Annual report

HARPER ADAMS IN IRELAND

Annual Report to the members of the Harper Adams in Ireland Association for the year ending July 31st 2023.

The year ending July 31st 2023 has been characterised by a modest recovery in activities from the restrictions imposed by Corvid disease control.

Support for prospective students

During the year prospective students were identified by attendance at a limited number of careers events in schools and by presentations given to senior students in schools. Reassurance, encouragement and advice was given to them and their parents on course availability, course choice, careers and career progression.

Support for Present Students

Awards, Bursaries & Scholarships.

Your association has continued to support present students by exploring the possibility of generating new scholarships, and by the administration of existing awards, bursaries and scholarships. During the year 19 students from the island of Ireland benefitted from financial support totalling £5,500. John Thompson & Sons continued to support students with a prize valued at £1,500 recognising academic achievement and contribution to the student community for the 21st consecutive year.

The Harper-Ireland Club

Harper Adams in Ireland was instrumental in organising the guest speaker for the Annual dinner of the student club in Harper Adams University and in supporting the student chairman and club in other ways.

Other support

Several current students were mentored during the year on their CV development, career opportunities. Your association continues to explore opportunities for student work placement and employment within the island of Ireland. One student was successfully nominated by Harper Adams in Ireland for the award of Top Northern Ireland agricultural student awarded by the Belfast Telegraph's Farming Life.

Underpinning Activities

Harper Adams in Ireland continues to be represented on the committee of the NI Schools Careers' Advisers Association (NISCA) and during the year attended the two NISCA Conferences and other careers events on behalf of the Association. The Association is also represented on the committee of the Poultry Industry Education Trust. Harper Adams in Ireland is also a member of the Guild of Agricultural journalists in Northern Ireland, regularly attends Guild meetings and submits material relating to prospective, present and past students to the printed press and social media.

In undertaking these activities and making this report your Association has had regard to the Commission's public benefit requirement and statutory guidance.

Ladies and gentlemen, I commend to you the activities of your Association in the year ending July 31st 2023, and this report to you for your approval.

Peter Harvey.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

HARPER ADAMS IN IRELAND ASSOCIATION ACCOUNTS YEAR ENDING JULY 31ST 2023

I have today examined the accounts of the Association for the year ending July 31st 2023

I have reviewed the accounting system in place to record both income and expenditure transactions in the accounts and I find this fully fit for purpose.

I have looked at the documentation supporting income received, and supporting documentation and justification for the major expenditure items. I have sampled the documentation supporting minor expenditure items. I find income supported by full documentation and expenditure fully supported by receipts and other documentation as appropriate.

Ladies and gentlemen, you may have confidence that the income and expenses account and the balance sheet presented for the year ending July 31st 2023 reflect the affairs of your Association during the year.

Yours truly,

George Ferguson

Annual report

HARPER ADAMS IN IRELAND

ANNUAL REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE HARPER ADAMS IN IRELAND ASSOCIATION FOR THE YEAR ENDING JULY 31ST 2022

Ladies and Gentlemen.

The year under review has been partially dominated by restrictions associated with the control of Covid-19. No external activities took place.

SUPPORT FOR PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS.

Contact with Prospective Students.

During the year, a limited number of prospective students were identified and during the last half of the year were contacted remotely. Reassurance encouragement and advice was given to them and their parents on course choice and career progression.

SUPPORT FOR PRESENT STUDENTS.

Scholarships and Awards.

The Association continued to support present students by the generation of new and the administration of existing awards and scholarships. Students from Ireland benefited from £13,500 of scholarships awarded by or administered by HA in I during the year. Your Association facilitated two students to attend the Oxford Farming Conference in January. Discussion with a potential sponsor has resulted in an agreement to support an additional scholarship to attend the Oxford Farming Conference in future years. John Thompson & Sons Ltd. sponsored the Victor Truesdale Prize to the final year student from Ireland who has contributed most to the student community.

Harper-Ireland Club.

The Harper-Ireland Club is the club for students from Ireland in Harper Adams University. HA in I was instrumental in securing the guest speaker at the Club's annual dinner in Shropshire. The Association continues to give advice and support to the student club in other ways.

Other Support.

The Association has mentored several students on industry opportunities, on the criteria for determining a career direction and strategy and has been instrumental in securing employment and facilitates the placement of employment opportunities in Ireland on the Harper Adams University web site.

UNDERPINNING ACTIVITIES.

Press.

Harper Adams in Ireland is represented on the committee of the Guild of Agricultural Journalists. Editors of the key agricultural papers in Ireland are Honorary Members of Harper Adams in Ireland. A regular item of alumni news is published fortnightly by arrangement with the editor of the Belfast News Letter's Farming Life supplement.

In making this report the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's public benefit requirement and statutory guidance

Ladies and Gentlemen, I commend to you the limited activities of your Association in 2021/22, and this report to you for your approval.
