Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Advancement and propagation of the Muslim Religion and Philosophy (For further details see constitution).

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

A summary of the main activities are underlined further down in the TAR report, however in all activities undertaken with and by the charity, the benefit is for all, whether that be the public visiting the charity premises for worship or its members.

In the form of religious ceremonies, the public and members are able to arrange marriages or prepare funerals in the charity buildings and utilise the Madrasah Hall for serving food or cooking purposes.

For Islamic graduation ceremonies, public and members are encouraged to use the facilities to promote the advancement of the charity objectives by celebrating the successes of the evening schools with the public.

Each activity is considered and discussed thoroughly with both short and long-term benefits to the public and its members in line with the statutory declaration of Charitable purposes and public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Policies updated and reviewed for the benefit of the public, students and the charity members as well as the need for them.

The charity relies heavily on its volunteers to manage all aspects related to the charity. Where there are employees, the duties are specific and wholly surround welfare and prayers. In regard to running the organisation these are taken by volunteers appointed by the management committee who themselves are nominated members with no remuneration.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Summary of the main activities undertaken and achievements;

Masjid Report:

Having completed planning on a new build of the masjid, a review of construction cost was undertaken. With the estimates showing significant cost, it was decided to refurbish the existing building instead with a view to looking at other opportunities.

Whilst the refurb was undertaken to save time and cost, given the age and nature of the building with multiple extensions, significant structural issues were discovered during refurbishment including the roof (which had been leaking for many years) and the underlying levels of the three houses that compromised of the Masjid building. This caused delays and forced a constant revision in scope of works.

Subsequently a review of works has now been completed and despite cost saving measures put in place, a new build has been forced up on the new Masjid. The agreed plan submitted will now be executed with necessary changes to mitigate rising costs.

Madrasah Report:

The madrasah classes have been running despite the issue of premises and reduced intake to counter the lack of space has not had much impact on the delivery of higher level courses offered for males & females. Graduation of both males and females in Hifz and courses have been completed again this year successfully.

Unfortunately another flood in December of 2024 resulted in damage to the madrasah new hall which had to be repaired and again carpet replaced. This had been escalated to the council who have since put in measures to counter the overflow of storm rain, however the risks remain. There are current discussions on how to mitigate these risks with several options considered.

Projects:

Gaza collection from 2023 released in early 2024 due to delays in aid. Further projects were also delivered in 2024 for Palestine.

Future Plans & updates;

Review Masjid Building construction & funding.

Continuous revamp of the curriculum and teaching practices to ensure highest delivery of Islamic education. Currently at capacity, how can we increase provision for those missing out in the community.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's reserves are unrestricted and maintained for the objectives outlined in the governing document and are decided by the management committee as they see best fit.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funding is derived from donations and member contributions to fund day-to-day running costs of the charity. In addition, the evening school income generated provides funding for the maintenance of the estate in which the charity resides in, cost of teaching and administering of the classes.

Expenditure is managed on an annual basis and linked to the income generation for the year to ensure there is no overspend. Donations for expenditure are encouraged from the members and costs are kept to a minimum with due care taken on value for money tenders. Expenses cover the day to day utilities, employee salaries, costs for maintaining and cleaning the estate.

The Charity aims to build reserves for investment in estate maintenance and expansion.

Governance and support costs

Support costs have been allocated between governance costs and other support. Governance costs comprise all costs involving public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation and good practice.

Yes No N/a

| | | |
|--|--|---|

Support costs include central functions and have been allocated to activity cost categories on a basis consistent with the use of resources, eg allocating property costs by floor areas, or per capita, staff costs by the time spent and other costs by their usage.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2024.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Advancement and propagation of the Muslim Religion and Philosophy (For further details see constitution).

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

A summary of the main activities are underlined further down in the TAR report, however in all activities undertaken with and by the charity, the benefit is for all, whether that be the public visiting the charity premises for worship or its members.

In the form of religious ceremonies, the public and members are able to arrange marriages or prepare funerals in the charity buildings and utilise the Madrasah Hall for serving food or cooking purposes.

For Islamic graduation ceremonies, public and members are encouraged to use the facilities to promote the advancement of the charity objectives by celebrating the successes of the evening schools with the public.

Each activity is considered and discussed thoroughly with both short and long-term benefits to the public and its members in line with the statutory declaration of Charitable purposes and public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Policies updated and reviewed for the benefit of the public, students and the charity members as well as the need for them;

The charity relies heavily on its volunteers to manage the all aspects related to the charity. Where there are employees, the duties are specific and wholly surround welfare and prayers. In regards to running the organisation these are taken by volunteers appointed by the management committee who themselves are nominated members with no remuneration.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Summary of the main activities undertaken and achievements;

Masjid Report:

The review of the masjid building commenced with ideas for complete construction and architect assigned in 2022. After this the planning application was submitted and accepted, further input from the structural engineer updated the requirements and consequently the plans were updated.

Madrasah Report;

The madrasah classes have began to recover from Covid affected years with higher level courses now offered for males & females. The first graduation of the female course was completed this year successfully. Unfortunately another flood in July resulted in damage to the madrasah hall which had to be repaired and carpet replaced.

Future Plans & updates;

Review of Masjid Building construction & funding.

Continuous revamp of the curriculum and teaching practices to ensure highest delivery of Islamic education. Currently at capacity, how can we increase provision for those missing out in the community.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's reserves are unrestricted and maintained for the objectives outlined in the governing document and are decided by the management committee as they see best fit.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funding is derived from donations and member contributions to fund day-to-day running costs of the charity. In addition, the evening school income generated provides funding for the maintenance of the estate in which the charity resides in, cost of teaching and administering of the classes.

Expenditure is managed on an annual basis and linked to the income generation for the year to ensure there is no overspend. Donations for expenditure are encouraged from the members and costs are kept to a minimum with due care taken on value for money tenders. Expenses cover the day to day utilities, employee salaries, costs for maintaining and cleaning the estate.

The Charity aims to build reserves for investment in estate maintenance and expansion.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

Responsibilities and

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

|---|--------------------|
| Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution) | Constitution |
| How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company) | Society members |
| Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by) | Elected by members |

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The structure of the charity comprises of the management committee limited to 6 persons known as the trustees of the charity including roles for the chair and trustees. There are employees of the charity that are responsible to the management committee on a daily basis.

The charity works with similar charities to pursue the objectives.

There are no related parties associated with the charity, as it works independently.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Advancement and propagation of the Muslim Religion and Philosophy (For further details see constitution).

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

A summary of the main activities are underlined further down in the TAR report, however in all activities undertaken with and by the charity, the benefit is for all, whether that be the public visiting the charity premises for worship or its members.

In the form of religious ceremonies, the public and members are able to arrange marriages or prepare funerals in the charity buildings and utilise the Madrasah Hall for serving food or cooking purposes.

For Islamic graduation ceremonies, public and members are encouraged to use the facilities to promote the advancement of the charity objectives by celebrating the successes of the evening schools with the public.

Each activity is considered and discussed thoroughly with both short and long-term benefits to the public and its members in line with the statutory declaration of Charitable purposes and public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Policies updated and reviewed for the benefit of the public, students and the charity members as well as the need for them;

The charity relies heavily on its volunteers to manage the all aspects related to the charity. Where there are employees, the duties are specific and wholly surround welfare and prayers. In regards to running the organisation these are taken by volunteers appointed by the management committee who themselves are nominated members with no remuneration.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Summary of the main activities undertaken and achievements;

Masjid Report:

The Eid Gah was held in normal fashion with strong turnout.

The review of the masjid building commenced with ideas for complete construction and architect assigned.

Madrasah Report;

Following the Covid 19 pandemic the work to bring student knowledge and standards up to levels before the pandemic have been in effect. Additional classes have been added to the madrasah with girls/boys split between 2 buildings.

Unfortunately a flood in October resulted in damage to the madrasah hall which had to be repaired and carpet replaced.

Future Plans & updates;

Review of Masjid Building construction.

Continuous revamp of the curriculum and teaching practices to ensure highest delivery of Islamic education.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's reserves are unrestricted and maintained for the objectives outlined in the governing document and are decided by the management committee as they see best fit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charities principal source of funding is derived from donations and member contributions to fund day-to-day running costs of the charity. In addition, the evening school income generated provides funding for the maintenance of the estate in which the charity resides in, cost of teaching and administering of the classes.

Expenditure is managed on an annual basis and linked to the income generation for the year to ensure there is no overspend. Donations for expenditure are encouraged from the members and costs are kept to a minimum with due care taken on value for money tenders. Expenses cover the day to day utilities, employee salaries, costs for maintaining and cleaning the estate.

The Charity aims to build reserves for investment in estate maintenance and expansion.

| The revised constitution was passed with the members and submitted to Charities Commission with approval of the constitution to supersede the previous constitution on the 19 th of June 2021. |
| The structure of the charity comprises of the management committee limited to 5 persons known as the trustees of the charity including roles for the chair and trustees. There are employees of the charity that are responsible to the management committee on a daily basis. |
| The charity works with similar charities to pursue the objectives. |
| There are no related parties associated with the charity, as it works independently. |
| The major risk identified around the previous governing document has now been resolved. |

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The Advancement and propagation of the Muslim Religion and Philosophy (For further details see constitution).

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

A summary of the main activities are underlined further down in the TAR report, however in all activities undertaken with and by the charity, the benefit is for all, whether that be the public visiting the charity premises for worship or its members.

In the form of religious ceremonies, the public and members are able to arrange marriages or prepare funerals in the charity buildings and utilise the Madrasah Hall for serving food or cooking purposes.

For Islamic graduation ceremonies, public and members are encouraged to use the facilities to promote the advancement of the charity objectives by celebrating the successes of the evening schools with the public.

Each activity is considered and discussed thoroughly with both short and long-term benefits to the public and its members in line with the statutory declaration of Charitable purposes and public benefit.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Policies updated and reviewed for the benefit of the public, students and the charity members as well as the need for them;

Safeguarding Policy – Required as part of the evening school which involves the teaching of children,

The charity relies heavily on its volunteers to manage the all aspects related to the charity. Where there are employees, the duties are specific and wholly surround welfare and prayers. In regards to running the organisation these are taken by volunteers appointed by the management committee who themselves are nominated members with no remuneration.

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Summary of the main activities undertaken and achievements;

Masjid Report:

Following the Covid 19 pandemic in 2020, places of worship were able to open during 2021 and the Masjid was open based on government guidance allowing prayer facilities to open to public with social distancing and protection measures.

After opening, social distance prayers were implemented, washroom facilities remained closed until guidelines allowed for cleaning facilities to open.

The Eid Gah was held in normal fashion with strong turnout.

The review of the masjid building commenced with ideas for renovation or complete construction commenced.

Madrasah Report;

Following the Covid 19 pandemic in 2020, evening classes were initially online, however these were able to resume on site when government guidance on re-opening was provided.

Future Plans & updates;

Review of Masjid Building and solutions.

Continuous revamp of the curriculum and teaching practices to ensure highest delivery of Islamic education.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's reserves are unrestricted and maintained for the objectives outlined in the governing document and are decided by the management committee as they see best fit.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

N/A

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charities principal source of funding is derived from donations and member contributions to fund day-to-day running costs of the charity. In addition, the evening school income generated provides funding for the maintenance of the estate in which the charity resides in, cost of teaching and administering of the classes.

Expenditure is managed on an annual basis and linked to the income generation for the year to ensure there is no overspend. Donations for expenditure are encouraged from the members and costs are kept to a minimum with due care taken on value for money tenders. Expenses cover the day to day utilities, employee salaries, costs for maintaining and cleaning the estate.

The Charity aims to build reserves for investment in estate maintenance and expansion.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2021.

Responsibilities and

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

In regards to running the organisation these are taken by volunteers appointed by the management committee who themselves are nominated members with no remuneration.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Summary of the main activities undertaken and achievements;

Masjid Report:

Due to the Covid 19 pandemic, the Masjid was closed until government guidance allowed prayer facilities to open to public.

After opening, social distance prayers were implemented, washroom facilities were closed, hand sanitation was provided, masks provided, one way system for entering and exit, signs for Covid 19 prevention, bringing own prayer mats and constant reminders to not congregate outside during the pandemic.

In association with Bradford Council, a foodbank was opened and food/cash donated were distributed to those in need. No criteria for requests were needed, any family/elderly regardless of background were provided with both food parcels and hot food.

For Funerals, Covid 19 training was provided to volunteers to be prepared for managing and protecting families and the public.

The Eid Gah usually held twice a year in the field was restricted to one, working with the council, local business and volunteers to generate the biggest Eid Gah event to date.

Madrasah Report;

Due to the Covid 19 pandemic the evening classes were shut for several weeks until facilities to hold classes online were arranged. It was not until schools were provided government guidance on re-opening that face to face tuition restarted.

Future Plans & updates;

Main ablution area upgrade deferred.

Continuous revamp of the curriculum and teaching practices to ensure highest delivery of Islamic education.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity's reserves are unrestricted and maintained for the objectives outlined in the governing document and are decided by the management committee as they see best fit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The charity's principal source of funding is derived from donations and member contributions to fund day-to-day running costs of the charity. In addition, the evening school income generated provides funding for the maintenance of the estate in which the charity resides in, cost of teaching and administering of the classes.

Expenditure is managed on an annual basis and linked to the income generation for the year to ensure there is no overspend. Donations for expenditure are encouraged from the members and costs are kept to a minimum with due care taken on value for money tenders. Expenses cover the day to day utilities, employee salaries, costs for maintaining and cleaning the estate.

The Charity aims to build reserves for investment in estate maintenance and expansion.

Section F

Other optional information

Following the visit from charities commission in 2019 to advise on charitable matters, the management has put into place the necessary steps to ensure that the items outlined have been managed and rectified in the year, following this a final meeting was held and the case has been closed.

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31 / 12 / 2020.

Responsibilities and
basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *) in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
