Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees

JIGNYASU RAMBAPA TRUST

On accounts for the year ended

15 November 2024

Charity no
(if any)

Set out on pages

(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 15 November 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (other than that disclosed below *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Respective
responsibilities of
trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The advancement of religion, the advancement of education, the relief of poverty and the relief of sickness and suffering in any part of the world.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Our Charity continues its activities and effects with the guidelines provided by the Charities Commissioners on Public Benefits and specific guidance on Charities for advancement of religion.

As per the guidelines of the Charities Commissioners and the declared aims and aspirations of our Charity, the core activity of the Trust remains as weekly prayer meetings (108 Hanuman Chalisa).

From March 2020, due to Covid 19 Government restrictions, prayer meetings, gatherings & overseas activities have been on hold. The Government Regulation have now allowed gatherings for Prayers it has been deemed unsafe for us to hold prayers so they are still on hold.

However it has been very important to keep in touch with the members of the congregation and there has been regular distribution of prasad delivered to the homes of devotees.

This year seen continued service in the pandemic

- For langar prasad in India.
- For oxygen cylinders in Rajkot, Gujarat

Murtis have been donated to a temple in Milton Keynes for worship.

Donation was given for food to Kathiawadi Trust for Navratri

This year has been very active for our Chairman Pujya Rambaba for launch of a book reflecting his journey from childhood to now. This has been very well received by the recipients because it has contained very profound teachings from experience in his life. This book has been distributed free to his followers in England and overseas

This year the Trust has made contributions in line with our aims towards:

- Feeding of Sadhus at the Magh Mela festival in Hardwar
- Donation to a charity for their work being aligned with our Trust for service to the poor and the needy.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

Our grant making policy is to support charitable institutions and programmes with aims and objects which are consistent with our Trust

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Achievements and performance

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The main activities of the Trust have been included in the section on activities undertaken for public benefit.

In addition the Trust has continued much needed support for cows in Pajrapod and Bhanwad.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

We are building up reserves with a view to buying a property where we can carry out the aims and objectives of the Trust i.e Prayers which we have been holding since inception of the Trust in which thousands of people have participated. Until now we have had to hire halls from week to week, but once we have this property we will have a stable venue for

- A facility for discourses
- A small temple for worship
- A hall for facilitating subsidised marriages
- For social activities for the poor and the needy

The Trust continues to look for a suitable property to buy. Our search continues to be hampered by high property prices which continue despite the economic downturn, and severe competition from other charities and home builders.

Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Respective
responsibilities of
trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent
examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention (other than that disclosed below *)

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act have not been met; or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
