BISHOPWEARMOUTH CHORAL SOCIETY

Trustees Annual Report

For year ended 30 June 2024

The Trustees are pleased to present their annual report together with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2024

The financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Memorandum and Articles of Association, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

Objectives and activities

The purpose of the Choral Society is to educate the public in the art and science of music particularly choral singing, through the presentation of concerts and other activities.

We strive to present performances of the highest musical quality from the classical choral repertoire.

Each year the Choral Society gives three concerts of choral singing mostly from the classical repertoire. These are at Christmas, Easter and the end of the summer term usually all in Sunderland Minster.

The Choral Society rehearses every Wednesday during term times in Sunderland Minster. Membership of the Choral Society is open to anyone interested in singing regardless of age, race, sex, disability, religion or sexual orientation.

Members of the Choral Society pay an annual subscription which covers the cost of rehearsals including the musical tuition element of rehearsing.

From time to time the Choral Society organises 'Singing Days' when non-members can spend a day rehearsing with the choir. Singing Days are advertised to the public and other choirs in the area.

The Choral Society offers free membership to music students studying at local universities.

The Choral Society engages with local primary schools so that children can sing with the choir in some concerts e.g. Christmas carols. This also gives the children the experience of live classical music.

The contemporary British composer John Rutter said, 'Choral music is not one of life's frills. It is something that goes to the very heart of our humanity, our sense of community and our souls. You express, when you sing, your soul in song. And when you get together with a group of other singers, it becomes more than the sum of the parts.'

The constitution requires the Choral Society treasurer to keep accounts of all monies received and expended on account of the Society and to present such accounts at the Annual General Meeting of the Society.

The constitution also states that no members shall receive payment either direct or indirect for their services.

The Choral Society relies on the voluntary contribution of many non-members to stage and manage concerts, the website and day to day business.

Achievements and performance

The Choral Society was formed in 1948 and celebrated its 75th season this year.

The first part of the Christmas concert in December 2023 featured two choral pieces by Vaughan Williams (Serenade to Music, & Fantasia on Christmas Carols) followed by The Lark Ascending played by Martin Hughes, the leader of the string quartet. Local professional soprano Anna Dias sang two arias by Mozart and Handel followed by baritone Nick Stoner who performed two Christmas songs by Peter Cornelius. After the interval the choir performed contemporary carols by Rutter, Chilcott and a young North East composer Lucy Walker. The concert ended with Hillview Junior Academy choir singing Away in a Manger and Merry Christmas Everyone then joining with the choir to sing Oh Ebenezer and carols from A Christmas Carol written by our musical director David Murray.

In March 2024 the Choral Society presented our one hundred and eighty-first concert with a full orchestra and renowned international soloist Sarah Pring to mark our 75th year. The concert opened with the majestic I was Glad by Parry sung at the recent coronation. Sarah Pring sang Edward Elgar's Sea Pictures accompanied by a full orchestra. Elgar's The Music Makers filled the second half, a deeply personal piece for Elgar which references many of his most famous works. It is large scale requiring a full orchestra, choir and soloist.

On Saturday 18th May the Choral Society hosted a Come and Sing session with an open invitation to newcomers and members of other choirs in the North East. The session was led by David Murray, our musical director, with input from opera singer Anne Marie Owens who is the President of the Choral Society, accompanied by Jenny Sykes on piano. We rehearsed and sang a wide range of pieces from the Carpenters to Simon & Garfunkel and others of that era, that gave the visitors an opportunity to sing music which was perhaps rather different to their usual repertoire.

In June 2024 the Choral Society presented the last concert of our 75th Anniversary season featuring arrangements of 60s and 70s popular songs by our musical director David Murray. The concert also included a very lively performance by jazz violinist Emma Fisk of music associated with and inspired by early 20th century French jazz.

During the course of the year the Choral Society received a legacy which we will use to continue to present high quality concert performances; to purchase additional music scores for the choir; commission music from local composers; and offer bursaries to university student singers to sing with the Choral Society and perform some solo parts.

Public benefit statement

The trustees of Bishopwearmouth Choral Society are aware of the guidelines issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit.

Financial review

At the end of the year reserve funds were £26,707 held in a COIF Charities Investment Fund. The Choral Society draws down from this fund as necessary to cover the cost of our activities.

BISHOPWEARMOUTH CHORAL SOCIETY

Trustees Annual Report

For year ended 30 June 2024

The main sources of income are annual subscriptions from members and patrons; and ticket sales for concerts. Subscriptions and ticket prices are reviewed and increased from time to time and agreed by the membership.

The Choral Society also fundraises from coffee mornings, raffles and hire of scores to other choirs.

All income directly supports the purposes of the charity.

The COIF Charities Investment Fund follows a set of client-driven, value based investment restrictions.

Preparation of the accounts on a going concern basis

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The Trustees have reviewed and considered relevant information, including the annual budget and future cash flows in making their assessment. The Trustees have concluded that they can continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the annual report and accounts.

Organisation

The Choral Society is managed by a committee consisting of the Chairperson, Treasurer, Secretary, and a representative from each of the four sections of the choir. In addition the Conductor, Accompanist, Concert Manager, Business Manager, Patrons Officer, Publicity Officer and Librarian are ex-officio members of the Committee.

The committee meets six times during the course of each year.

We have a Patrons scheme as a way in which non-members can be associated with and support our group. They are asked for a donation in return for the benefit of advance concert information, a separate route for the purchase of tickets, and a pre-concert reception. They are also kept up to date with any other developments and are invited to any social events and act as audience ambassadors – by ordering concert tickets for friends along with their own.

Risk management

The Trustees have conducted a review of the major risks to which the charity is exposed and systems have been established to mitigate those risks including the implementation of procedures for authorisation of all transactions and projects and for ensuring the consistent quality of the delivery of all operational aspects of the charity. These procedures are periodically reviewed to ensure that they still meet the needs of the charity.

Principal risk facing the charity

The principal risk to Bishopwearmouth Choral Society is recruitment of new members. We address this by using Come and Sing days, social media and concert advertising to encourage interest in joining.

Statement of Trustee Responsibilities

The charity Trustees are responsible for preparing a Trustees' annual report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The Charity Trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of incoming resources and application of resources. In preparing financial statements, the Trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

For the year ended 30 June 2024

I report on the financial statements of Bishopwearmouth Choral Society for the year ended 30 June 2024, which are set out on pages 7 to 14.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act), and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no material matters have come to my attention which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than if the requirements that the accounts give a "true and fair" view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
