BOARD REPORT

Release continues to lead the way in advocating for the rights of people who use drugs and for those who are adversely affected by drug laws and their policing. This has been the core focus of the organisation throughout its history and remains so.

Release is resolute in its focus but is not an organisation that stands still. It continues to evolve and develop in order to deliver its mission in a changing world. Over the last 12 months, there has been expansion, growth and innovation. The opening of our Harm Reduction Hub has been a major development, allowing us to provide direct support to those most in need. We are providing more legal outreach services than ever before and have expanded into new areas of law. Our policy work continues to be highly influential and we have worked productively on a number of projects with several allied organisations, including Crisis, Liberty, the Runnymede and Amnesty.

None of this vital work could be delivered without our talented and dedicated staff who deserve much thanks. Once again, the inspirational leadership of our Executive Director, Niamh Eastwood, supported by the Board, has been exceptional and underpins everything that Release achieves. We face big challenges in the coming years, notably with the arrival of synthetic opioids within drug markets, but can be confident that we will be able to step up and provide the support, advocacy and radical thinking that have long been the hallmark of this very special organisation.

Professor Toby Seddon

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

This year we continued as an organisation to develop, both expanding our service offer and areas of operation and deepening the level of support we are able to offer people. Over the last 12 months we launched new virtual legal outreach surgeries in Maidenhead, Rotherham, and Wokingham expanded our legal service to now include community care and immigration law, and opened our own harm reduction hub at our offices in Tower Hamlets – and that is just the big stuff. We continue to deliver much-needed services to people who have often been let down by systems that are meant to support them.

The launch of the harm reduction hub blew us away. We launched a crowdfunding campaign in January 2023, and within a week we had raised 100% of our 7,500 target. We thank everyone who contributed, and we were delighted to open the hub up in April 2024, providing access to a wide range of harm reduction equipment, including drug testing strips. The decision to open the hub came from a need to respond to the emerging crises surrounding us. In the past year, we have witnessed greater hardships amongst those we work with and for: increased homelessness and an increased toxic drug supply, with synthetic opioids more prevalent in the heroin market, as well as many other drug markets. All of this meant we had to take action – to provide a safe space for respite and community building and to provide people with the means to stay alive.

The legal services continued to support the needs of people who are facing problems with their housing, benefits and financial matters. We supported 1330 people last year, across a range of backgrounds of needs. Despite the many different challenges we supported these people with, what united this work and all of Release's work is the commitment to supporting people's rights being upheld. This approach is fundamental to all of our work and is why the drugs' team launched a new two-part advocacy guide to support people who are experiencing problems with their drug treatment.

The Release team continued to contribute to policy consultations and media requests highlighting the harms of drug prohibition. We also repeatedly called on Government – local, regional, and national – to respond to the crisis of drug related deaths, which continue to grow year on year, with 2023 being one of the highest on record. This one, among many, reasons why as an organisation we advocate for ending the criminalisation of people who use drugs, why we push for the scaling up of harm reduction responses, and why we want treatment that is person centred and respects people's dignity. It is why we recognise that drug policy reform alone is not enough, we must also advocate for racial justice, housing justice, and economic justice to truly ensure people's rights are upheld and protected.

Finally, I am lucky to work with an inspiring group of people - the staff, the Board and our amazing volunteers – all of us are committed to the principles we advocate for.

Niamh Eastwood Executive Director

APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEES

The Memorandum and Articles of Association requires that there be at least three trustees. Every trustee is appointed for a term of five years by a resolution of the trustees passed at a special meeting. In selecting a new trustee, the trustees take into account the benefits of appointing a person who is able, by virtue of his or her personal or professional qualifications, to make a contribution to the pursuit of the objects or management of the charity.

New trustees are required to spend an induction day at the Release offices meeting with the Executive Director and other key staff, as well as attending one of the outreach programmes. The induction process also includes familiarisation with the organisation's work and history.

Trustees are also expected to attend organisational strategy meetings as required, as well as the scheduled quarterly board meetings - one to include the AGM. Trustees are expected where possible to attend Release events and become involved with additional project work relevant to a trustee's skills/choice.

FINANCIAL STRATEGY

Release continues to ensure it has diversified income streams, to mitigate any funding shortfalls that could affect the activities of the organisation. This diversification strategy has assisted in stabilising the organisation, although much of the funding is for time limited project and/or activity work. Release has been successful in securing multi-year programme and core funding and this is attributable to the organisations reputation for developing, delivering, and collaborating with new, exciting and impactful streams of work, which has been recognised by our funders. Moving forward the organisation will be developing new strands of work for the different sections, which will expose the sections to new funding streams.

RESULTS (excluding restricted funds)

Net outgoing resources of the company for the year were £240,963 (2022 – net incoming resources – £197,361) details of which are given in the financial statements below.

Free reserves at 31st March 2024 amounted to £322,319 (2023 - £591,614) as represented by unrestricted net current assets.

Further details of funding sources and expenditure incurred to achieve the charity's key objectives are disclosed hereunder and in the notes to the financial statements.

PUBLIC BENEFIT

The Board of Directors (Trustees) are satisfied that in setting the objectives and planning the activities of Release these are fully compatible with the purposes of the charity and are fully compliant with the Charities Act 2011 public benefit requirement.

ACTIVITIES AND REVIEW OF THE YEAR

The company operated satisfactorily during the year to 31 March 2024.

Release's financial position for 2023-24 remained relatively robust and this was due to the additional funding assistance provided by our funders to manage the economic inflationary pressures that started toward the end of 2021 with energy price increases and continued through to Spring 2024. The diligent financial management exercised by the organisation in developing, diversifying, and underpinning its service provision attracted new funders, and this evidenced through the expansion of the legal outreach service in new 'host' centres and consultative projects we were requested to deliver. However, we know we can do more and whilst much of the successful fundraising to date has been for specific projects, our short to medium term plan is to focus more on securing programme, core and research funding. This will be a significant factor in enabling the organisation to deliver more in the coming years.

The principal aims of the company are to provide free and confidential legal, educational and welfare advice and information to any person, body, organisation or company in the areas of drug use, civil liberties, human rights and the criminal law.

OUR WORK (United Kingdom)

ADVICE & REPRESENTATION SERVICES

LEGAL OUTREACH SERVICES

The legal team continued to deliver free at the point of delivery legal outreach services across London, and via our now established 'virtual' services available in Hull, Maidenhead, Rotherham, and Stockton. The geographic deployment of the virtual services was intentional and specifically targeted areas with the multiple deprivation indicators and drug related deaths.

During the 12-month period we assisted 1,330 clients with 1,930 separate legal issue. 17.3% (n.231) presented as homeless.

We have developed a specialist representation service for social security tribunals which is now funded and pleased to report a 95% success at social security tribunals.

The London services continued to be available all clients of the 14 host centres in the 10 following London boroughs: Brent, Camden, Croydon, Ealing, Greenwich, Islington, Lambeth, Newham, Tower Hamlets, and Waltham Forest.

LEGAL SERVICES – DEVELOPMENT

The organisation has updated its case management system and now uses AdvicePro across all services. The benefit of investing in this system was to prepare the legal section ready to apply for a legal aid contract in November 2023. We were successfully awarded a contract for Community Care and Public law.

In addition to this we have also developed our immigration service which the assistance of Refugee Action who have and continues to provide us with training and supervision to meet the criteria to register with the Office of the Immigration Services which we achieved in early 2024.

DRUGS SERVICES

The drug advocacy service is delivered by a Drug Service Co-Ordinator and a Drugs Advisor and Advocate who provide advocacy advice to people accessing drug treatment services, ensuring their voice and needs are centred in their care. The drugs service is partially supported by funding provided Etypharm.

a) HARM REDUCTION HUB

In January 2024, we launched a crowdfunder to fund the reconfiguration of the ground floor office into a harm reduction hub, to provide much needed support and supplies to address the increasing contamination of the drug market and increasing drug related deaths nationally. Within one week of launching, the crowdfunder had hit 100% of its target of 7,500 GBP. In the following two months, the hub was built and furnished by Release staff and volunteers. During this period, some members of the public health team of the London Borough of Tower Hamlets (LBTH) also made contact to support the space, awarding a needle and syringe programme contract to Release with an additional 10,000 GBP to support staff time, volunteer expenses and inventory for the needle and syringe space. Additionally, LBTH directly purchases naloxone kits which are delivered monthly to Release, and has set up a clinical waste contract for our office so that used needles and syringes can be brought to Release by hub visitors.

The hub began by operating from 14:00 to 17:00 Monday to Friday, staffed by two staff members each shift. Today, we operate 14:00 to 17:00 Monday to Thursday with combinations of staff and volunteer staffing. Then on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, we set shifts dependent on volunteer availability and advertise the service hours which will be available one month ahead of when those weekends are set for. Friday shifts generally fall from 19:00 to 22:00 and on Saturday and Sunday we operate between 16:00 and 19:00. These shifts are collectively referred to as 'off-hours shifts' and are ran by senior volunteers known as 'Team Leaders.' The space provides a range of services for people who use drugs as well as anyone in the community, prioritising those most vulnerabilised through the direct lack of appropriate services or those who experience over policing or forms of surveillance as barriers to accessing mainstream services.

a) ADVOCACY GUIDES

With funding from the Barring Foundation, Release have produced a two-part advocacy guide to support people accessing drug treatment. This guide can be used for both self and peer advocacy, and it contains; the principles of advocating, an introduction to national guidelines including "Drug misuse and dependence; UK guidelines on clinical management," the standard process for advocating in the context of drug treatment, and a series of specific steps to follow for overcoming different drug treatment obstacles. In the final sections, all of those obstacles included are ones which people have previously asked Release to support them with, via our national helpline.

Using the advocacy guide we have launched a training programme for drug service workers, housing workers, and drug treatment service users who want to better understand their rights within the treatment system. Thus far, we have found that our trainings receive very positive feedback from attendees, who often were unfamiliar with the UK guidelines on clinical management prior to our training, and who had all experienced some of the obstacles we named in our guide. Our advocacy work helps to raise awareness and make the relevant parts of those guidelines more easily accessible to people who use drugs and relevant professionals.

NATIONAL LEGAL AND DRUGS HELPLINE

During 2023-24, we received just over 2,000 contacts through a combination of telephone calls, emails, and online submissions seeking support for a range of issues. The email and online enquiries continue to be a medium for those seeking advice, with over 20% of enquiries submitted through these 2 channels (all are responded to within one working day). People accessing the helpline services continue to seek advice on criminal proceedings involving drugs, employment issues involving drug tests and drug use, advice on treatment issues including a reduction in opiate substitute prescribing and onerous conditions attached to treatment. The downturn in the number help enquiries is ameliorated by the increase in website users, which appears to answer many of the queries people may have.

The team at Release view the helpline as an important source of information that ensures that we keep up to date with patterns of drug consumption and changes in the market, so whilst largely unfunded it is critical that we continue to provide the service both for our own professional development and for the fact it is needed.

RESEARCH & POLICY

The 'Drug Market Monitoring Network' has now been running for 2 years with membership made up of people who use drugs, harm reduction and recovery activists, and people working on the frontline of drug services - to monitor UK drug markets and access to services/harm reduction equipment during the ongoing pandemic.

The network comprises of 40+ individuals from areas across the UK and at the beginning of the crisis, the network met on a weekly basis. The group continues to meet frequently with new members joining. The network receives verbal reports at the meetings, network members provide written reports to Release, with a specific focus on drugs related to dependency, including heroin, crack cocaine, and street benzodiazepines (which are substances less likely to be captured via the online survey). The network has been monitoring drug availability, price, and purity, and whilst there have been some geographical differences, the market has remained remarkably resilient and has been actively tracking Nitazenes that are a group of synthetic opioids which have emerged in the UK drug supply.

Network members' reports are collated by Release and this intelligence is submitted to Public Health England, who then distribute this information to their local agencies via their drug alerts system. Network reports were initially produced weekly, and since March 2021, network reports are provided monthly in line with PHE's monthly drug alerts system. Reports of any sudden drug market developments are also passed onto PHE; a recent example being the isotonitazene heroin-contamination, which then triggered PHE's national alert. Input from the network was also included in Release's published policy paper 'Drugs in the Time of COVID' to contextualise quantitative findings from the drug purchasing survey.

RELEASE WEBSITE AND SOCIAL MEDIA PLATFORMS

The Release website remains an important resource for people seeking information about drugs and the law. The current analytics During the 12-month period traffic to our website had 873,525 unique visitors. Again, the most viewed pages related to drugs and the law. This is symptomatic of the increasing use of digital resources to seek advice and information. Specific content on the website is frequently updated to ensure the public benefit from latest policy and legal changes to the law. In addition, and as highlighted above, the racial justice uprisings saw a significant increase in Release's work on drug policy and policing as drivers of racial disparities in the criminal justice system.

Release is also active on social media with over 29,500 followers on Twitter, and 4,800 followers on Instagram.

A NEW WORKING PRACTICE

Release continues to operate a hybrid work model (minimum 3 days office/2 days home working), which continues to have a positive material benefit for all staff. As an organisation we moved quickly to establish our remote working capabilities to ensure we could seamlessly continue to deliver our services, protect our clients and our work colleagues. What we learnt through our working practice was the ability to comfortably work both remotely and in office. This hybrid model has clearly benefited our colleagues well-being, and to this ends we will continue with this working model.

OUR WORK (INTERNATIONAL)

FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMME

Since 2014, Release has delivered Drug Policy Fellowship Programmes, which support those working in sectors related to drug policy to improve and develop their understanding of drugs and related policies, enhance their advocacy skills, and build their media capacities. Every iteration of the Fellowship adds to the pool of existing high-profile drug policy advocates globally, which are not just people working full-time on drug related issues. This year we welcomed four amazing fellows from countries in Southeast Asia - Philippines, Malaysia, Indonesia and Singapore - the fellows met with other NGOs working in drug policy, harm reduction and human rights in the UK. We were also delighted to be able to bring them to a harm reduction conference in Cardiff where they met public health officials from the Welsh Government.

EXPERT NGO SUPPORT

Release continues to provide expert support to NGOs in other countries to advance efforts to decriminalize people who use drugs, last year we provided advice to colleagues in South America and Europe.

TALKINGDRUGS

Release's online international platform TalkingDrugs- a global multilingual news and analysis platform for drug policy developments - expanded in 2023/24 to modernise its interface and better reach international readers.

This year, TalkingDrugs' editor André Gomes led on the website's back-end and front-end development that fits modern news website's standards. The website's improved SEO function, look and mobile readability have helped grow its readership significantly. A key development has been the integration of an AI-driven translating software, which now automatically translates all produced articles into seven global languages (English, French, Spanish, Italian, Russian, Portuguese and Thai). With an additional step of human verification, this means that content is now accessible to wider audiences at unprecedented speeds.

In terms of readers, TalkingDrugs has significantly increased its readership this year: there has been a 267% increase in readers compared to last year. This has been driven by a 300% improvement in organic searches, highlighting how SEO improvements established TalkingDrugs as a key news platform.

Interestingly, Russian readers are our largest single-country audience, representing 14% of our global audience. Thanks to avoiding a news block in Russia and fantastic language-specific editors, we have emerged as a key source of information for drug policy advocates there.

Across social media, TalkingDrugs has developed a clear brand identity as well as a consistent posting schedule. On Instagram, our audience has grown to 5,900 followers, an 84% increase in followers from the previous year. We have also started a TikTok account, reaching 1 million views on the second video posted; this account has however been suspended, and a new one is being formed.

The website continues to rely on a pool of paid and unpaid writers, helping develop the skills of emerging researchers while commissioning established journalists to cement TalkingDrugs' authority as a key source of drug policy-related analysis.

MEDIA WORK

Release personnel provided informed comment, as well as interviews to all the major newspapers including the Guardian, the Telegraph, Times and Independent. Interviews were also provided to popular online media sites, such as Vice. Local press also sought comment on issues related to drugs, drug policy and harm reduction. TV appearances were made by the Executive Director on various news programmes including BBC and Sky.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES AND SEMINARS

Staff continued to participate in conferences and seminar related to harm reduction and drug policy both internationally and nationally, all of which took place online.

As the charity's Trustees of Release Legal Emergency and Drugs Service Limited (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of Release Legal Emergency and Drugs Service Limited are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

Basis of preparation:

The accounts have been prepared in accordance with the provisions in Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 applicable to companies subject to the small companies regime and in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to Charities preparing their accounts in accordance with FRS 102 (effective 1 January 2019) - (Charities SORP (FRS 102)) and the Charities Act 2011.

Advantage has been taken of Section 396(5) of The Companies Act 2006 to allow the format of the financial statements to be adapted to reflect the special nature of the charity's operation and in order to comply with the requirements of the SORP.

Release Legal Emergency and Drugs Service Limited meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS102. Assets and liabilities are initially recognised at historical cost unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy notes.

Going concern

Preparation of the accounts is on a going concern basis. The Trustees are of the view that the level of reserves will support the charity going forward.

Changes to accounting estimates

No changes to accounting estimates have occurred in the reporting period.

Material prior period errors

No material prior year errors have been identified in the reporting period.

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The particular accounting policies adopted are set out below.

IncomeRecognition of Income

These are included in the Statement of Financial Activities (SOFA) when:

- the charity becomes entitled to the income;
- it is more likely than not that the trustees will receive the resources; and
- the monetary value can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Offsetting

There has been no offsetting of assets and liabilities, or income and expenses, unless required or permitted by the FRS 102 SORP or FRS 102.

Grants and Donations

Grants and donations are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS 102 SORP).

Revenue and Capital Grants

Revenue and Capital grants are recognised as income when notification is received. The income is matched with the relevant expenditure for which the grant has been received. Capital grants are credited to restricted funds. Depreciation of fixed assets purchased with the capital grants is then charged to these funds.

Tax reclaims on Donations and Gifts

Gift Aid receivable is included in income when there is a valid declaration from the donor. Any Gift Aid amount recovered on a donation is considered to be part of that gift and is treated as an addition to the same fund as the initial donation unless the donor or the terms of the appeal have specified otherwise.

Contractual Income and Performance Related Grants

This is only included in the SoFA once the charity has provided the related goods or services or met the performance related conditions.

Legacies

Legacies are included in the SOFA when receipt is probable, that is, when there has been grant of probate, the executors have established that there are sufficient assets in the estate and any conditions attached to the legacy are either within the control of the charity or have been met.

Government Grants

The charity has not received government grants in the reporting period.

Donated goods

Donated goods are measured at fair value (the amount for which the asset could be exchanged) unless impractical to do so.

Donated Services and Facilities

Donated services and facilities are included in the SOFA when received at the value of the gift to the charity provided the value of the gift can be measured reliably.

Volunteer Help

The value of any voluntary help received is not included in the accounts but is described in the Directors' annual report

Deferred Income

Deferred income arises on income received but which may be allocated to a number of future periods in accordance with the terms of the grant or donation. The element of the income that is for a future period is deferred so as to match it to the periods covered by the terms of the income.

Income from interest, royalties and dividends

This is included in the accounts when receipt is probable and the amount receivable can be measured reliably.

Insurance claims

Insurance claims are only included in the SoFA when the general income recognition criteria are met (5.10 to 5.12 FRS 102 SORP) and are included as an item of other income in the SoFA.

Expenditure and liabilities

Where possible, expenditure is allocated specifically to the relevant activities for which it is incurred. Where costs cannot be directly attributed they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of the resources. Overhead costs in the statement of financial activities are apportioned on the basis of staff time spent on each activity.

Liability recognition

Liabilities are recognised where it is more likely than not that there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to pay out resources and the amount of the obligation can be measured with reasonable certainty.

Governance Costs

Support costs have been allocated between governance costs and other support. Governance costs comprise all costs involving public accountability of the charity and its compliance with regulation and good practice.

Grants with Performance Conditions

Where the charity gives a grant with conditions for its payment being a specific level of service or output to be provided, such grants are only recognised in the SOFA once the recipient of the grant has provided the specified service or output.

Grants Payable without Performance Conditions

Where there are no conditions attaching to the grant that enables the donor charity to realistically avoid the commitment, a liability for the full funding obligation must be recognised.

Employee benefits

Short term benefits including holiday pay are recognised as an expense in the period in which the service is received.

Redundancy cost

The charity made no redundancy payments during the reporting period.

Deferred income

No material item of deferred income has been included in the accounts.

Legal status of the charity

The charity is a company limited by guarantee and has no share capital. In the event of the charity being wound up, the liability in respect of the guarantee is limited to £1 per member of the charity.

Stocks and work in progress

Stocks held for sale as part of non-charitable trade are measured at the lower or cost or net realisable value.

Debtors

Debtors (including trade debtors and loans receivable) are measured on initial recognition at settlement amount after any trade discounts or amount advanced by the charity. Subsequently, they are measured at the cash or other consideration expected to be received.

Fixed Assets

Tangible fixed assets for use by the charity

These are capitalised if they can be used for more than one year, and cost at least £500. They are valued at cost or, if gifted, at the value to the charity on receipt.

Depreciation is calculated at a rate to write off the cost of tangible fixed assets on a straight line basis over their estimated useful lives. The rates applied per annum are as follows:

Fixtures, Fittings and Equipment	straight line basis	25%
----------------------------------	---------------------	-----
