Section C

Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide a residential base for young people to help educate them in their leisure time activities in order to improve their outlook on life

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The residential base in Kettlewell continues to be well used by young people from all over the UK for organised outside activities and all funds from bookings are used in maintaining and upgrading the property. Kettlewell is situated in Wharfedale in the Yorkshire Dales National Park which provides many fells and villages to be explored.

The Trustees have due regard to the guidance on public benefit issued by the Charity Commission when exercising any powers or duties to which the guidance would be relevant. At annual meetings when the booking costs are discussed it remains an aim to keep these as low as possible so that young people may benefit from the affordability of the accommodation.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

The charity is run by a committee which consists of the Trustees and elected members. The elected members are elected / re-elected at the annual general meeting and their term of office lasts one year. In addition to the Trustees above, the committee members who have served during the current year are:
