Structure, governance and management

The governing document is a Charity Commission Scheme dated 15 August 1994, which superseded a Scheme in the High Court of Chancery on 5 November 1829 which superseded an Indenture of 1654. All twelve Trustees, with the exception of the present incumbents of Croston and Bretherton (ex officio), are co-opted for a term of five years.

Objectives and activities

The objects are to apply the income to assist the Governors of Bretherton Endowed School with the cost of conducting the school and advancing education thereat by the provision of equipment, facilities and other benefits, and in promoting the education (including social and physical training) of persons under the age of 25 who are attending or have attended the school.

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when reviewing the Charity's aims and objectives.

Achievements and performance

This has been a further year of consolidation and planning to extend the property portfolio in order to maximise assets.

Financial Review

The Charity operates with minimal unrestricted reserves designed to cover basic repair and insurance costs of its various properties and operational expenses.

The Permanent Endowment is in property and land and amounts are maintained in Common Investment Funds in M & G the Equities Investment Fund for Charities ("Charifund").

Acland Bracewell revalued the properties of the Charity on 4 July 2007 at a total of £1,589,650.

During 2014 a freehold property was purchased for £170,752 utilising cash funds and investments.

During 2022, considerable amounts were expended in modernising two properties.

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities:

Law applicable to charities in England and Wales require the Trustees to prepare accounts for each financial year which fairly present the receipts and payments of the Charity during the year and its assets and liabilities at the end of the year.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Charity and which enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes

(forming part of the accounts)

1 Accounting policies

The charity is allowed under section 133 of the Charities Act 2011 to prepare receipts and payments accounts as its gross income is not over £250,000.

A receipts and payments account is a factual record of money received and paid during the year. A statement of assets and liabilities is a list of significant possessions and outstanding financial obligations as at the end of the financial year.

The accounts do not purport to show a true and fair view of the Charity's financial activities and state of affairs.

2 Trustees remuneration and expenses

No remuneration directly or indirectly out of the funds of the Charity was paid or payable for the year or prior year to any trustee or to any person or persons known to be connected with any of them.

No reimbursement of expenses has been made or is due to be made to any of the trustees in respect of the year or prior year.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Bretherton Endowed School Foundation

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2023 which are set out on pages 4 to 7.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The Charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011, and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act); and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Acthave not been met; or
- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
