Myddfai Ty Talcen Charity

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 30th November 2020

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 30th November 2020. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and activities for the public benefit.

Myddfai Ty Talcen exists for the purposes of physical and mental training and recreation and social moral and intellectual development through the medium of reading and recreation rooms library lectures classes recreations and entertainments or otherwise as may be found expedient for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Parish of Myddfai in the County of Carmarthen without distinction of sex or of political, religious or other opinions.

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty in section 17 of the Charities Act 2011 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Commission.

Social investments

The charity seeks to increase its unrestricted reserves through its charitable activities and its concession system. The Trustees now need to undertake a policy review to assess the balance required between income generation, grants, restricted funds, investment and reinvestment in income generation, set against its primary and wider objectives.

Policy on grants and funding

Grants and funding are used to support the charity's ambitions to meet its wider economic, social, welfare and regeneration objectives. Future policy on grants and funding will be informed by the central objectives of the charity and grants when sought will be project specific.

Volunteers

The charity is proud of its achievements in recruiting, supporting and developing the role of volunteers within the immediate Parish of Myddfai and beyond. An original target of twenty five volunteers in 2010/2011 has been met but a restructuring of the way the cafe operates (ie using paid staff) has led to a decline in regular volunteers. However, there are currently six regular volunteers in the cafe and sixteen in the shop. The charity is very aware that continual recruitment is needed and that the training and support of volunteers requires robust coordination underpinned by a strong policy.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Due to Covid regulations and the effects of Covid, activities in the hall, shop and cafe were severely limited. Income from weddings was also reduced to virtually nothing. However, looking to the future, the Trustees are confident that income streams will revert to their previous levels, if not improve. As there is predicted to be a boost to the economy following reduction in Covid regulations, the Trustees see no reason why this should not also benefit the hall, shop and cafe.

A summary of the main achievements during the past year are as follows:

- 1) The range and scope of cultural events, classes and opportunities for social interaction amongst beneficiaries has continued to increase. For example, yoga, pilates, and art classes met where possible.
- 2) Seventy local concessions have benefited directly from income generating activities within the centre during the limited times when the shop was open.
- 3) Stakeholder support has increased and enabled the primary and wider objectives of the charity to develop.
- 4) A mutually beneficial relationship continues to develop with The Physicians of Myddfai Society
- 5) A new Bursary scheme began in October 2017, to help residents of the parish of Myddfai in furthering cultural, educational, recreational, social and musical activities and interests. Two Bursaries have been awarded, but despite wide publicity, the number of applications for Bursaries remains disappointing.
- 6) Two major projects have been agreed for 2019-2020: firstly, the doors and side screens on the south-west aspect of the hall have been totally replaced with sapele hardwood (c£4k). Secondly, a second stained glass project was started, which will up-skill the local participants and also provide a complementary window in the Hall. The project is awaiting completion now that Covid regulations are being relaxed.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

At present the free reserves amount to £25,361 (2019 - £37,582).

The Trustees' aim is to ensure that adequate unrestricted reserves are held to mitigate the risk of unforeseen expenses, and to ensure a considered balance between the holding of adequate unrestricted reserves and the reinvestment of funds for growth and further income generation for the future.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Risk management

The trustees have a duty to identify and review the risk to which the charity is exposed and to ensure appropriate controls are in place to provide reasonable assurance against fraud and error.
