We reached a record number of people through our Museum on a Bike programme, linking up with community partners to bring history to life, outside of the Museum.

2024-2025 was also a year of challenges for the Museum and the wider charity and heritage sectors. The Cost-of-Living Crisis continues to affect the Museum's income generation through the shop and ticket sales. In addition, much of 2024-2025 was spent rolling out the planned commercial activity from 2023-2024 which was originally disrupted by the significant building works.

With the Museum's Director on parental leave in 2024-2025, and the resignation of the Director in January 2025, the Museum's leadership was supported by the Board of Trustees and the Engagement and Collections Manager who took on additional Directorial Responsibilities this year. In March 2025, the Museum was unable to appoint a new Director and following advice from regional partners paused recruitment until June 2025. This had a contributing delay to delivering planned fundraising and programming activities, as well as continued additional responsibilities for the Engagement and Collections Manager.

Vision, Mission and Values

In April 2022, the Museum of Cambridge launched a new five-year Strategic Plan for 2022-2027. This was developed in close consultation with staff, volunteers, trusted friends and supporters and local communities. In this Strategic Plan the Museum set out the following Vision, Mission, and Values:

Vision

We want Cambridge – and the surrounding area – to be a place where:

- Everyone is able to explore, enjoy and contribute to their local histories;
- Our shared heritage is accessible, open to investigation, and preserved for generations to come;
- A creative connection with heritage inspires communities and fosters a sense of belonging.

Mission

Connecting communities through objects, memories and conversation.

- We take care of a unique collection of objects, photos, documents and recordings and ensure it is available to everyone;
- The Museum is a space for everyone to share their memories, to be inspired by others', and create their own;
- We are as committed to conversation as we are to conservation, and we will welcome the voices of all Cambridge's communities.

Values

Inclusive: We want the Museum to be a place where people can connect with one another and create shared understandings of local histories, identities, and a sense of place. Mindful that we are located within a city that is culturally rich yet also the most economically unequal in the UK, we believe that the stories shared by our Museum should reflect and empower those who call Cambridgeshire home.

We are committed to ensuring that everyone can unlock their creative potential through access to our shared local heritage, whatever their ability, age, belief, cultural background, gender, race, sexuality, or wealth, by minimising or removing the barriers that prevent people from engaging with our work.

Courageous: We are committed to innovating, taking risks, and questioning the status quo. We want to ask difficult questions and listen to the answers. We aspire to being brave in our work: delivering important, challenging, and impactful events, exhibitions and programming.

Responsible: We will hold ourselves to the highest standards of responsible Museum practice, from our fundraising activity and financial management to the care of our collections. We also take our responsibilities to the planet seriously, making environmentally conscious choices to reduce our carbon footprint. When we make mistakes, we will reflect on them and implement meaningful change.

Creative: We see the Museum as a place for people and communities to be creative. Our visitors' creativity is a continual source of inspiration, whether they're exploring their great-grandparent's Fen-skating exploits, cooking up recipes at home from a 100-year-old recipe book, or competing with one another to win the prestigious 'Liar's Medal' (by telling the most outrageous of lies, of course!).

The Strategic Plan 2022-2027 also set out four strategic objectives:

- Grow and diversify our engagement.
- Care for our collection and building.
- Nurture our volunteers, staff, and trustees.
- Achieve financial sustainability.

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities for the year.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCEStrategic Objective: Grow and diversify our engagement

In 2024-2025 the Museum produced two temporary exhibitions and welcomed a new series of community displays. In total we welcomed 9,897 visitors to the museum to explore our permanent and temporary exhibitions. This is a slight decrease on the previous year of 10,042.

Despite increased marketing and outreach activity the Museum received feedback from visitors who thought that due to previous years' building work, the Museum had permanently closed. Which could explain the decline in visitor numbers.

Schools:

In 2024-2025, thanks to funding from the Allan Brigham Fund and John Coates Charitable Trust, the Museum worked to develop a pilot education project. This is the first educational visit project we have been able to offer since before the COVID-19 pandemic. This project enabled us to make contact with a variety of schools, develop the resources and planning required to run a schools programme. The return of school visits has been a significant goal of the Museum, as part of our 2022-2027 strategy.

The pilot has enabled us to receive funding from the Cambridgeshire Community Foundation to recruit a Learning Officer for one day a week, for one year in 2025-2026. We're excited to see this fantastic opportunity return to the Museum of Cambridge

In 2024 led by the Collections Officer and Engagement and Collections Manager, the Museum displayed two major exhibitions; Stories Behind the Stitches and Educating Cambridge. The latter was generously supported by Museums Development South East and PEM, enabling us work with local students from Sawston Village College and Hills Road to create new artworks to display in the exhibition.

Throughout 2024 the Museum worked closely with local partner, the African Caribbean Research Group (ACRG) and local students and young people, to curate the Legacies of Windrush exhibition which went on display in April 2025.

Alongside our temporary displays in the attic gallery, the Museum has opened its doors to community groups and organisations, hosting temporary displays in the Dining Room. This has drawn new communities and visitors to the museum who have not previously engaged with us.

Major Exhibitions:

Educating Cambridge: 24th October 2024- 21st April 2025 featuring stories of education in ragged schools, workhouses, and the Victorian classroom.

Stories Behind the Stitches: 27th March – 30th September 2024 featuring examples of disability, health and wellbeing through textiles and making.

Community Exhibitions:

Our Hungarian Twin City Szeged and its Cultural Riches: 4th September-4th November 2024

CAM: A Short Film: 4th February – 31st March 2025.

In addition to exhibitions, the Museum hosted a series of talks and tours in 2024-2025. With special thanks to the National Lottery Heritage Fund, the Museum was able to host a series of talks and events that brought new topics and research interest to the museum. We welcomed 320 people to 13 different talks on wide ranging topics, including "Ghosts of Cambridge and Beyond", "Her Cambridge: Reframing women's hidden histories", and "The Spinning House".

The National Lottery Heritage Funded project, Firm Foundations, Flourishing Futures also enabled the Museum to develop events, tours and activities that are aimed at building our operational and financial sustainability. In 2024 we launched a guided tour "Cambridge in Context" which explores 2,000 years of Cambridge history, ending in the Museum with the history of the White Horse Inn.

With the Cambridge City Council Community Grant, with both onsite workshops and outreach through the Museum on a Bike we reached 2,122 members of the public across 79 events. Of the event attendees at onsite workshops surveyed, 66% had not visited the Museum of Cambridge before, demonstrating a growth in our family audience as we continue to develop a relationship with the families of the region. All events provided under this grant were free to access, which helped reduce barriers to accessing cultural heritage. Participant feedback particularly reflected this, with one saying they "wouldn't normally be able to do this" if it were paid, praising the opportunity to "connect with other local people through arts."

Strategic Objective: Care for our collection and building

The work begun in the previous year, with thanks to the Foyle Foundation, was completed. An on-display audit of the Museum's collection was completed, with 1,100 objects reviewed, cleaned, located, and cared for. This was a monumental effort and resulted in 408 volunteer hours. During this process 193 objects were re-located having been previously "lost" within the Museum's database.

Following this project, with thanks to the Association of Independent Museums, Arts Scholars Brighter Day Grant Scheme we completed a framed object catalogue of the museum's store. Left unattended and inaccessible since the COVID-19 pandemic closure, 390 objects were assessed, catalogued, packed and stored. This was supported by 127 hours of volunteer time over four months.

In 2024-2025 our collections and building were better cared for thanks to funding from the National Lottery Heritage Fund and the Firm Foundations, Flourishing Futures project. Thanks also to support from the Friends, and funding from Heritage Compass, the museum was able to redevelop the historic courtyard. After the unplanned building works in 2023-2024 the Museum courtyard was left in a state of disuse. With this support we have been able to relocate objects inside the Museum, add seating, bio-diverse plantings and add new interpretation for our outdoor objects.

The Museum continues to work to care for the Grade II listed White Horse Inn. In summer 2024, emergency plumbing work was recruited to keep the Museum services open to the public. We continue to work with our landlord, the Cambridge City Council on heritage building work and surveys. This included structural survey of the heritage building, and investigations of a window leak from the 2022-2023 building works. The Engagement and Collections Manager with Directorial Responsibilities spend considerable time working with Cambridge City Council contractors and surveyors. She also worked to ensure the safe and smooth operation and maintenance of the White Horse Inn and Enid Porter buildings.

Strategic Objective: Nurture our volunteers, staff and Trustees

Working with volunteers is at the heart of our work at the Museum. This year we continued to rely on volunteer support, who play a crucial role in sustaining the Museum. We are very grateful for their support, time, expertise and positivity.

The Museum volunteer team grew in 2024-2025, with volunteers supporting across Front of House, Family Events, Collections Digitising, Shop, Marketing, Fundraising, Collections Care, Facilities Support and Tour Guiding. Volunteers contributed 3,966 hours of volunteering. We are so deeply grateful to our volunteers. This year saw no changes in the Museum's structure. Alex Smaridge acted up as Engagement and Collections Manager with Directorial Responsibilities while Annie Davis was on Parental Leave from the 30th of January – 30th of June, and the 1st of October – 5th of January 2025. Alex continued to act up with additional responsibilities after Annie's departure in March 2025.

The Museum team and Board of Trustees would like to thank Annie Davis for the many years of dedication to the Museum of Cambridge. Annie joined the Museum in 2018 and has had a significant tenure at the Museum of Cambridge. We wish Annie all the best.

Strategic Objective: Achieve financial sustainability

Building long-term sustainability continues to be a top priority for the Museum. We are still reliant on grant funding to support our core mission and functions. This places us in a similar position to many heritage organisations who face rising costs and uncertain funding futures. As such we have continued to build our charitable revenue streams and commercial focused business to support our long-term future.

Admission remains the highest established source of income. Income from admission in 2024-2025 was £45,000. Despite a small reduction in numbers, we increased our income by welcoming more paying adults. Special exhibitions continue to play a significant role in attracting visitors. We hosted two major temporary exhibitions, Stories behind the Stitches (March 2024-September 2024) and Educating Cambridge (October 2024-April 2025). These exhibitions were accompanied by talks and events for the public. Though improving year on year, this remains a volatile stream of income that is heavily reliant on local weather, tourism and local competition.

Income from other commercial areas:

- Venue Hire: £7,050. This was supported by funding from Heritage Compass, and has resulted in an increase in revenue. We will continue to work to gain new clients from across Cambridge. Now that the courtyard has been renovated, there is a more welcoming atmosphere to the space.
- Retail: £19,700. Retail continues to grow thanks to the prior year investment from National Lottery Heritage Fund Steps to Sustainability funding. We continue to expand ranges in the shop and welcomed a second-hand book section.

We continued to welcome donations, raising £10,800 from generous local individuals. We are grateful to all our regular donors for their continued support of the museum. This includes our dedicated Friends of the Museum of Cambridge. As part of our resilience funding, this year we launch a new giving initiative, Adopt an Object, which enables regular monthly giving to the Museum.

This year the Museum was generously supported by funders, including the National Lottery Heritage Fund, Arts Council England, Cambridge City Council, Foyle Foundation, Association of Independent Museums, Art Scholars, Museums Development South East (formerly Share Museums East), Peters Elworthy & Moore, University of Cambridge Department of Public Engagement.

This year saw a reduction in grant income and donations for the Museum compared to projected budgets. This reflects a nationwide reduction of available funding and the wider cost of living crisis.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

As with previous years, the Museum has continued to focus on growing unrestricted income with a view to improving the sustainability and financial stability of the Museum. In this regard, whilst growth in admission and retail income wasn't to the level hoped, it did show an increase on the previous year thanks to further investment in the offering and a renewed strategy and planning. Significant time and energy from the Development, Communications and Retail Officer, supported by Trustees, has gone into sourcing new ranges, and suppliers among increased stock prices and availability.

During the year the Museum offered free family events and free or "Donate as you Feel" programmes for adults. Monthly talks saw an increase in audience and engagement though, whilst popular, the income generated from them does not provide a sustainable income stream.

While the growth in unrestricted income from commercial and is positive, funding from restricted grants remained vital to the financial health and continued viability of the Museum in the form which it operates today. This reliance on grant income in order to be able to operate is unlikely to change for the foreseeable future and is further challenged by reduced numbers of potential funders and more competitive funding landscape. This financial year saw a welcome investment from the National Lottery Heritage Fund with the project Firm Foundations, Flourishing Futures. This project enabled significant investment in marketing, audience, and commercial development of our venue hire.

In 2024-2025, restricted income provided 63% of the Museum's overall income, and we are hugely grateful to our funders for their generosity. Nonetheless, we recognise that funding for charities is increasingly precarious and difficult to predict, meaning we must continue to invest in diversifying our income streams beyond grant funding in order to provide a more sustainable future for the Museum. As an independent charity, we rely on the funds generated from our commercial activity and the uncertain nature of grant funding to sustain our activities throughout the year.

The Museum's income statement was also very negatively impacted compared to the prior year by a significant drop in donations and legacies. Income from this line item fell by over three-quarters. We are thankful to those who supported the Museum in this regard during the year. Nevertheless, this source of income is very hard to predict, thereby putting pressure on other income sources. Despite this drop, and lower than planned commercial income, the Museum's team performed commendably to restrict the deficit from unrestricted funds to just over £6,000.

On the expenditure side, staff costs were slightly down on the prior year whilst the increase in other / administration costs largely resulted from programming, growing the retail offering, marketing and other spend tied to grant income. The Museum is thankful to Cambridge City Council for its support via waiving rent in the 2024-2025 financial year. The Museum's team remain focussed on reducing non-income generating spend wherever possible.

The Museum ended the financial year with £75,726 cash balance. The cash balances at a specific balance sheet date can be impacted by timing of lumpy items, in particular timing of receipt of grant payments. Looking forward, as referred to above the Museum of Cambridge remains highly reliant on grant funding given that increasing unrestricted income is naturally a long-term and gradual process. This delicate financial position and reliance on an income stream which is increasing challenged is uneasy for all concerned however is unlikely to change for some time. We therefore continue to look for ways to reduce overheads and after the financial year end, have secured meaningful reductions in spend in various areas such as bookkeeping costs, independent examiner costs and bills and utilities.

The cash position at the end of the year was £75,726 (2024: £141,641)

RESERVES POLICY

The Museum has a reserves policy which is designed to cover any costs associated with winding up the charity. These primarily relate to staff redundancies.

RISK MANAGEMENT

The financial position is reviewed regularly at board meetings and finance committee meetings as well as at ad-hoc meetings in between.

PAY POLICY

The Museum regularly monitors staff pay comparing salaries with similar posts in other organisations and taking into account the local market and the current cost-of-living crisis. In April 2015 the trustees adopted the principle of paying their staff the Real Living Wage; this has been implemented to date, with the Museum receiving official Living Wage accreditation in March 2023.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

The Museum of Cambridge, 2/3 Castle Street, Cambridge was originally administered by the Cambridge and County Folk Museum Association, a charitable trust, which was incorporated as a company limited by guarantee in 1947 (charity no. 311309). The Memorandum and Articles of Association were revised in 2016 with a minor amendment in 2021 to allow online meetings. The legal body responsible for the Museum and its collections is now known as the Museum of Cambridge having adopted the new name at an Extraordinary General Meeting held on February 13, 2014. It is a Charitable Company limited by guarantee without share capital (company no. 412205). In the event of an insolvent dissolution, the members will each contribute £10.

GOVERNANCE

The Museum continues to be successful in the retention and recruitment of Trustees of high calibre offering a wide range of professional experience as well as time to support the Museum and its staff. Added to existing committees for finance, fundraising, collections, and personnel, we now have a new Trustee led team giving support on marketing and retail. Trustees also support the Museum with their time, for instance, as duty managers and at front of house. Trustees with professional museum experience will also support the collections officer with specialist advice. They have also made themselves available for meetings with local government officials and councillors. Most time consuming have been recruitment and interview processes for which we thank Trustees both for their expertise and for their time. We have also reviewed the role of those who give advice to the Museum but are not Trustees, creating the new role of "Associates."

TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES IN RELATION TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The trustees (who are also directors of Museum of Cambridge for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

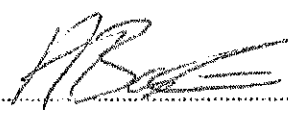

Company and charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the applicable Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures that must be disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006, the Charities Act 2011, and the applicable Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principle accounting policies are summarised below. The accounting policies have been applied consistently throughout the current and previous years.

(a) BASIS OF PREPARATION

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) second edition (effective 1st January 2019) (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standards applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.

Museum of Cambridge meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note(s).

The presentational currency of the financial statements is the Pound Sterling (£).

The accounts are prepared on a going concern basis.

(b) FUND ACCOUNTING

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

Restricted funds are subjected to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor.

(c) INCOME RESOURCES

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when the charity is entitled to the income and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

Voluntary income is received by way of donations and gifts and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities when receivable.

Donated services and facilities are included at the value to the charity where this can be quantified. The value of services provided by volunteers has not been included in these accounts.

Investment income is included when receivable.

Incoming resources from trading through the charity's museum shop are accounted for when earned.

Incoming resources from grants, where related to performance and specific deliverables are accounted for as the charity earns the right to consideration by its performance.

(d) RESOURCES EXPENDED

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates:

Costs of generating funds comprise the costs associated with attracting voluntary income and costs of trading for fundraising purposes including the charity's museum shop and café.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the independent examination fees and costs linked to the operation of the charity's management committee. These are now included within the Charitable expenditure on the Statement of Financial Activities in accordance with the new SORP and FRS 102.

(e) FIXED ASSETS

Fixed assets (excluding investments) are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. The costs of minor additions, i.e. those costing less than £1,000 are not capitalised. Depreciation is provided at rates calculated to write off the cost of each asset over its expected useful life.

Equipment is depreciated at a rate of 25% straight line basis.

Heritage Assets are capitalised when specifically purchased. Each asset is reviewed yearly and value amended for any impairment. Due to the nature of assets held as heritage assets the trustees feel it is not appropriate to depreciate these.
