Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Charitable Object is "The Recreation Ground at Aireworth Keighley ... in respect of which heraldic panels, the official emblems of a "King George's Field" have been provided by King George's Fields foundation, shall be preserved in perpetuity as a memorial to his last majesty King George V under the provisions of the King George's Field Foundation and shall henceforth be known as "King George's Field."

Area of benefit (i.e. area the charity can operate in, as set out in its governing document) is Keighley.

King George's Field is vested in the City of Bradford Metropolitan District Council as trustee, subject to a declaration of trust made by the Major Alderman and Burgess' of the Borough of Keighley on 17th October 1955. The declaration of trust provided for the Field to be preserved in perpetuity as a memorial to King George V under the provisions of the King George's Field Foundation. Pursuant to the Local Government Act 1972, trusteeship of the charity transferred from the former Keighley Corporation to the Council on 1st April 1974.

Responsibility for administering the charity is delegated to the Executive committee of the Council and day to day management is further delegated to the Department of Environment & Sport and to the Director of the Department.

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Trust's aims and objectives and in planning future activities and setting the grant-making policy for the year.

The compensation received from the Ministry of Transport was used for the development of Marley Stadium. The charity land consists of approximately 52 acres and is laid out as playing fields and contains the following facilities:

 1 Sports Hall
 2 Changing Room Buildings
 1 Artificial Soccer Pitch
 1 Cricket Pavilion

An application to the Charity Commission was made on 17th July 1998 to dispose of two plots of land which were no longer required for the Aire Valley Road project. The proceeds thereon amounted to £33,687.42 in year 1998-99, £110,000 in 2000/01 and both were duly invested following advice from the Financial Advisors.
