York Muslim Association Overview Report and Financial Figures, 2024-25

Introduction

York Muslim Association is dedicated to serving the Muslim community in York and its surrounding areas. The association aims to provide religious, educational, and social services to promote understanding and cooperation among different faiths and communities.

Trustees

The governance of the York Muslim Association is overseen by a board of trustees who are committed to the principles and objectives of the association. The trustees are responsible for ensuring that the association operates in accordance with its constitution and legal obligations. They meet regularly to discuss and make decisions on various matters concerning the welfare and progress of the organisation. The current trustees are:

- Suleman Karbani - Chair
- Ali Karbani - Secretary
- Azhar Iqbal - Treasurer
- Aziz Karbani - Trustee

Annual General Meeting (AGM)

York Muslim Association holds an Annual General Meeting (AGM) every year, which is an essential event in the association's calendar. The AGM provides an opportunity for Trustees, members and interested parties to come together, review the past year's activities, and plan for the future. During the AGM, the trustees present detailed reports on the association's activities, achievements, and challenges.

One of the key aspects of the AGM is the scrutiny of the association's finances. The Treasurer presents a financial report, including income, expenditures, and any surplus or deficit. This report is thoroughly examined by the members, and any questions or concerns are addressed. This process ensures transparency and accountability in the association's financial management.

Purpose of the Association

The primary purpose of the York Muslim Association is to provide a supportive environment for the Muslim community in York. The association's objectives include:

- Promoting the teachings of Islam and providing facilities for worship.
- Offering educational programs, including Quranic studies, Arabic language classes, and religious lectures.
- Organising social events and activities that foster community spirit and cohesion.
- Providing support and assistance to individuals and families in need within the community.

Conclusion

York Muslim Association plays a vital role in the lives of its members and the broader community. With a dedicated board of trustees, a clear purpose, and a commitment to transparency, the association continues to thrive and make a positive impact. The Annual General Meeting serves as a cornerstone for reviewing progress and ensuring that the association remains accountable to its members and stakeholders.
