During the last year our young farmers has partaken in a number of competitions up and down the country representing not only the club but also the county in stockjudging and floral arts right through to sports. We as a club have been able to develop the members skills in our weekly meetings with local companies and also by visiting local farms having mock judging nights were we in invite a local judge to help develop and perfect our skills. It has been great to see members confidence grow each week as we offer a balanced programme to suit all ages 10-26 even added in domino drives for the local villagers to come along and really embrace the family spirit. We also take part in a local parade which really helps with our recruitment along with the club spirit, dressing up and have a laugh with eachother along with giving back to our local community as its something watched by thousands.

We also hosted a charity dance in memory of one of our ex members that tragically passed away due to sepsis and we have raised funds as a club to donate to the charity and also a local hospice too.

Within the year we have had many other successes with welcoming several new members to the club along with some great results at competitions. It has been great to see all the younger members grow in confidence as the year has gone on.
