Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Harrogate Symphony Orchestra

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Trust for the year ended on 31st July 2020.

Respective responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act, and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

5	Check that accounting records are kept to the required standard.
	The examiner must ensure that accounting records have been kept in compliance with the relevant legislative requirements.		Transactions listed on a spreadsheet.	None
	Check that the accounts are consistent with the accounting records.
	The examiner must compare the accounts of the charity with the charity's accounting records in sufficient detail to reasonably conclude that the accounts are not materially inconsistent with the accounting records.		All transactions provided in a list on a spreadsheet, able to check them to invoices, where appropriate.	None
7	If the accounts are prepared on an accruals basis and one or more related party transactions took place the examiner must check if these were properly disclosed in the notes to the accounts.
	The examiner must check that the trustees have considered if there were any related party transactions in the reporting period and check whether the trustees have made the disclosures required by the applicable Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP) in the notes to the accounts.		Reviewed the accounts, as presented to the members. Accounts prepared on a receipts and payments basis. Honoraria disclosed in reports to members Revised constitution makes the situation clearer.	Not need to disclose, but should have something set out in relation to the payments made (or subscriptions waived) see here for further information: https://www.gov.uk/guidance/payments-to-charity-trustees-what-the-rules-are
8	Check the reasonableness of the significant estimates and judgments and accounting policies used in accounting for the types of fund held and in the preparation of the accounts. The examiner must:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Check whether the separate funds of the charity have been correctly accounted for and reported correctly in the accounts. Check the reasonableness of any significant estimates or judgements. 		No other separate funds remain. Receipts and payments basis, no estimates or judgements required.	None

CC32 Accounts Direction – Harrogate Symphony Orchestra 2019/20 – 31 July 2020

	Direction	Action taken	Findings	Recommendation
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Where accruals accounts are prepared check that the accounting policies adopted are consistent with the applicable SORP and are appropriate to the activities of the charity. 		Accounts on a receipts and payments basis. Not applicable.	None
9	The examiner must check whether the trustees have considered the financial circumstances of the charity at the end of the reporting period and, if the accounts are prepared on an accruals basis, check whether the trustees have made an assessment of the charity's position as a going concern when approving the accounts.
	Where either receipts and payments or accruals accounts are prepared, the examiner must consider whether the trustees have assessed what invoices, bills and commitments remain outstanding at the end of the reporting period and whether the trustees have identified if they can settle these as and when they fall due.		Accounts are prepared on a receipts and payments basis. There are sufficient cash balances for the charity to continue in operation and meet liabilities as they fall due. Trustees have chosen to manage reserves such that there is sufficient to cover concert costs in the event of there being a substantial loss of concert income.	None
10	Check the form and content of the accounts. The examiner must carry out such procedures as the examiner considers necessary to provide a reasonable basis on which to conclude whether or not the accounts have been properly prepared. The examiner must:
	Where receipts and payments accounts have been prepared check that the charity can lawfully prepare such accounts, that all the accounting statements are present and that the funds of the charity are correctly identified		Receipts and payments are at a similar level the previous year. No statement of assets and liabilities.	None
11	Identify items from the analytical review of the accounts that need to be followed up for further explanation or evidence. The examiner must carefully consider if, during the course of their examination, items were found that were material to the accounts which need further explanation or supporting evidence. If the examiner is concerned that the charity's accounts could be materially misstated then the examiner must undertake sufficient additional work to be satisfied that any such item has been explained and correctly included in the accounts. The examiner must be alert to any related party transactions that require separate disclosure in the accounts. Where the examiner is not satisfied on any item that the examiner must refer to it in their independent examiner's report.

	Direction	Action taken	Findings	Recommendation
	Compare the analysis of the cash received and the cash spent in the current year with the previous year to identify any significant changes from year to year. The examiner is recommended to look for material items, differences or changes which require further explanation.		Review of payments (invoices) no unusual expenditure found. Revised constitution has removed designated /restricted funds.	None – to note that Covid-19 meant 2 concerts were cancelled, and there will be knock on effects into 2020/21.
12	Compare the trustees' annual report with the accounts. The examiner must compare any narrative information or figures in the trustees' annual report with the accounts in order to identify any material inconsistency between the trustees' annual report and the accounts.
	If accounts are prepared on the receipts and payments basis under section 42(3) there is no requirement placed on the examiner to comment on whether an inconsistency is present.		An annual report is not required	None
13	Write and sign the independent examination report. The examiner must review the conclusions from their independent examination and then prepare and sign their independent examiner's report. The content of their report must cover all the matters required by the 2008 Regulations. If the examiner has identified a matter of concern because one or more of the specific matters listed in the 2008 Regulations or in this Direction are present or remain unresolved then the examiner must bring it to the attention of trustees in their independent examiner's report.
	Statutory duty to report matters of material significance to the Commission. These are listed in section 156(3) of the Charities Act 2011.		None to report	None
