Trustees' Report

The Trustees have pleasure in presenting their report and the unaudited financial statement of the charity for the year ended 31 May 2024.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE, AND MANAGEMENT

The Society is governed by the constitution, last amended in August 2004, and its object is "the furtherance of New Testament studies internationally, including within its interest's charitable initiatives." The Society's investment powers are conferred by the Trustees' Act 2000. Funds are held by TSB. No trustee is in receipt of honoraria.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

In "furtherance of New Testament studies internationally, including within its interests' charitable initiatives", the Society has an international function as the primary elected Society, and is increasing sponsoring charitable initiatives in Africa, South America, India, South East Asia, Eastern Europe and Russia. In planning our activities for the year, we kept in mind the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our trustees' meetings.

The seventy-seventh General Meeting of the Society was held in-person, being hosted by Universität Wien, 25-29 July 2022. The Society was extremely grateful to Profs. Markus Öhler and Markus Tiwald for their tireless work as co-chairs, and to the local organizing committee for making this meeting possible and for hosting such a successful meeting.

The Society's provided substantial funds to offset the travel, conference and subsistence costs of thirteen sponsored members and guests attending the annual meeting from various geographical regions in line with its sponsorships policy.

The Society continues to provide free subscriptions to the Society's journal and monograph series for selected regional libraries in developing countries.

The trustees agreed in October 2014 to introduce a new electronic system for collecting membership fees and outsource this task to Cambridge University Press at a set price per membership fee collected. In conjunction with this access to the online version of the Society's journal is granted to all its members free of charge. The trustees are continuing to monitor the new system and the newly incurred handling costs associated with it closely in order to assess the overall financial implications.

The trustees are satisfied with the level of reserves in the funds, that the income is adequate to pursue the activities of the Society, and that no significant risks are faced by the Society in pursuing its aims.

Approved by the Trustees on 28/7/24 and signed on their behalf by:

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas

We report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 May 2024, which are set out on pages 4 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied ourselves that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 (5) (b) of the 2011 Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

- (1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 386 of the Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charitieshave not been met; or
- (2) to which, in our opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
