Trustees' Report

The trustees, who are directors for the purposes of company law, present the annual report together with the financial statements of the charitable company for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Objectives and activities

Objects and aims

Women and Theatre is an award-winning theatre company with 40 years' experience of working with diverse groups to create exciting drama projects about things that matter. We create engaging theatre and use interactive drama to promote the wellbeing of the whole community. Working in a range of contexts across arts, health and community sectors, our work is united by core values of inclusion and empowerment, giving a voice to those who are not usually heard. We work closely with communities to develop projects which foster positive changes, stimulate debate and bring different people together.

Women and Theatre delivers diverse drama activity including workshops, performances and participatory drama projects in a range of settings including theatres, outdoor spaces, hospitals and community centres. The company also works digitally; delivering creative workshops and projects via online meeting platforms, and engaging with digital audiences through films and podcasts.

Women and Theatre (Birmingham) Limited

Trustees' Report

Objectives, strategies and activities

Women & Theatre had a successful year of delivering a wide-ranging and high-quality programme that both engaged and entertained. We reached audiences and participants in theatres, woods and parkland, community centres, hostels, hospitals, libraries, social clubs and conference halls – as well as digitally through podcasts. Significant highlights of the year included the first performances devised, written and created under our new leadership team: In spring a Steering Group was formed that led on the coproduction of our annual community led performance “The Land Girls” (performed in Warley Woods in September) and in summer “On Yer Bike” commissioned by West Midlands Combined Authority went on tour around North Solihull with the aim of increasing “active travel” specifically cycling.

Later in the year we completed a further community tour, this time with Miss Ida: Tek Charge of Yuh Health, a partnership project developed over the length of 12 months. This primarily began with a bid in December 2023 led by The William Wilson Turner Foundation to the Commonwealth Games Inclusive Communities Fund. The bid was successful and over summer 2024 consultation sessions took place with various groups of Caribbean elders that shaped the script and content so partners included the organisations who hosted these sessions but also those where the performances took place The Heritage Centre, Wolverhampton, The Legacy Centre of Excellence, Birmingham, The Brasshouse and Shiloh Church both in Sandwell. Performances reached a combined audience of over 300 people and evaluation was strong with examples of us meeting our aim of influencing small scale behaviour change.

Also under the Health agenda (which remains a core element of our focus) was a new relationship established with Go Further , a co-produced Public and Patient Involvement and Engagement group of volunteers linked to the University of Birmingham who are committed to raising awareness and inequalities of/within gynae cancer. Our role to date has been to shape their stories into a series of monologues.

Achievements included securing the long term future of our work with HM Prison and Probation service via a successful bid to The Barings Foundation - Creatively Minded Men Fund. Our previous scheme of work, directly commissioned by Probation had culminated in 23/24 so we looked for ways to continue this valuable work independently. We were granted funds for three years to work with our named partner, Elliott House Approved Premises and the new work began in Autumn. Also in early Spring we celebrated our success in securing funding from The National Lottery Community Fund for our long time objective of establishing an integrated Adult Theatre Company. This was the culmination of considerable work, triggered with the demise of the funding we used for our long term project, Community Performance Club and our increasing belief that what we provided remained essential in terms of meeting an untapped need primarily in how art and theatre can tackle loneliness and isolation. The Lottery application was coproduced with past participants and now that the project is confirmed they will be invited to join with others in forming a Steering Group that will oversee the strategic direction of what we have now named The Brummie Ensemble.

In terms of our established regular activity Spring 2025 saw the return of our 'Word Lounge Theatre Company' a group made up of children in care, young carers and young people with additional needs. This year the performance created was Unknown 3.0 at Midlands Arts Centre (MAC). Our established partnership with MAC on this work is highly valued as the young people clearly feel at home at the venue where they are made welcome but it also saves considerable work for us in negotiating new space and acclimatising us and the young people to this.

Throughout the year, we delivered sessions with service users through our partnership with Birmingham & Solihull Mental Health Foundation NHS Trust and continued our relationship with higher education through input into the Applied Theatre course and our routine delivery of "Permission to Be Nosey" to students of the Specialist Community Nurse qual, both with Birmingham City University. We also hosted two work experience placements.

Structure, governance and management

Nature of governing document

The Company is limited by guarantee and does not have any share capital. It is governed by Memorandum and Articles of Association and was incorporated 11 March 1986. It is a charity, registered 9 March 1987.

Organisational structure

The Company is managed by a Board of Trustees with a minimum of four members, who meet regularly to administer the charity.

Senior Management / Leadership Team:

Adaya Henry - Artistic Director

Katherine Hewitt - Executive Director

Trustees' Report

Major risks and management of those risks

The company is aware of its reliance on public subsidy and charitable funding and the importance of partnerships within the sector. The Board will continue to monitor the funding and strategic position of the company and examine all strategic, business and operational risks.

Financial review

The Company continues to use income secured from Arts Council England, through its National Portfolio Programme. This funding is essential to the organisation as it covers the bulk of core salary costs. We are enjoying the stability this gives us and the ability to focus on gaining the funding we need for activity costs rather than the constant distraction of funding the day to day. This year completes year two of our first period of National Portfolio Organisation funding.

W&T brought forward restricted grant income from 2023/4 of approx £19,000 from the John Thaw Charity and Awards for All (National Lottery), for our planned new activity “Act Up” that will be modelled on Word Lounge activity but for an older young adult age group and the Barings Foundation for our work with men currently on probation.

If we make adjustments for restricted grant income in relation to timescale for delivery, there is a deficit in this year of £25,515. Although this is not welcomed it is not unexpected. The Company is under new management and the Management Committee planned a period of induction and transition that they anticipated would likely cause a lull in usual activity, namely bidding for grants and revenue generation. The Management Committee felt a smooth and successful hand over was their main priority and that financial reserves would allow for a level of loss.

We aim to have the Charity Commission’s recommended level of 3-6 months core running costs, plus reserves required to fulfil redundancy obligations – in line with W&T Reserves Policy. As we look ahead to the coming year, we are delighted to have an exciting programme of work planned, with a high proportion of our schedule already secured although we still need to source the funding to support our work with young people, and we are also keen to prioritise new writing or in fact updating and added to previous work.

Policy on reserves

The income and expenditure of Women and Theatre fluctuates according to the pattern of grant and project income secured. The Charity is also required on occasion to incur the costs of developing and researching work before grants are secured so sometimes, where applications are unsuccessful this can be a loss. In the instance of new funded projects there can also be expenditure made before grants are awarded. However this is minimised and avoided if possible. The Management Committee consider that reserves are needed to manage cash flow and provide for an orderly wind-down in the event of an unexpected reduction in the funds secured.

In the opinion of the Management Committee the reserves of the Charity are appropriate for its scale of operation however as this year sees a considerable deficit the priority for any profit in next year will be for it to be added to the Company Reserve. Women and Theatre ultimately aims to have reserves of The Charity Commission's recommended level of 3-6 months core running costs, plus reserves required to fulfil redundancy obligations.

Risk management

The company is aware of its reliance on public subsidy and charitable funding and the importance of partnerships within the sector. The Board will continue to monitor the funding and strategic position of the company and examine all strategic, business and operational risks.

Trustees' Report

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees (who are also the directors of Women and Theatre (Birmingham) Limited for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland". The report and accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provisions in the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable accounting standards, comprising FRS 102 have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that can disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The trustees are responsible for the maintenance and integrity of the corporate and financial information included on the charitable company's website. Legislation governing the preparation and dissemination of financial statements may differ from legislation in other jurisdictions.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of Women and Theatre (Birmingham) Limited as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities [applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)].

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

1 Accounting policies

Summary of significant accounting policies and key accounting estimates

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Statement of compliance

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)) (issued in October 2019) - (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006.

Basis of preparation

Women and Theatre (Birmingham) Limited meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy notes.

Going concern

The trustees have considered budgets and cash flow forecasts through to March 2024 and the level of support secured from Arts Council England. On this basis, the trustees consider that there are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue as a going concern nor any significant areas of uncertainty that affect the carrying value of assets held by the charity.

Income and endowments

All income is recognised once the charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount of the income receivable can be measured reliably.

Donations and legacies

Donations are recognised when the charity has been notified in writing of both the amount and settlement date. In the event that a donation is subject to conditions that require a level of performance by the charity before the charity is entitled to the funds, the income is deferred and not recognised until either those conditions are fully met, or the fulfilment of those conditions is wholly within the control of the charity and it is probable that these conditions will be fulfilled in the reporting period.

Deferred income

Deferred income represents amounts received for future periods and is released to incoming resources in the period for which, it has been received. Such income is only deferred when:

- The donor specifies that the grant or donation must only be used in future accounting periods; or
- The donor has imposed conditions which must be met before the charity has unconditional entitlement.

Expenditure

All expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to that expenditure, it is probable settlement is required and the amount can be measured reliably. All costs are allocated to the applicable expenditure heading that aggregate similar costs to that category.

Charitable activities

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charity in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Taxation

The charity is considered to pass the tests set out in Paragraph 1 Schedule 6 of the Finance Act 2010 and therefore it meets the definition of a charitable company for UK corporation tax purposes. Accordingly, the charity is exempt from taxation in respect of income or capital gains received within categories covered by Chapter 3 Part 11 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010 or Section 256 of the Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, to the extent that such income or gains are applied exclusively to charitable purposes.

Tangible fixed assets

Individual fixed assets are initially recorded at cost, less any subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

Depreciation and amortisation

Depreciation is provided on tangible fixed assets so as to write off the cost or valuation, less any estimated residual value, over their expected useful economic life , using 25% straight-line per quarter or in the case of computers, using 12.5% straight-line per quarter.

Fund structure

Unrestricted income funds are general funds that are available for use at the trustees discretion in furtherance of the objectives of the charity.

Restricted income funds are those donated for use in a particular area or for specific purposes, the use of which is restricted to that area or purpose.
