STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a deed of trust, and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Reserves policy and Risk management

The trustees have given consideration to the major risks faced by the Charity and systems and procedures have been introduced to mitigate those risks. Most of the Charity's income has been derived from grants and donations in response to the fundraising efforts of the trustees and the uncertainty of this income is a major risk to the financial viability of the Charity. Therefore the trustees are aiming to build up the free reserves to a level that would provide at least short term security to cover periods when there is a shortfall in the receipt of grants and donations.

PUBLIC BENEFIT

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the duty in Section Four of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission in determining the activities undertaken by the Charity. The following sections demonstrate our provision of public benefit.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objects

The objects of the Charity are to benefit the public by providing relief and rehabilitation for persons resident in the United Kingdom suffering or recovering from any form of mental illness by provision of opportunities for such persons to engage in therapeutic activities. The Charity is also empowered to disseminate information by any means on any related matters. The activities undertaken by the Charity to further its charitable purposes for the public benefit in the year under review are referred to in the Review of activities below. The trustees review the aims and performance of the Charity on a regular basis and have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission in order to comply with section 4 of the Charities Act 2006.

Review of activities

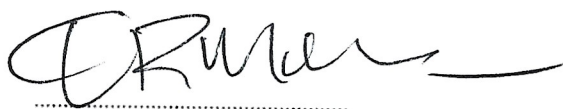

During the year the charity continued with its main objective of supporting the needs of people suffering from severe and enduring mental health problems. This included giving financial support to the Cathja Project, from funds raised by the charity shops.

The Shepperton shop employed a part time manager to take some of the work load off the volunteers who had been successfully running the shop for the past 20 years.

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

The charity is managed by a Board of Trustees which meets bi-monthly.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD:

Trustee

Connect Foundation for Mental HealthIndependent Examiner's Report to the Trustees

I report on the accounts for the year ended 31 March 2024 set out on pages six to fourteen.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under Section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

Having satisfied myself that the Charity is not subject to audit under Company Law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under Section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act); and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material respect, the requirements:

- (1) to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities (Charities SORP FRS102) have not been met; or
- (2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
