Independent examiner's report to the trustees on the unaudited financial statements of Women Making Waves.

I report on the accounts of Women Making Waves for the year ended 31 March 2025 set out on pages to 2 to 3.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and independent examiner

The charity's Committee members are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of my examination, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Committee members concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

Structure, Governance and Management

Women Making Waves is governed by its Constitution that was adopted on 24th May 2000. The trustees at the date of this report and those who served during the financial year together with the dates of any changes are set out are listed below.

Women Making Waves is registered with the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland since 02/10/2014, under reference number NIC100518

Trustees / Directors

The trustees who served during the year are as follows:

Miriam Quinn

Eileen Drumm

Laverne Millar

Colette Faulkner

Public address

Ms Eileen Drumm, 4 Floraville, Enniskillen, County Fermanagh, BT74 6AP

Objectives and Activities

Objectives

The Group is established to promote the benefit of disabled and non-disabled women in County Fermanagh and its environs (hereinafter described as 'the area of benefit') without distinction of age, race, political, religious or other opinion, by associating the statutory authorities, voluntary organisations and inhabitants in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for the protection of health and for recreation, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the said women.

Key Activities in this Year

Increasing awareness of the challenges disabled people face, liaising with statutory bodies, including the community planning process and ensuring the environment is accessible to those with disabilities.

Women Making Waves Trustees have considered Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our objectives and in planning our future activities to ensure that these achieve the association's purposes and provide a benefit to beneficiaries.

Financial Review

Review of Business

Women Making Waves is non-profit making with net income and resources in this year of £2,185.00

The trustees continue to manage resources in an efficient and sustainable manner.

Reserves Policy

Women Making Waves have a Reserves Policy, which requires that reserves are built or maintained at a level which ensures that the organisations core activities could continue during a period of unforeseen difficulty and that the organisations known liabilities will be paid should the organisation cease to trade.

Future Plans

Women Making Waves plan to continue to focus on controlling costs, while maintaining the high standards of service to our beneficiaries.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES for the year ended 31st March 2024.

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with all appropriate regulations. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant information (information needed by the charity's independent examiner in connection with preparing the independent examiners report) of which the charity's independent examiner is unaware, and
- the trustees have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant independent examiner information and to establish that the charity's independent examiner is aware of that information.
