Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity will always devote as much money as it can to ensuring that the young people in the various sections and other hall users have a fun experience in a safe, inclusive, and welcoming environment. The group spent further monies on the fabric of the building during this year to continue to provide a safe environment for all the groups using the hall. This will not be the end of the matter though, with consideration remaining for other ways we can improve the hall. The group continues to expand the number of sections it runs wherever it can source volunteer support.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The group made a small surplus for the period which has added to reserves. The charity is in a robust financial position and, as a result has continued to hold down the rates it charges to members of the scout group and other hall users. This fits with the aim of being as accessible to all as possible.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity builds reserves to enable it to undertake more substantial repairs, enhancements and/or alterations to the Scout HQ on Botanical Road. This is to ensure it remains a safe and inclusive space for all users.
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	£55,898
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	N/A
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	N/A
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	There is no uncertainty that the charity can continue

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	Principally, funds derive from subscription fees made by members of the various sections run by the scout group, together with rental income paid by other users of the Scout Hut.
Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted.	Para 1.46	Primarily surplus funds are invested with the Sheffield Scout Resource Fund. This fund can be accessed by local scouting groups to support their activities.
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	The charity is reliant on the time, skill, and commitment from a range of volunteers. These people help to run the various sections of the scout group, as an Executive Committee for the group or as Trustees for the charity. The charity does what it can to understand and promote succession planning but remains reliant on volunteers coming forward to help across all of those roles.
Other

Structure, Governance and Management

Description of charity's trusts:
Type of governing document ( Trust deed, royal charter )	Para 1.25	Royal Charter

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of 59th Sheffield (St Augustine's) Scout Group

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the 59th Sheffield (St Augustine's) Scout Group ["the Group"] for the year ended 31st March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Group, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act'). I report in respect of my examination of the Group's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Group as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
