

Unable to provide a Audit Report for this period due to the current Trustees only taking over in June 2024.

The current trustees are having to submit this return as a blank return as they do not have any access to any details prior to June 2024.

This annual return was competed under the guidance of charity commission staff.