Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The objects of the charity are to promote the practice, study of, and research into infertility counselling and the publication of the useful results thereof.

Our regional groups, training workshops, conferences and informal networks enable members to stay abreast of new developments, explore and reflect on current issues and access support in their work.

The website and Journal are important resources for learning and our many Practice Guides provide essential insights into the specialist requirements of infertility counselling. The BICA accreditation scheme gives members, as well as employers and clients, assurance of their competence as specialist counsellors in the field.

The charity holds conferences, training, regional groups and accreditation events throughout the year.

The charity publishes a journal three times per year.

Practise Guidelines are developed and published by BICA and reviewed at relevant periods.

The Trustees represent BICA on the Boards and Committees of all main professional organisations related to assisted conception.

The Trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when planning the charity's activities for the year.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A

Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees/members of

BRITISH INFERTILITY COUNSELLING ASSOCIATION

On accounts for the year ended

31 March 2021

Charity no
(if any)

803743

Set out on pages

Trustees Annual Report, Receipts and Payments Account and Statement of Balances on pages 1 to 7.

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/03/2021.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
