Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity continues to uphold the principles of the Third Age Trust i.e. the advancement, education, health and well-being of people no longer in full time employment. Sheffield u3a (Su3a) achieves its aims by supporting and encouraging members to form interest groups usually on a peer-to-peer learning basis and also by facilitating events which are open to all members. During 2024 our membership level showed a steady increase finally hitting 3,000 by the end of September. The trustees accept that each year will see a loss of members at year-end, so recruitment of new members will always be a priority. The aim is for a slow but sustained increase in membership particularly amongst those who have recently retired. Promotional leaflets were sent to all Sheffield libraires and to various other organisations. However, since the inception of our public facing Facebook page it has become clear that we can maintain and grow our membership without staging one-off publicity events which are costly in terms of time and effort. We will continue to take advantage of ad hoc events such as when our music groups perform, to publicise Su3a. During the year our IT team developed and implemented a new membership system which is far more user friendly for our volunteer membership team. There have been some teething troubles but most of these have now been ironed out by dint of hard work on the part of our IT team. We held two meetings for new members during the year and our General Coordinator used the information gleaned from both new and existing members to proactively encourage the start-up of new groups. We also held a meeting for all group coordinators which was well attended and gave the trustees the opportunity to alert members to changes within the organisation and to consult them on future plans.

		In addition to maintaining all its group and other activities and its relationship with the two Sheffield Universities, Su3a Has continued to develop and update policies to ensure consistent decision making and good governance. Governance continues to be an area of focus for the trustees and the work which was anticipated to be concluded in 2024 was delayed due to the implementation of the new Members computer system and the need to retrain volunteers. This will be continued during 2025. Su3a now has a trustee responsible for environmental issues and groups will be encouraged to adopt the guidance. In summary Sheffield u3a continues to be a solid, well-run organisation with well-considered aims and policies.

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees of	Sheffield University of the Third Age
On accounts for the year ended	31 st December 2024	Charity no (if any)	703147
	Set out on pages 1 to 45

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31st December 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity continues to uphold the principles of the Third Age Trust i.e. the advancement, education, health and well-being of people no longer in full time employment. Sheffield u3a (Su3a) achieves its aims by supporting and encouraging members to form interest groups usually on a peer-to-peer learning basis and also by facilitating events which are open to all members. During 2023 our membership level showed an increase with circa 3,000 members towards the end of the year. The trustees accept that each year will see a loss of members at year-end, so recruitment of new members is a priority, and the aim is for a slow but sustained increase in membership particularly amongst those who have recently retired. In order to achieve this Su3a organised a number of promotional activities in the year including taking a stall at Sheffield Market and supporting/promoting singing groups performing at the Cathedral and in the town centre. Our IT team developed and implemented a new website which is more accessible both for our members and for the public. Su3a has also engaged with social media and in May a private Facebook Group was set up for the membership. The aim is also to set up a public facing Facebook page which will hopefully help with recruitment. We held two meetings for new members during the year and our General Coordinator used the information gleaned from both new and existing members to proactively encourage the start-up of new groups. In addition to maintaining all its group and other activities and its relationship with the two Sheffield Universities Su3a has strengthened its governance model. A Strategic Risk Assessment was completed during the year which demonstrates how all possible risks to Su3a have been mitigated and Emergency & Succession Planning was highlighted as

		the sole remaining area to be addressed. Work has been started on this area and will be completed during 2024. Environmental Guidelines have been adopted and were discussed at the Group Coordinators Annual Meeting. How the guidelines are to be monitored will be considered during 2024. Position statements were agreed and publicised on Promotion of Other Organisations, Diversity within Su3a and Social Prescribing. In summary Sheffield u3a continues to be a solid, well run organisation with well-considered aims and policies.

Report to the trustees of	Sheffield University of the Third Age
On accounts for the year ended	31 st December 2023	Charity no (if any)	703147
	Set out on pages 1 to 45

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31st December 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity continues to uphold the principles of the Third Age Trust. That is, the advancement education, health and well-being to people no longer in full time employment. Sheffield u3a (Su3a) achieves its aims by supporting and encouraging members to form interest groups usually on a peer-to-peer learning basis and also by facilitating events which are open to all members. Membership has remained fairly stable at a post-pandemic level of approximately 2,800 members and 180 interest groups. One of the trustees has taken on the role of Publicity Officer, the aim being to rebuild membership levels to pre-pandemic levels of c.3,400. Most interest groups have now resumed face to face meetings and both the monthly lecture program at the Showroom Cinema and the monthly Drop Ins for existing and prospective members have re-started. After a tentative start, attendance has continued to grow throughout the year at both activities. The first new members meeting post pandemic was held during the year along with the first Group Coordinators meeting, both were well attended. Su3a continues to maintain links with the Sheffield Universities with members assisting in appropriate research programs via the Research and Shared Learning Group. This group acts as the conduit not only the universities but also for other external bodies. During 2022 an annual prize of £250 was instituted for undergraduates completing research into age-related issues. The joint winners for 2022 will be giving a talk to members in the forthcoming year. Governance has been a priority for the Executive Committee this year and a revised Financial Policy has been compiled together with an updated Guide for Group Coordinators. This latter was discussed with the Group Coordinators at their meeting and their comments and suggestions were considered and included in the guidance where appropriate.

		A survey about the ways in which Su3a communicates with the membership was undertaken by the Research and Shared Learning Group and the findings have been considered and changes will follow within the forthcoming year. Similarly, an Environmental survey was undertaken with our various Environmental interest groups participating. Results from this survey will be considered during 2023. In summary, Sheffield u3a continues to proactively recruit new members, to support and encourage existing members and to maintain good governance within the organisation.

Report to the trustees of	Sheffield University of the Third Age
On accounts for the year ended	31 st December 2022	Charity no (if any)	703147
	Set out on pages 1 to 46

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31st December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31st December 2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
