The objective is to maintain and secure the Village Hall for the benefits of the residents and the community and is managed by the trustees to provide a venue able to provide the facilities required.

The office bearers are re-elected or voted in and other trustees are co-opted.

The objective is to provide for education, social welfare and recreation without discrimination, on political, religious or other grounds.

The Village Hall provides facilities for bingo, over 50s club, martial arts, slimming club, parties, social gatherings, concerts and the Village pantomime. Also space for NHS wellbeing meetings and Parish and local council meetings.
