No More Traffik

Report of the Trustees for the Year Ended 31 March 2024

The members of the Board present their annual report and the unaudited financial statements of the company for the year ended 31st December 2020. This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and Aims

Human trafficking is the deception, movement and exploitation of human beings for profit. It is the fastest growing form of organised crime and occurs in nearly all countries globally, and including Northern Ireland. Recent information provided by the PSNI and the Department of Justice suggests that people of all ages, nationalities, socioeconomic backgrounds, religions and genders are vulnerable to being trafficked from within or from their own countries.

No More Traffik was established by a small number of members following a successful local campaign standing against human trafficking in Belfast in May 2012. The overall aim of NMT is to work towards a traffik-free society by raising awareness and equipping individuals and communities to stop human trafficking.

The charity's purposes are set out in the objects contained in the company's Memorandum of Association. NMT was established for the advancement of education, the advancement of health, the relief of poverty and those in need, the advancement of community development, the advancement of human rights, and the improvement of community.

The activities of the Trust are reviewed on an annual basis to ensure that they reflect the company's objectives and aims and that they advance public benefit.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable Activities

On 1 September 2021 the charity became a subsidiary of Hope for Justice, a charity registered in England & Wales and all funds and activities were transferred to that Charity and are reported within its Report & accounts.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial Position

During the year, the charity received no donations as all income is received directly by its parent Hope for Justice

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
No More Traffik

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 March 2024, which are set out on pages four to ten.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees (and also the directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 386 of the Companies Act 2006
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
