

Tools For Solidarity Charity Number 100614

Unqualified report for a charity and has an income of £250,000 or less

I was asked by the charity to act as independent examiner of the Charities Accounts in December 2018 (email request available). I agreed providing I had the standing to act as examiner. I confirmed eligibility by satisfying the following conditions

- The Charity had an income of less than £250000 but is a company thus allowing accruals accounts that can be independently examined
- The constitution of TFS allowed for the appointment of an independent examiner

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of Tools For Solidarity

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2023, which are set out on pages 03 to 05.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

□ examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act □ follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act □ state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act

2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records

3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act

4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
