Chairperson Introduction

I'd like to start by paying tribute to the previous chair, Mary Nic Ailín, who gave huge commitment and energy to the role in a period of significant transition, including helping to manage a change in leadership in the organisation. The main development this year is the departure of our previous director, Siubhán Nic Amhlaoibh in April 2025. On behalf of the board I'd like to thank her for her professionalism and commitment, and for all her hard work over the past two years. We wish her well in her new role with Gael Linn.

We have subsequently recruited a new director, Jack Mac Íomhair, who started in September 2025, and we are very much looking forward to working with him to advance the aims of the organisation over the next few years.

Other members of staff to depart include Peter Doherty, our events manager, who leaves an incredible legacy in respect of IMBOLC, our annual music festival, now approaching its 10th year. Peter has been replaced by Ryan Harling, who had previously done a fantastic job in charge of marketing.

Paul McIntyre moved on from the role as Acadamh coordinator, and was replaced by Orla Ní Chorrágáin initially, and more recently by Saoirse Barbour. We look forward to a period of stability, growth and development of the Acadamh, and are always excited to see our young performers coming through Feiseanna and Fleadhanna, and performing in the Cultúrlann and elsewhere. Cara McLoughlin also moved on from the Muintereas project, and was replaced by Amanda Koser-Gillespie, and we also welcomed Lauren Ní Néill back to the Cultúrlann as project officer for the UU affiliated FLOURISH project. Our heartfelt thanks to those who have left, and a very big welcome to the new members of staff, and we look forward to their contribution alongside our existing team members.

In terms of board membership, we welcomed Fiachra Mackle, and we said farewell to a number of former board members for various reasons, including Dr. Katie Mac Aindreasa, Nicole Rabbet, Antóin De Brún and Grace Ní Niallais. We thank them all for their valuable input and continued support.

We also welcomed An Creann Beatha Café to An Chultúrlann, and they have brought a lot of energy and life to the building. We would like to thank all of our existing tenants for their ongoing support, including The North West Academy, In Your Space Circus, The Soundworks, and An Ciste Infheistíochta Gaeilge.

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)
Report of the directors for the year ended 31 March 2025

A big thanks too to our funders: Foras na Gaeilge, The Arts Council, The Department of Foreign Affairs, The Community Relations Council, Derry City and Strabane District Council, as well as the Ultach Trust. The Education Authority continues to fund Club Óige Setanta – our all Irish youth club, one of only 2 all Irish clubs funded through this scheme, and we have recently secured two additional funded positions through Peace Plus. We would not be able to achieve our objectives without this ongoing help and support from the groups mentioned above and we hope we have repaid their confidence through the quality and breadth of our programmes and activities.

We would like to pay tribute to our various departments, as we had our usual extremely busy year, book ended by Imbolc in February, and our Halloween and Christmas celebrations. In between we had a very busy Seachtain na Gaeilge, summer schemes, numerous events, talks, classes, trips, book launches and concerts. It was another very good year overall, with hundreds of regular attendees at our various classes, and thousands of visitors to our festivals and other activities. Cultúrlann Uí Chanáin remains one of the most active, and innovative Irish language organisations in the country, and we are extremely grateful to our departments and full time and part time staff members for their hard work and dedication. Our ancillary and support staff are a crucial part of the Cultúrlann, and we also want to highlight their dedication and commitment to the work of the organisation.

The main challenge we faced over the financial year relates to running costs such as electricity, gas and water, as they continue to rise beyond our control, as well as other fixed costs involving services, insurance, and ongoing repairs.

Everyone's rate has risen over the past year, while funds remain static, creating real difficulties for the staff, in terms of cost of living, and for the organisation, in terms of balancing our budget. We are committed to working with the new director to identify new sources of funding, particularly unrestricted funding and the exploitation of our existing heritage assets. This work has already started, and will be discussed further as part of a strategic focus on finances before the end of 2025, with the aim of approaching the 25-26 year with renewed optimism and confidence.

Deaglán Ó Mocháin, Cathaoirleach an Bhoird

Our Aims and Objectives

An Gaeláras Limited is a charity, which was established to promote the Irish language and Irish culture in Derry and the north west. The organisation's vision is to create a shared, bilingual community, invested in Irish culture in the broadest sense. We nurture the Irish language and Irish culture, connecting generations and communities, through education, celebration and creativity.

We have values that are important in the work we do, and these values are empathy, community, appreciation, gratitude and integrity.

In order to contribute to the charitable goals of the organisation, throughout the year 24-25 we undertook the following events:

Our educational department taught around 400-450 people weekly through formal classes, conversation classes, masterclasses, intensive courses, social events and trips to the Gaeltacht. We also taught Irish to 400+ people, with 4x intensive courses, weekly classes and classes over the summer. In addition, we ran a programme of weekly introductions to language and culture for younger children not attending Irish medium education.

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)
Report of the directors for the year ended 31 March 2025

Our cross community department taught 5 classes per week to non traditional learners of Irish, including members of the PUL community, new arrivals to the country and others. It also organised talks, seminars and language related workshops in community groups and schools.

Our youth service - Club Óige Setanta - is an Irish language youth club that meets the needs of young Irish speakers in the city. It offered youth services three nights a week, as well as additional youth related trips and events, including a well attended summer scheme.

Our music academy taught music to 300+ people throughout the academic year, and organised additional performances, including at the Feis and Fleadh, as well as showcases, facilitating music grades and a summer workshop.

Our culture and arts department had another successful year including the annual IMBOLC festival in February, and various concerts, book launches, talks, poetry readings and other events throughout the year.

We continued to work with partners in building the community wealth of Derry community, including our ongoing commitment to protect and utilise the heritage buildings under our custodianship.

The board and the team continued to work on our 2024-27 strategy based on 5 major goals for the coming years:

- Teaching Irish and traditional music through a range of formal and informal learning opportunities.
- To provide a broad artistic program, focusing on creating opportunities for education and creativity through the medium of Irish, and the traditional Irish arts, and to hold exhibitions of the best Irish and Irish artists.
- To provide an Irish youth club that provides language, culture and leadership opportunities, and links to the wider program of the Uí Chanáin Cultural Centre and the regional needs of Irish medium youth services.
- Introducing non traditional learners to the Irish language and the arts, especially those from a broad PUL background, and who are not traditionally associated with the Irish language, and to use the language to foster links between different communities in Derry and the north-west.
- Building a strong organisation, developing staff, managing human and physical resources, financial resources, maintaining positive relationships with stakeholders while practising high standards of governance.

Financial Review

Principal Funding Sources

The principal funding sources over the relevant financial year have been the Arts Council, Foras na Gaeilge, Derry City and Strabane District Council, The Education Authority, The Department of Foreign Affairs, The Community Relations Council and the Ultach Trust. We have also secured new funding through the Peace Plus scheme. We also develop a significant return from our core tenants - the North West Academy, Crann Beatha (café), In Your Space Circus, The Soundworks and An Ciste Infheistíochta Gaeilge.

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)
Report of the directors for the year ended 31 March 2025

This year, our financial health faced significant challenges. Our main sources of revenue - grant and government funding - remain stable, but we faced considerable increases in running costs, particularly in electricity and gas, leading to a budget deficit. To manage this, we are undertaking proactive measures to reduce operational costs, particularly in areas such as energy efficiency, office expenses and building maintenance. We are reviewing all aspects of our income and expenditure as a matter of urgency, and are engaging with all members of staff to focus on raising additional funds throughout the 2025-26 financial year. We have applied for a number of funds that will help improve the efficiency of our main building and we are also undertaking a major strategic investment in the Teach Scoile to ensure our financial sustainability via the provision of student accommodation from 2027 onwards.

In the face of these current challenges, we are continually assessing our financial position and we are very confident that our additional efforts to increase income and reduce expenditure will return us to our customary financial stability over the coming financial year.

Achievements and Support

We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to all our supporters, community members, learners, and attendees of our activities for their unwavering commitment to our mission. The participation of our learners, attendees, and community partners in our Irish language classes, cultural events, and music programs keeps the heart of our organisation beating. We are deeply thankful to our dedicated team and board for their hard work and passion, which enables us to continue promoting the rich heritage of Irish culture and language.

We remain optimistic about the future and confident that, together, we will continue to make a lasting impact on the community, keeping the Irish language and cultural traditions alive and thriving. Go raibh míle maith agaibh go léir.

Obligations of the Board

The main obligation of the Board is to develop and oversee the implementation of policy and to ensure that structures and management comply with legal requirements and good governance practice.

Risk Management

The Board has conducted a review of the major risks to which the charity is exposed and to ensure that appropriate systems and procedures have been established to mitigate the risks. Internal control risks are minimised by the implementation of procedures for authorisation of all transactions and projects. A possible breach of confidentiality is an obvious risk, and Board members, staff and volunteers have signed the appropriate confidentiality agreements.

The major risk we face is the increase in running costs of the organisation, and we have taken short term, medium and long term steps to address this. Another major risk is loss of funding, and we are proactive in maintaining positive relationships with existing funders while also identifying new sources of support.

Organisational Structure

The An Gaeláras board meets every two months and is responsible for policy, strategic direction and monitoring overall performance. There are fortnightly staff meetings and a finance, and human resources committee meets prior to every board meeting. The director provides bi-monthly reports to the Board which include detailed financial reports (delivered alongside the treasurer) and updates on project development. Regular contact is maintained with the chair of the board, and issues are brought to the attention of the board members as appropriate in between the regular board meetings.

Responsibilities of the Board of Directors

The directors are responsible for preparing the Director Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Practice).

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under company law the directors must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable company at the Balance Sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP 2019 (FRS 102);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is not appropriate to assume that the company will continue on that basis;

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)
Report of the directors for the year ended 31 March 2025

- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The directors are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In accordance with company law, as the company's directors, we certify that:

So far as we are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware; and as the directors of the company we have taken all steps that we ought to have taken in order to make ourselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the charity's auditors are aware of that information.

Auditors

McGroarty McCafferty & Company are deemed to be reappointed in accordance with Section 487(2) of the Companies Act 2006.

Independent auditor's report to the directors of An Gaeláras Limited

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of An Gaeláras Limited for the year ended 31 March 2025 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet, Cashflow Statement and the related notes. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland".

This report is made solely to the charitable company's directors, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's directors those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's directors as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2025, and of its incoming resources and expenditure of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)

Other information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the directors' annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the financial statements or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Opinion on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- the information given in the directors' annual report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- the directors' annual report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of our knowledge and understanding of the charitable company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified material misstatements in the directors' annual report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Companies Act 2006 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- adequate accounting records have not been kept;
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit;
- the directors were not entitled to prepare the financial statements in accordance with the small companies regime and take advantage of the small companies exemption from the requirement to prepare a strategic report.

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)

Responsibilities of the directors

As explained more fully in the Directors' Responsibilities Statement, the directors (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Explanation as to what extent the audit was considered capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud;

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud lies with management and the board of directors of the charitable company.

Identifying and assessing potential risks related to irregularities

In identifying and assessing risks of material misstatement in respect of irregularities, including fraud and non-compliance with laws and regulations, we considered the following:

- the nature of the industry, sector and the specific control environment which it operates in;
- the charities own assessment of the risks that irregularities may occur, either as a result of fraud or error;
- representations and results from our enquiries with management and the board of directors regarding their own identification and assessment of the risks of irregularities;
- enquiries of management relating to accounting estimates measurements, recognition criteria and justification of such amounts;
- any matters we have identified having obtained and reviewed the charities policies and procedures relating to;
 - * identifying and assessing if laws and regulations are compliant and whether they are aware of any instances of non-compliance;
 - * detection and response to the risk of fraud and whether they are aware of any actual, suspected or alleged fraud instances;

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)

* the internal controls designed to mitigate risks or fraud or non-compliance with laws and regulations, and to minimise risk of management overrides of such controls.

- all matters discussed among the audit engagement team regarding how and where fraud could occur and the potential indicators of fraud.

As a result of these procedures, we considered the opportunities and incentives that may exist within the charity for fraud. The audit included assessing the procedures and evaluating the measurement of estimations. In common with all audits under ISAs (UK), we are also required to perform specific procedures to respond to the risk of management override.

We also required an understanding of the legal and regulatory frameworks applicable to the charity and considered that the most significant are the Companies Act 2006, SORP 2019 (FRS 102) and Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Audit responses to risks identified

Our procedures to respond to risks identified included the following:

- reviewing the financial statement disclosures, testing the relevant documentation to assess compliance with the significant laws and regulations - those described as having a direct effect on the financial statements;
- enquiring with management and obtaining third party confirmation from the charitable company's solicitors regarding any actual or potential litigation and claims;
- performing analytical procedures to identify any unusual or unexpected relationships that may indicate risks of material misstatement due to fraud;
- reading minutes of board and management meetings, examine forecasting material in line with actual performance, identifying any potential fraud indicators or instances;
- reviewing Companies House and Charity Commission Northern Ireland correspondence, identify any late submissions or omissions of mandatory information;
- review correspondence with HMRC, identifying non compliance of specific information to be disclosed;
- in addressing the risk of fraud through management override of controls, testing the appropriateness of data entries and adjustments; assessing whether the judgements made in making accounting estimates are indicative of a potential bias; and evaluating the rationale of any significant transactions that are unusual or outside the normal course of the charities objectives.

We also communicated relevant identified laws and regulations and potential fraud risks to all engagement team members and remained alert to any indications of fraud or noncompliance with laws and regulations throughout the audit.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs (UK), we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

An Gaeláras Limited
(A Company Limited by Guarantee)

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the charitable company's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of the auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the charitable company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
