The Current Situation

We are thankful that during 2025 we reached a 'sale agreed' status with a buyer. But considerable legal work, that associated with conveyancing, remains and is expected to take some time.

Accounts

The annual audited statement for 2025 is appended. As in 2024 the entries in it recorded largely the costs generated by premises upkeep and security – insurance, utilities and maintenance of the site.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S FINANCIAL REPORT - 2025

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

I am reporting, as an Independent Examiner, on the Receipts and Payments Account which has been prepared for this Charity for the year ended 31 December 2023. It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act.
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under Section 65 (9)(b) of the Charities Act.
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

I have examined the Accounts in accordance with the above responsibilities. My examination included a review of the Charity's accounting records, a comparison of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts and the Trustees' explanations for any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

- That accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 65 of the Charities Act.
- That the Accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
- That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
- That there is further information need for a proper understanding of the Accounts to be reached.

My examination has given me no concerns in respect of the above and, following the directions of CCNI, I have no matters that I require to draw to your attention.

Summary of Current Situation

Under the heading, The Work Discontinues, our 2023 Annual Report made the following statement:

During 2023 it became clear that the efforts we had put into the work were not going to result in the development of the congregation as we had hoped and striven for. It became increasingly clear with passing weeks, that the church services of worship, suspended from September 2022, should not be re-instated, although the minister continued to work from his church study, remaining on hand for contact until February 2023. So the decision was made in July, with the consent of the members, to formally discontinue the work. Since then the building has been made available for the organisations of the denomination as we began the lengthy process of formal wind-up and disposal of the premises.

The process of formal wind-up and disposal of the premises continued during 2004 without reaching a conclusion regarding the disposal of the property and the process looks set to continue for some time yet.

Accounts

The annual audited statement for 2024 is appended. The entries in it recorded largely the costs generated by premises upkeep and security – insurance, utilities and maintenance of the site.

Conclusion

Our 2023 Annual Report recorded the thanks due to various people and our good wishes to Richhill and its communities.

Trustees Annual Report – 2022

Minister and Session

Rev Mark Johnston was formally installed as Minister of Richhill at a meeting of Presbytery, 1 March 2021, and with the church session led the work of the congregation as recorded in this annual report. James Stephenson, ceased his session role in March 2022 and Mr Johnston wrote to him to express session's sincere thanks for his many years of service to Richhill as a member of session to which he added a huge range of practical duties and the local involvement which that required. His place, as an assessor elder, was taken by David Woolsey from the EPC's Crumlin congregation.

New Trustees

The session began the procedure to appoint new Trustees in September 2021 and this was completed in December 2022. The six trustees are now Richard Beattie, Andrew Johnston, Derek Johnston, Rev Mark Johnston, David Tinsley and David Woolsey. The session thanks each of these men for their willingness to take on the responsibility of this role.

Ligonier Conference

Ligonier Ministries (USA) exists to proclaim, teach, and defend the holiness of God in all its fullness to as many people as possible. They support the church by providing trustworthy teaching to help Christians. One of the ways they do this is through regional conferences and Richhill EPC had the privilege of hosting one of them in February 2022, when the speakers were Dr Sinclair Ferguson and Rev Mark Johnston. It was a hugely anticipated and successful occasion with the evidence of a packed auditorium and an overflowing car park

Church Organisations

The Explorers meeting for primary school children which began in September 2021 continued, and attracted an average of 18 children. Engagement with the parents was encouraging. Scallywags, for mothers and toddlers was launched in March 2022 which 12 parents and 20 toddlers attended. Fiona Johnston led both these projects and session records its appreciation for her work and skills in making them so successful. Session includes in its thanks the local staff of Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF) who helped greatly with these gatherings. In connection with this, session were delighted to make the building available to CEF for a training course during January and March 2022.

Church Services and Membership

The first celebration of the Lord's Supper at Richhill EPC for several years, was held in February 2022 when three new members were received. It was an important occasion. Members of session and others worked hard to develop regular morning and evening Lord's Day services which had resumed in September 2021 after COVID-19. There were regular visits to the village to distribute our quarterly bulletin, The View, and local press advertising. Contact was also made though the church organisations and the Ligonier Conference. Session also experimented with the appointment of an outreach worker to provide additional contact and they carried out substantial work to the building. However, response, in terms of attendance at the services remained extremely limited and consequently session decided with great reluctance to suspend services from the autumn of 2022.

Accounts

The annual audited accounts statement for 2022 is appended. They detail the church's income and expenditure for the year, with a statement of our assets and liabilities attached.

Thanks

The session wishes to record its thanks for the prayerful and practical support and encouragement of those who were involved with the work at Richhill, and concerned for it, and who helped in many practical ways during the year.

"And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up."

Trustees Annual Report – 2021

Minister

In January 2021 the congregation and friends of Richhill were delighted to welcome back the first minister of the congregation, Rev Mark Johnston, his wife Fiona and daughter Lindsay to resume the work. Mr Johnston was formally installed as Minister of Richhill at a meeting of Presbytery, 1 March 2021. Presbytery repeated the installation procedure at a meeting at Richhill, 24 April 2021 for a large congregation of local people and visitors, when Rev Steven Curry preached the sermon.

Session

Rev Marcus P Hobson continued as Moderator of Session until the installation of Rev Mark G Johnston in March 2021. We record our sincere thanks for his diligent service in this role since 2017. The two Ruling Elders, David Tinsley and James Stephenson, continued to serve as members of the Richhill Session. The Session met five times during 2021 and led the work as outlined in this report.

The session began the procedure to appoint new Trustees in September 2021.

Church services

Covid-19 lockdown and restrictions prevented the re-commencement of services until 11 March 2021 when we resumed afternoon gatherings. We then moved to regular morning and evening services on 5 September 2021. All of these services were broadcast live via YouTube. We made a range of free literature available on our book table.

Our weekly prayer meeting on Tuesday evenings also resumed in March 2021.

Outreach Activities

We advertised our services in the Portadown and Armagh press, we distributed our quarterly bulletin, The View, throughout the village and we presented a Saturday morning open-air bookstall on several occasions.

On 11 September 2021 we held a well-attended, very successful fun day for children, parents and friends.

Explorers

This weekly gathering for primary children on Thursday evenings began on 19 September 2021 and achieved an average attendance of 15. It was good to hear from some parents who brought their children, that they had attended Terry's Tearaway Club in the same building in their own youth. Fiona Johnston led the work and CEF workers, Gareth and Lindsay Gwynne, very kindly played a major role in running this meeting each week.

Accounts

The annual audited accounts statement for 2021 is appended. They detail our income and expenditure for the year, with a statement on page 2 of our assets and liabilities.

Thanks

The session wishes to record sincere thanks for the support and encouragement of those who attended the services and helped in so many practical ways with the varied aspects of congregational life. We are thankful that today there is such a strong evangelical witness throughout the church constituency in Richhill.

"Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high ..." (Heb 1.1-5)

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S FINANCIAL REPORT - 2021

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

I am reporting, as an Independent Examiner, on the Receipts and Payments Account which has been prepared for this Charity for the year ended 31 December 2021. It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act.
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under Section 65 (9)(b) of the Charities Act.
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

I have examined the Accounts in accordance with the above responsibilities. My examination included a review of the Charity's accounting records, a comparison of any unusual items or disclosures in the Accounts and the Trustees' explanations for any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

- That accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 65 of the Charities Act.
- That the Accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
- That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
- That there is further information need for a proper understanding of the Accounts to be reached.

My examination has given me no concerns in respect of the above and, following the directions of CCNI, I have no matters that I require to draw to your attention.
