Objectives and Activities

Capital

The Charity Commissioners scheme of 13 January 1989 does not impose any restrictions on the investment or use of capital.

Income

Income to be used for the following purposes:

- 1) To defray the expenses of the administration of the Trust.
- 2) To apply the income in promoting the education of persons under the age of 25 years who or whose parents are normally resident in the area of benefit, being the Civil Parishes of Stoneleigh, Ashow, Leek Wootton and Burton Green.

Public Benefit

The trustees have applied the guidance from the Charities Commission relating to public benefit when assessing grant applications. Public benefit is inherent in the objects of the charity.

Policies

The Trustees invite applications for grants from eligible individuals and institutions and these are considered at the meetings of the Trustees.

Investment Policy

The charity has a policy of keeping any surplus liquid funds in short term deposits which can be accessed readily.

Risk Review

The trustees consider their investment strategy appropriate to a charity of its size and nature.

Reserves & Investment Policy

The charity has a policy that unrestricted funds should enable them to cover the previous year's total outgoing resources to ensure continuity of the operation of the project.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT
TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE LEIGH EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2021 which are set out on pages 1 to 6.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
