Objectives and activities

Objectives and Aims

To advance the Hindu faith generally and in particular by the promotion of the philosophy of the Gaudiya Saraswata School of Hinduism. To advance the education of the public in the teachings of the Gaudiya Saraswata School of Hinduism to relieve poverty generally, and particularly by distribution of food to protect health and relieve sickness and to assist in the protection of health and relief of sickness particularly for the benefit of those people who have suffered from drug or alcohol dependency.

Volunteers

The trustees are very grateful to the volunteers who helped by carrying out fund-raising on our behalf. Many volunteers give up their time to help, particularly at weekends and in the evenings and we are greatly indebted to the volunteers for their commitment and support. The staff deserves credit and praise for their skill and enthusiastic efforts to provide a successful service to a growing range of donors. The trustees are very grateful to the general public for their immense support and are actively seeking volunteers from the local community, especially the youth.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT
TO THE TRUSTEES OF
SRI CHAITANYA SARASWAT CHARITABLE TRUST

We report on the Accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2024, which are Setout on pages 4 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

As the Charity's Trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts: you consider that the audit requirement of section 43 (2) of the Charities Act 1993 ("the Act") does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43 (7) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the Accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the Accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

(1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect the requirements:

To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act, and

To prepare Accounts that record with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been made.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES

The trustees present their report with financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2021. The trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statements of Recommended Practice (SORP) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities' issued in March 2008.

Structure, governance and management

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The power of appointing new trustees of the charity shall be vested in the trustees but in the event that there shall be no trustees the power of appointment new trustee shall be vested in whoever shall at that time be the secretary of Sri Chaitanya Saraswat Math in India.

The new trustee or new trustees or new hereof may be appointed at any time but so that the total number of trustees shall not fall below three and at no time exceed seven.

Related Parties

The trustees MR D Ewins and Ms E A Clifford are also trustees of Sri Chaitanya Saraswat Math, a charitable Company and is closely connected to Sri Chaitanya Saraswat Charitable Trust.

Included under creditors K6,615 amount due to The Sri Chaitanya Saraswat Math. There are no specific repayments terms for this amount.

Risk Management

The trustees have duty to identify and review the risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.

Objectives and activities

Objectives and Aims

To advance the Hindu faith generally and in particular by the promotion of the philosophy of the Gaudiya Saraswata School of Hinduism. To advance the education of the public in the teachings of the Gaudiya Saraswata School of Hinduism to relieve poverty generally, and particularly by distribution of food to protect health and relieve sickness and to assist in the protection of health and relief of sickness particularly for the benefit of those people who have suffered from drug or alcohol dependency.

Volunteers

The trustees are very grateful to the volunteers who helped by carrying out fund-raising on our behalf. Many volunteers give up their time to help, particularly at weekends and in the evenings and we are greatly indebted to the volunteers for their commitment and support. The staff deserves credit and praise for their skill and enthusiastic efforts to provide a successful service to a growing range of donors. The trustees are very grateful to the general public for their immense support and are actively seeking volunteers from the local community, especially the youth.

Achievement and performance

Charitable Activities

The main charitable activity is advancement of education and relief of poverty, followed by advancement of health and religion.

Financial review

Reserves Policy

The trustees have maintained the reserves at a level so as to fulfil the charities objectives to play a greater role in the advancement of religious activities, food distribution and religious educational programmes. This provides sufficient funds to cover the donations and support costs.

TO THE TRUSTEES OF
SRI CHAITANYA SARASWAT CHARITABLE TRUST

We report on the Accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2021, which are Setout on pages 4 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

As the Charity's Trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts: you consider that the audit requirement of section 43 (2) of the Charities Act 1993 ("the Act") does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43 (7) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

Our examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the Accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently we do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the Accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with our examination, no matter has come to our attention:

(1) which gives us reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect the requirements:

To keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the 1993 Act, and

To prepare Accounts that record with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act have not been made.
